PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Please stretch and exercise your attention span by reading this entire manuscript in full, including the BONUS Literature.

You will hereby learn some very valuable lessons that will guide you out of the illusion of reality created by the Illuminati and find yourself in the light of liberty and luxury.

You may even find yourself in a state of shock by this mind blowing information.

The Illuminati is real and we've studied the schemes of how to become as rich and powerful as they are.

We don't have to sell our souls nor sacrifice a loved one to live our lives at such a lavish level. But we must be mindful of the secrets of life and success which they rigorously keep out of our reach (so that they could control us).

And the only price you have to pay at this point is attention.

This is not a huge book in quantity but it certainly is in quality. It may seem lengthy in page count because of the bonus literature but it should only take you about 30 minutes to read the actual book.

In this book (RONNIE BO Method in the FREE R. KELLY Madness) you will discover fun ways to raise funds for yourself, your family and our community. You will even be offered job opportunities and even ownership in our many companies.

There's so much to the method in all of this madness.

INTRODUCTION

Ronnie Bo, a book author and songwriter from Milwaukee Wisconsin, was incarcerated at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago (MCC) with R. Kelly from June 24, 2019 until May 19, 2021 after being framed in a Northern District of Illinois indictment as a member of a Chicago based drug trafficking organization.

Since late March of 2023, after his interview on JuiceTalkTV went viral, Ronnie Bo has been known as the voice for R. Kelly and all other Black men in America who have been entrapped and silenced by the secret government who controls the most influential puppets in politics and entertainment as their puppet masters.

Ronnie Bo has been able to reach the masses with his message through JuiceTalkTV, All Viral Access Media, Terrence 'Gangsta' Williams, The Lionel B Show, DoggieDiamondsTV, Infamous Sylvia, PrimaDonnaNews, LadyDeeLive, Nothing To Something Podcast and many other underground platforms.

Recently, Vlad and Michael T Baker (known as Champ) made references to Ronnie Bo on The Math Hoffa Show regarding so-called conspiracy theories that R. Kelly had asked Ronnie Bo to publicize.

Vlad had recently conducted an interview with R. Kelly from a jail call to confirm (from the horse's mouth) all of the alleged conspiracy theories that are being publicized about his case by Ronnie Bo.

Quite obviously, R. Kelly had confirmed that Ronnie Bo is speaking the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, to power, and about some very powerful people (such as Jay-Z, Quincy Jones and Barry Hankerson) that Vlad wouldn't dare publicize on his platform.

Although R. Kelly and Ronnie Bo have both apparently been blackballed by the powers that be and all mainstream media platforms, Ronnie Bo has displayed potential to break through such obstacles.

On 414-Day (April 14, 2023) Ronnie Bo had released a single from his Grind Now Shine Later Volume II album entitled "Free R. Kelly" which debuted at #19 on the Emerging 300 Charts.

By April 21, 2023, just a week later, "Free R. Kelly" ranked #3 on the charts but had dropped down to #299 within just a few short hours after Ronnie Bo had announced the success of his new hit single, ironically!

What's so ironic about it is that it seems as if someone behind the scenes had pulled some strings to hinder Ronnie Bo from rising to the #1 spot on the charts.

Nonetheless, in spite of such irony Musisweek.com published an online article stating:

With lyrics such as, "Fk Jay-Z;" "they sacrificing loved ones for money;" "true Black Jew... shot outs to Kyrie and Kanye;" "Drake and Lil Wayne stole my song;" and "they tried to frame my na (R. Kelly) as a little girl rapist," Milwaukee artist Ronnie Bo is calling for justice for singer R Kelly in a song that could arguably be considered the most controversial song in Hip Hop history.

<https://musisweek.com/detail/1301/New-anthem-by-Milwaukee-artist-calls-to-'Free-R-Kelly'>

That's correct, "Free R. Kelly" by Ronnie Bo is "considered the most controversial song in Hip Hop history."

Furthermore, Ronnie Bo's subtle method to the Free R. Kelly madness is making history by encouraging people all around the world who once felt silenced to speak up and voice your own opinion about how R. Kelly has been maliciously prosecuted.

We pay close attention to your comments under Ronnie Bo's many YouTube interviews. And we want you all to know that your opinions truly make a difference.

Ronnie Bo is motivated to persevere through all that comes with speaking truth to power including the many death threats he receives, the backlash, the ridicule, the government surveillance and all, because of your comments, whether good or bad, so please continue to voice your opinion and feel free to do so.

And you are all welcomed to join us on this history-making journey.

We are now in the process of setting up a 12 city tour for Ronnie Bo to perform his "Free R. Kelly" anthem live at clubs and concert halls near you.

Free R. Kelly by Ronnie Bo is a true Hip Hop anthem that is alarming the government and awakening the people, as Hip Hop music was originally designed to do.

As the Jewish Mafia (known as the Illuminati) began to notice the impact that Hip Hop music had on influencing the masses, they infiltrated Hip Hop culture.

They invested their wealth into Hip Hop music that negatively impacts our culture and deviously influences us all to adapt to self destructive habits such as: unnecessary beef, drug trafficking, prostitution, robbery and wasting our own wealth on keeping their brands and their affiliates brands in business.

But the Method to the Free R. Kelly Maddess could free our culture from such psychological slavery, if only more of us would just take heed and become opinion leaders ourselves.

PROBLEM V. SOLUTION

“Everyone has problems. But the primary problem for us all is that we focus more on the problems and less on the solutions.”

—Ronnie Bo

The ‘Problem’ is: we have people like Vlad in the industry who have infiltrated our culture as a Hip Hop capitalist that specializes in capitalizing on our conflicts (rap beef).

YouTubers accumulate revenue from views and Vlad bases most of his views on rap beef.

Vlad is the greatest instigator of rap beef, ever. But ironically, he wouldn’t publicize his interview with R. Kelly because according to him, R. Kelly was exposing the people who conspired to frame him as a monster/pedophile.

Seems like the type of content that has made VladTV the most watched podcast of the Hip Hop culture so there had to be another reason why Vlad refused to publicize his interview with R. Kelly.

Maybe because Vlad knows that certain people could ruin him if he was to publicize certain information about certain people on such a major platform.

Another part of the problem is there hasn’t been a rapper like Tupac since Tupac because of the FBI’s Counterintelligence Program (COINTELPRO).

The directive from former FBI director J. Edger Hoover was to “neutralize any and every Black man who projects the propensities to unify and electrify the majority of us.”

To neutralize a person means to render them either harmless or ineffective.

And the only way to neutralize an uncompromising Black man like Tupac is to either incarcerate or assassinate him.

Nipsey Hussle once tried to explain how the government had established organizations such as the FBI, the DEA, the CIA, Homeland Security, NATO and even the local police to enforce their agenda on any individual or organization who is uncompromising to their agenda.

Desiree Perez, is a well known federal informant but happens to be the CEO of Roc Nation.

Our culture technically worships Jay-Z, whether consciously or subconsciously, as if he is truly the God of our culture, while ignoring the fact that Jay-Z is technically a rat, working with the feds, as Desiree Perez is the Chief Executive-‘Officer’ of his business.

Do you think Malcolm X or Tupac would’ve allowed the feds to run their business?

Jay-Z does not pose any threat of harm to the government's agenda because he is not uncompromising.

No uncompromising Black man of our culture would allow a known federal informant to run his business.

Isn’t our culture supposed to be against working with the Feds?

Both R. Kelly and Tory Lanez went against Jay-Z and both were later framed by the feds in cases that ruined their careers and sent them to prison.

Not to mention that Dream Hampton who happens to be the executive producer of the Surviving R. Kelly docuseries happen to be directly connected to Jay-Z as his ex-girlfriend and publicist.

The most dangerous rats are not the ones we know about but the ones who know how to hide their hands are the ones we should be worried about.

America is a business itself that is marketed as a democracy, which is actually owned by a plutocracy in disguise.

As most corporations are structured, they all have presidents who are assigned by the stockholders/owners with the responsibility to run the corporation in accordance with their agenda.

The FBI, CIA, DEA and other government agencies are assigned to protect the interests of the plutocrats who own the government.

Jay-Z and his federal informant partners are in cahoots to protect and multiply the interest of the plutocracy who they work for. Not the interest of our culture.

The plutocracy has rewarded Jay-Z with wealth because he earned it over the last few decades by using his music to influence our culture to spend our own earnings buying into brands like Rolex, Birkin, Hermes, and Louis Vuitton, to name a few.

Just as we witnessed with YE (Kanye West), the plutocracy could strip you of such wealth instantaneously, the moment you do or say anything that puts their interests in harm.

But there was a mastermind method to YE's madness which was to free himself from slavery so that he could eventually earn his true worth.

Now let's focus less on the problem and more on the solution.

The 'Solution' is: to think our way out of psychological slavery as YE did.

The worst part about the problem is that we all focus on the problem instead of the solution.

So let's focus on the solution which is "The Method" to the "Free R. Kelly" Madness.

The method to the "Free R. Kelly" madness is by no means to provoke anyone to hate (or be mad at) Jay-Z.

Jay-Z is just the puppet. It would be very delusional of us to be mad at the puppet instead of the master, who has his hand inside of the puppet, as the master cunningly creates the illusion that the puppet is misleading our culture, while we ignore the puppet master.

And madness is not a negative emotion if it is well managed and effectively channeled into a positive cause.

In example, let's use boxing as an analogy. Sometimes boxers earn respect from their opponent after a ferocious fight.

Sometimes boxers who are fans of each other end up forced to fight each other simply because it's what the world wants to see.

And boxers strategically build up madness to channel towards their opponent, because it gives them the essential energy required for offense (or to knockout their opponent) but if the madness is not well managed, the fighter may get so reckless in the ring that they forget about the necessity of defense and might get themselves knocked out, instead.

With that being understood, Ronnie Bo was strategically being offensive towards Jay-Z and the puppet masters who control Jay-Z in his "Free R. Kelly" anthem.

And of course Jay-Z and the powers that be took offense to the song lyrics, as they should.

But Ronnie Bo himself is or was a fan of Jay-Z.

Anyhow, the "Free R. Kelly" campaign is a fight. We are fighting for justice.

Ronnie Bo believes that if we could actually free R. Kelly, with such a victory, we could shine light on the government corruption that millions of Black men have suffered and free many more of them.

We are challengers in this fight with determination to become champions.

And the “Free R. Kelly” anthem is a powerful punch, with the force of madness behind it, which could potentially knockout its opponents if it happens to hit them where it hurts.

THE MADNESS

If Ronnie Bo goes into this fight recklessly, without efficient defense, he risks the chance of lowering his guard and getting hit with a fierce shot that could knock him out (assassination).

Ronnie Bo is already receiving anonymous death threats from who knows.

It would seem silly to say the threats are coming from Jay-Z. But maybe it'll make more sense to say that the threats are coming from the federal government, being that Ronnie Bo had indeed finessed the feds.

On March 9 of 2017, just 2 months after Ronnie Bo had launched a national movement to liberate Black inmates, as presented through the 60th issue of the Don Diva Magazine, DEA task-force officer Tim Gray had suddenly intervened in the movement.

DEA officer Tim Gray conducted a false arrest on Ronnie Bo under the guise that he had seized 90 grams of heroin from Ronnie Bo's girlfriend.

The Milwaukee Police Department had already been exposed for harassing Ronnie Bo (on Fox6 News) after MPD officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown had assaulted him, and attempted to frame him in a drug case, without having any drugs to show for.

With the DEA being aware of that, Tim Gray contrived his scheme to frame Ronnie Bo in a drug case with actual drugs to plant on Ronnie Bo's girlfriend, in order to coerce her into being a potential witness that they could use to fabricate a case on him.

Tim Gray is well known for framing innocent Black men in federal cases as a DEA agent. In most of his cases, he was even known for attempting to force his victims into cooperating with him as his informants, by either threats of death or life in federal prison, as he attempted to do with Ronnie Bo.

With Ronnie Bo knowing this, he cunningly finessed the feds and swindled DEA officer Tim Gray into a lawsuit, for attempting to force him into becoming a government informant.

Court records and evidence shows that Ronnie Bo was placed under interrogation multiple times and refused to cooperate with the feds on each attempt to coerce him into cooperating.

Ronnie Bo had even told DEA officer Tim Gray, verbatim, “I’m a man of honor and integrity... I can’t tell on nobody.”

However, to make a long story short, DEA officer Tim Gray wouldn’t give up on their tactical and unlawful coercive attempts to force Ronnie Bo into submission.

Tim Gray had strategically succeeded in coercing Ronnie’s girlfriend to say that Ronnie Bo was buying drugs from a guy named Red in Chicago.

This was a tactic to his overall strategy to force Ronnie Bo into cooperation.

So, with Ronnie Bo peeping the play, he made up a fake nickname of who he had later identified as his imaginary friend, as court records reveal.

Ronnie Bo had a strategy of his own, which was to create a pretense of willingness to cooperate so that he could let his friend in Chicago know that the feds were attempting to frame them.

During his third or fourth interrogation session, after refusing to cooperate each time, Ronnie Bo stated that he doesn’t know anyone named Red, but knows a guy named B-Man (his imaginary friend) who was the brink man, which he was willing to set up, if they would agree to immediately release him and his girlfriend.

Foolishly, the feds fell for the finesse and made a verbal agreement with Ronnie Bo to check in with the DEA two-days after they release him so that they could provide him with buy money and a wire to conduct a controlled buy on B-Man.

Immediately after Ronnie Bo was released, he bought new phones and contacted everyone who he had street ties with, to tell them about his run in with the feds, and advised them all to buy new phones as he did, and to lay low for a while.

He even told them all that the DEA had released him under stipulations for him to become a federal informant.

Afterwards, Ronnie Bo had contacted Brent Nistler, who was the Civil Rights attorney representing him at the time, in his case against the Milwaukee Police Department.

Bo asked Brent to sue DEA officer Tim Gray for attempting to force him into becoming a government informant but Brent declined because he believed that Ronnie Bo didn't have a good case to win a lawsuit against the DEA.

Therefore, Ronnie Bo filed a lawsuit against the DEA himself for bribery, false arrest and police misconduct, and fled to Miami, as documented in his indictment.

In retaliation to Ronnie Bo refusing to cooperate with the DEA as an informant, along with a lawsuit against the DEA to add insult to injury, the government had indicted Ronnie Bo.

He was framed in a case as a member of a Chicago based drug trafficking organization with an enhancement of obstructing justice for basically refusing to cooperate.

Such injustice would make most of us sad, but it only made Ronnie Bo mad.

Since then, he has been inspired with a divine madness that encouraged him to fight for justice, not only for himself, but for all other Black men and women who suffer from the adverse effects of this corrupt system that we call, “modern day slavery.”

While incarcerated with R. Kelly at MCC-Chicago, Ronnie Bo was curious to know if R. Kelly was framed like he was.

So, he asked Kels if he was ever solicited to do things against his integrity by the elites.

“Kels,” gestured Ronnie Bo, to R. Kelly. “I watched your video (I Wish) a few times bro, and I just gotta ask you, in that scene where you was talking to yo’ mama, and told her you want out, was you making references to being solicited to sell your soul,” asked Ronnie Bo.

“I see you pay attention to details” R. Kelly replied, as confirmation to Ronnie’s speculation.

In the Bible, Jesus questioned, “what profit is made to one who gains the whole world but loses their own soul?”

The answer is, nothing! In the “I Wish” music video that Ronnie Bo had questioned R. Kelly about, R. Kelly’s mother had quoted the aforementioned scripture of Jesus, while conversing with her son from Heaven.

R. Kelly was trying to warn us, way back then, about the evils that he was experiencing in the music industry.

This is a wicked world which we live in. And, believe it or not, but the majority of our world leaders are devil worshippers behind the scenes, who are in the business of buying and selling souls.

They are energy vampires who leeches off of our pain, sorrow, hope and desire.

With their riches, power and cleverness they have the ability to make the moral ones miserable. They could make those of us with dignity seem dishonorable.

As Ronnie Bo reiterated from a Malcolm X speech, “through their media they could make the guilty seem innocent and make the innocent seem guilty.”

So don't be so quick to judge when you see any influential Black man or woman being publicly sabotaged in the media because the method to their madness is to discredit our true leaders.

Look at the lofty titles they place on each other so that we could admire, praise and worship them and so that they could make us think and feel like we're beneath them: Queen Elizabeth, Lord Jacob Rothschild, Pope Francis and even Jay-Z is known as Hov (as in Jehovah/God).

And we are supposed to address courtroom judges, who are actually priests of Baal (Satan) as, Your Honor. It's psychological slavery.

This is why Jesus presented himself as the Son of God. And it is the same reason why Ronnie Bo presents himself in his books and legal documents as a Holy Prophet.

The reason is to demand respect from the powers that be.

The government framed Ronnie Bo as a major drug dealer, and locked him in federal prison, just months after he had embarked on his political campaign to free Black inmates.

Then, after their failed attempts to discredit him by soliciting him to become a federal informant, federal officers of the BOP attempted to kill him in prison, while he fought the case.

He has already settled his lawsuit against the DEA in April of 2022 for a significant amount and now he's fighting his lawsuit against the BOP (Case No. 22-cv-05440: in the Northern District of Illinois).

Just as Ronnie Bo has been a major factor in support of R. Kelly, and the entire R. Kelly sector, R. Kelly and the entire R. Kelly sector is hereby asked to reciprocate, by jumping in his fight against the BOP, because it would help us all shine light on the cruelty that people like R. Kelly and Ronnie Bo have suffered in the prison system, which doesn't even justify the crime that was 'allegedly' committed.

It's time to put yourself in the mindset that you're going into the biggest fight of your life.

This is bigger than Muhammad Ali v. George Foreman.

This is bigger than Floyd Mayweather v. Conor McGregor.

This is bigger than Tank Davis v. King Ryan.

This is bigger than Errol Spence v. Terrence Crawford.

We are freedom fighters, fighting on the world stage, against the dark forces of the Devil (and his evil sorcerers and colonists).

What the United States government has done to our people since slavery, to this day, is 1,000x worse than what Russia has been doing to Ukraine, since last year.

THE METHOD

The Method to all of this madness is for us to bring our problems with this government into the United Nations, in the International Court of Justice, just as Malcolm X had attempted to do in 1965, in the same manner that Ukraine brought their problems with Russia to the United Nations, in the International Court of Justice (read the World Court Petition enclosed in the BONUS Literature for illuminating insight into this method).

As unfortunate as it may seem, R. Kelly is being used by God as a divine man (like Moses) with a divine mission, to free a divine group of people (us and all Black inmates) from the modern day slavery of our modern day pharaohs.

R. Kelly's situation will be marked in history as a divine story for God's glory.

Like Moses, a man who couldn't read, write or articulate himself well, according to the Book of Exodus, Aaron first functioned as Moses' assistant.

Because Moses complained that he could not speak well, God appointed Aaron as Moses' "messenger" (Exodus 4:10-17; 7:1).

And God appointed Ronnie Bo as R. Kelly's messenger who shall reveal to the world what the United States Government and the satanic sorcerers behind the music industry have done to R. Kelly.

R. Kelly's case is a classic case of the government corruption and injustice imposed on Blacks in America.

So after we expose how they have done R. Kelly, we could use R. Kelly's case as a prime example of how the so-called judicial system has done all other Black men, in the judicial system of America.

But we must bring such issues into the jurisdiction of the world court, as Ronnie Bo has already done.

The task at hand is to expose how the government uses its media to paint a distorted picture of our people to the mass public, and how they silence those of us who have a voice, loud enough for the world to hear, through either assassination or incarceration.

The United States is in violation of its own constitution. We have the Constitutional Right of Freedom of Speech and Freedom of The Press, among many other Constitutional Rights of which are being violated.

Therefore, since the United States government does not honor our Constitutional Rights and Civil Rights as citizens, we could exercise our Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, by charging the entire United States government in the International Criminal Court, as the people of Ukraine did the Russian government.

And we should embark on this crusade by fighting for our Freedom of Speech and our Freedom of The Press.

R. Kelly has a massive message that he needs to get out to the public. In his recent interview with Vlad, he attempted to deliver that message.

But the message was suppressed by Vlad. Vlad mentioned in his interview on the Math Hoffa Show that he will not release the interview because of R. Kelly's alleged conspiracy theories, and the people who R. Kelly had intended to expose in the interview.

Again, Ronnie Bo has been appointed by God as R. Kelly's messenger. So everything that Ronnie Bo has revealed thus far, in his many interviews, is what R. Kelly intended to confirm in his interview with Vlad.

Vlad's sole purpose of setting up an interview with R. Kelly was to discredit Ronnie Bo and everything that Ronnie Bo has revealed about his discussions with R. Kelly.

So as a counter attack, Ronnie Bo will obtain the interview that R. Kelly had conducted with Vlad, by subpoena-ing the court, to disclose the phone records, under the Freedom of Information Act, if he is not assassinated, by then.

Vlad is a Russian Jew who works for the Jewish Mafia (puppet masters) whose agenda is to accentuate rap beef, so that our culture could continue to kill each other, and they rigorously reject any and all music and messages that could expose any of their puppets.

During Vlad's interview with Math Hoffa, the co-host (Champ) who owns YKTV-Viral Magazine, mentioned a guy (Ronnie Bo) who advertises with him.

Ronnie Bo has a 2-page article in vol.19 of the YKTV-Viral Magazine where he initially addressed his campaign to liberate Black inmates.

In the article, Ronnie Bo made references to his lawsuit against the BOP and why R. Kelly is listed as a witness in the lawsuit.

And Ronnie Bo published the article in YKTV-Viral Magazine directly through Math Hoffa's co-host Michael T. Baker (Champ) which makes it clear that Champ was referring to Ronnie Bo in their interview with Vlad.

There's a reason why Vlad and Champ didn't mention Ronnie Bo by name on The Math Hoffa Show.

And it's the same reason why Vlad is refusing to broadcast his interview with R. Kelly.

In fact, both Math Hoffa and Vlad had previously rejected Ronnie Bo as a guest on their platforms, for the exact same reason.

Reason being, Jay-Z is a billionaire, with ties to the Jewish Mafia, who pulls the strings of many industries. Not just the music industry but the banking industry, the law enforcement industry, the prison industry and other vital industries in the world.

These industry tycoons have political and financial interests invested into Jay-Z, and everyone in mainstream media and the music industry knows this.

So, they fear Jay-Z and praise Jay-Z as if he was their God.

With that being understood, Vlad, Math Hoffa, Champ and everyone else in these industries know that Jay-Z has the power to end their careers as he did Nas, Camron, Damon Dash, R. Kelly, and others.

Jay-Z has the power to get R. Kelly and Ronnie Bo killed, and make it appear to be death by suicide, or natural cause. And if his efforts to blackball them fails he may attempt to do just that.

Look at how Jeffrey Epstein's death was labeled a suicide. A man charged with sex trafficking children as Jay-Z and other individuals had involvement in the case.

In spite of knowing this, Ronnie Bo is determined to continue his campaign to Free R. Kelly.

And now that Ronnie Bo is making noise in the world as a messenger for R. Kelly, his courage has encouraged R. Kelly to speak up for himself.

If anything life threatening happens to Ronnie Bo or R. Kelly, petition the United States District Court in the Northern District of Illinois to disclose R. Kelly's phone call with Vlad and you'll understand why.

Or simply go back and listen to Ronnie Bo's YouTube interviews.

Don't just sit back and watch our people get beaten. Jump in the fight. This is a freedom fight for our entire culture.

In professional fights, and in warfare, opponents strategically study each other's strengths and weaknesses.

And as a fighter, you must also know your own strengths and weaknesses.

Our strength is that we are the most influential culture in the world, but our weakness is we are the most ignorant culture in the world.

Their strength is in effectively using the power of propaganda to divide us, to turn us against each other, and to provoke us to kill each other through media manipulation.

But their weakness is that social media is now bigger than mainstream media, and with us having access to social media we could unite and beat them at their propaganda games, of media manipulation.

URGENT CALL FOR UNITY

When Malcolm X had departed from the Nation of Islam, he announced that he was willing to work with any person or group that was willing to help him change the miserable conditions of Blacks in America.

Ronnie Bo, who was once antisocial, has adopted the same resolution for unity to his campaign.

We intend to partner with members and administrators of all social media groups and fan pages in support of R. Kelly because of the necessity for us all to implement the wolfpack strategy of the world renowned military general, Sun Tzu.

The internet has leveled the playing field. We now have the capability to blackball and boycott the enemy like they do us, and our people.

You no longer have to risk your lives, your freedom, nor sell your body, illegal drugs or your soul, for fortune and fame.

You now have an opportunity to do something for yourself, your loved ones and your community, that no group has ever done in world history.

We are all in this together, and we must rise to the occasion.

It is no conspiracy that the most wealthy people in the world operate secretly as small groups, families, and organizations, referred to as secret societies, such as the Freemasons, the Illuminati, etc.

Be mindful that the Nazi's began as a small group of 7 people and almost took over the whole wide world with this insight under the guidance of Hitler.

Yes, one ordinary ambitious man with only 7 supporters.

And with the brilliant mind and compassionate heart of Ronnie Bo, amongst the many other leadership abilities he has, he is in position to be a greater leader than Hitler.

So, join the Ronnie Bo “Free R. Kelly” campaign and help us make history by participating in the many contests and sweepstakes offered to you in this urgent call for unity.

You could earn cash prizes and jobs as concert promoters, business managers, booking agents, bodyguards, photographers, videographers, promoters, salespeople, social media influencers, public speakers and influencers/opinion leaders.

You could even earn or buy into ownership as shareholders of our many companies, including Grind Mode Incorporated.

Ronnie Bo discovered a gift in public speaking after conducting an interview on JuiceTalkTV which instantly went viral.

He has accumulated millions of views across multiple platforms since, with thousands of compatible comments of people saying things such as, “Ronnie Bo for president,” “this is the realest interview I ever watched,” “ask Ronnie Bo do he like chocolate girls,” “where can I hear more of Ronnie Bo,” and many other motivational comments that motivated Ronnie Bo to begin a career in public speaking.

So, just know that you may have untapped talent and potential that you haven’t discovered in yourself, too.

This is your opportunity to discover your untapped talent and potential.

You don’t have to already be suitable for any of the job positions that we are looking to assign you too, because we will select you based on your efforts in the contests, and train you to be great at whatever job you happen to be assigned to.

And such contests and sweepstakes will bring us all together in unity, and on common grounds.

But any other phrase from the song is free to use.

Once you choose the phrase that you think would sell best on T-shirts, post it on any of your social media pages (Facebook, Instagram, etc.), tag multiple people (including Ronnie Bo) in the post with a link to the song from Apple Music or YouTube.

The first 12 posts with the most views, shares, likes, and comments that come across Ronnie Bo’s attention, will be selected for the T-shirts that will be manufactured for the Free R. Kelly-Tour and the Free R. Kelly video shoot.

A view is worth 1-point. A like is worth 2-points, and a comment is worth 3-points.

If the phrase you chose is selected for one of the 12 variations of T-shirts, you will be paid 33.3% of the profits generated from that particular variation. Another 33.3% will go to R. Kelly and the remaining 33.3% will be reinvested in the Free R. Kelly campaign.

Plus, you and the other 11 participants whose phrase is selected will enter into a sale's sweepstakes to where the best seller (based on the phrase chosen that sells best on T-shirts) will be announced weekly and rewarded with a cash prize based upon the total amount of shirts sold, out of all 12 variations.

This contest begins May 21, 2023 and ends after the final show of the Free R. Kelly-Tour.

Social Gathering Contest & Sweepstakes:

Social gatherings are a display of unity. Church is a display of how many people are united in Christ.

Political rallies display public support to a candidate's agenda. An army marching is a display of strength in number.

And the Free R. Kelly-Tour will display, from city to city, that in spite of the mass media manipulation meant to portray R. Kelly as a monster and pedophile, there are still millions of raving fans throughout the nation, who demand justice for R. Kelly.

Ronnie Bo has done an excellent job at changing the false narrative of Surviving R. Kelly, as the Free R. Kelly-Tour is designed to display.

Some of the scenes from this tour will be used for the Free R. Kelly music video.

Your role as a participant in this particular contest is to walk in the shoes of an event planner, a concert promoter, a booking agent, artist manager and a salesman or saleswoman.

Your objective is to provide us with the following “6 Lists of 3”:

- (1) List 3 venues with a capacity of 300 - 1,000 people (clubs or concert halls) in your town that would be willing to allow us to book Ronnie Bo for a show to perform up to 7 songs including his Free R. Kelly” anthem.
- (2) List 3 local businesses (clothing stores, barbershops, hair salons, liquor stores, restaurants, ect.) in your town that would be willing to sponsor the show by storing tickets to the event at their place of business; allowing Ronnie Bo to do an in-store meet and greet prior to his show; allowing us to post posters of the event at their place of business; and allowing us to advertise their business on the flyers and other promotional materials.
- (3) List 3 local artists who would be willing to prepare the stage for Ronnie Bo and perform 2 of their own songs as opening acts.
- (4) List 3 local DJ’s who we could choose from to book for the night. If the 3 venues you list are clubs, the clubs may already have their own assigned DJ. If so, you could kill 2 birds with 1 stone by contacting the clubs on your list, and asking for the name of their DJ and his booking info.
- (5) List 3 security guards who would be willing to work as personal bodyguards for Ronnie Bo during his show.
- (6) List 3 partners who would be willing to attend the event with you and assist you with selling tickets and other booking arrangements prior to the event.

Be the first to provide this “6 Lists of 3.” The first 12 people, from 12 separate cities to provide us with the above “6 Lists of 3” will be provided with 50 free tickets to the Free R. Kelly show that will be conducted in your town.

You could sell the tickets for your own profit and do as you please with the money.

Ronnie Bo and his team will make sure that the tickets are in high demand through our marketing and publicity campaign.

You will be mentioned by Ronnie Bo in his upcoming interviews as one of his booking agents, and you will be indefinitely hired as a member of our organization.

And, you will be a part of our entourage.

Email your list to us now at:

gmronniebo@gmail.com

Each event is a political rally disguised as a music event. Ronnie Bo will conduct a speech at the end of each show.

Furthermore, Ronnie Bo will bring stamped envelopes with a petition addressed to the court of appeals, that the crowd will be asked to review, and sign before he hits the stage.

We will be gathering such signed petitions from city to city, to send to the court of appeals, which will inspire the judges to serve justice to R. Kelly.

Thank you for your patience in reading this manuscript and we appreciate your participation in these contests and sweepstakes.

DISTROKID

NOW AVAILABLE

FUND GODS PLAN

Ronnie Bo recently declined a $250,000 book deal from Ken Ivy (known as Pimpin Ken), a literary agent of the world's most prominent publishing company, Simon & Schuster.

The $250,000 offer to Ronnie Bo was taken by him, as a mere opening, for negotiation.

So Ronnie Bo made a counter offer, by asking Pimpin Ken to put him at the table with his friend 50 Cent, who is a major music mogul and film producer.

Ronnie Bo is already a published author of 2 books, The Holy Trap Scriptures and Value of The Vagina, which are both available to the world, everywhere books are sold.

Anyhow, the versions that are available to the world do not include the new and exclusive chapters that were added to the new editions, which are available now, but only through Ronnie Bo, and his team.

The BONUS Literature included in this manuscript includes a new chapter from The Holy Trap Scriptures, and a new chapter from Value of The Vagina.

You would think that a guy who declined a $250,000 offer was very wealthy and prideful.

Especially when considering the fact that he decided to make this book available to the world for free, in addition to free bonus chapters.

However, with all that Ronnie Bo is trying to establish for himself, his community and his culture, he is in humble need of financial support.

Yes, we have all seen him turn down financial support from many of you, in his interviews.

As he would put it, “he doesn’t feel right receiving something for nothing.”

But that’s just his way of showing the world that he is not a sell out that could be bought.

Malcolm X was struggling financially himself while risking his own life to make life better for our people.

He didn’t own his own home and he had to borrow money from his sister to travel the world.

Like Ronnie Bo, Malcolm X turned down money in large amounts from strangers, and so-called supporters, because he didn’t wanna feel like he had to work for anyone’s agenda but his own agenda, which was to guarantee the Human Rights of Blacks in America.

Ronnie Bo shares the same agenda. And all though he has done great by himself, he could do so much greater with our support, and I have personally invested my own time and money into producing this book on his behalf to further his amazing agenda.

As a matter of fact, I wanted to put this book on sale, and donate all the proceeds to Ronnie Bo, to further his agenda but he strongly advised me to make it available to you all free of charge along with multiple free bonuses.

Yet and still, he understands that he cannot surmount such a monumental mission without our help.

And to him, selling the rights to his books is like selling his soul.

So let’s help him sell over $250,000 worth of his books without selling his soul.

If you could afford a copy, then please purchase a copy of any one of his books of your choice, for just $30.

The old versions are available through Amazon, Barnes and Noble and everywhere else books are sold, for $40.

But if you order the books directly from Ronnie Bo through Cashapp ($FundGodsPlan) you get the new versions with extra chapters and for a lower price.

For a limited time, if you order Value of The Vagina or The Holy Trap Scriptures now, you get the other one free (buy 1 get 1 free).

This offer ends July 4, 2023.

If you cannot afford to purchase a $30 book at this time, simply refer someone to us who can and will buy a copy, and get yours for free.

For those of you who think a $30 book is expensive because you usually pay $20 or less for a book, just know that the difference between those books and Ronnie Bo books is the same difference from buying a $20 bag of garbage weed, in comparison to buying a $30 bag of good exotic weed.

And I'm so sure that Ronnie Bo books will enlighten you, and encourage you, to become a better person, and to do greater things in life, that if Ronnie Bo books doesn't upgrade your mindset to the next level, you will get your money back guaranteed, by simply requesting your money back.

As shown in the description below, send $30 to $FundGodsPlan through Cashapp now and type in the book title you want, along with the email address you want your copy sent to after the 'For' option:

CHAPTER 7

THE MEDIA

“A rooster crows only when it sees the light. Put him in the dark and he’ll never crow. I have seen the light, and I’m crowing.”

-MUHAMMAD ALI

Why is everyone so concerned about what’s going on in the media?

All day, everyday, you hear people talking about sports, talk shows, movies, rap beef, or something else that they have either watched on TV or read in the press.

There are people who sit and argue with each other all day about topics such as: “Who’s the best rapper?” “Who’s the best basketball player in the NBA?” “Which entertainer has the most money?”

“What happened on ‘Empire’ (or ‘Power’) last night?” You know, shit like that.

It’s like the media controls their lives.

They saw Lil’ Wayne wearing tight pants now the whole culture is wearing tight pants.

If they see NBA Young Boy doing the Tootsie Roll, then they might just start doing the Tootsie Roll too (lol).

Their minds are so occupied by the media that they don’t have the mental capacity to even think about their own lives.

They spend most of their money trying to buy something that they saw in a music video. And they spend most of their leisure sitting in front of a TV.

We must understand that the media (all Hollywood films, all major news stations, most magazines, etc.) is owned and controlled by the secret government.

They penetrate our minds with propaganda and we ignorantly believe that if we've seen it thru their programs that it's true.

They use the media to program our minds, to distract us and to paint a picture of us to the world which makes the world perceive us in a bad way.

They ruined Michael Jackson's image through the media before they killed him. They've done the same to Bill Cosby because Bill Cosby attempted to buy NBC.

They have falsely accused these great men of things so terrible that it makes it hard for us to honor them.

And they will do the same to any black man or woman who becomes big enough in the world to influence the world.

With this understanding blacks need to stop ridiculing our people when the media promotes propaganda about them to ruin their image.

We need to look further into what's going on and dig for the true agenda behind everything that goes on in the media.

We must stop gossiping about each other and start supporting each other.

Then, see if the media would promote Black on Black compassion like they promote black on black crime.

EPITOME

Racist white people refer to black people as monkeys.

Not solely based on their bullshit evolution theory or the way we look but more so because of the way we act. You know, “monkey see monkey do.”

If you want to see a monkey stick up his middle finger, then just simply get its attention and let him see you stick your middle finger up and more than likely, the monkey will do the same.

And if you want black people to live in ignorance, then just simply put out a movie or a music video that displays black people living in ignorance, and more than likely, they will do the same.

EXPERIENCE

Scenario A: I haven’t had much media experience other than being on local news about my lawsuit against the Milwaukee Police Department; placing an advertisement in The Source Magazine and being reviewed on the Top-40 Charts about Lil’ Wayne stealing one of my songs (<https://top40-charts.com/news.php?nid=74880&cat=>).

But what I have experienced about the media is the effect that it has on people’s lives.

I am not a hypocrite and I am not trying to criticize anybody so I will admit that the media once controlled my life and had me in the dark as well.

Now let’s get off into some of what I have experienced.

Growing up, just like other kids, I used to absorb myself in the media. I was a huge fan of wrestling and Stone Cold Steve Austin was my favorite wrestler.

So, you know, just like Stone Cold Steve Austin, I used to go around pointing my middle finger up at everybody and I felt like I was the toughest son of a bitch in the world.

My favorite rap group at the time was the Hot Boyz; Juvenile, Lil' Wayne, B.G., and Turk. So, you know, they had me wearing white T-Shirts, Reeboks, Girbauds and bandannas.

I guess it's safe to say that we were all once wannabes at some point of time in our lives.

Especially during childhood.

It's just that some people never grow out of those wannabe stages. Like the rapper Rick Ross for example.

This nigga made a song emphasizing that he thinks he's Big Meech and had everybody thinking they was Big Meech too (lol).

Now Big Meech is a very honorable man.

In fact, Big Meech is one of the biggest street legends of all time.

But it ain't cool for no grown ass man to think that he is another man.

Jesus and Malcolm X are my role models and even though I've adopted some of their characteristics "I'm me!" And I wouldn't wanna be anyone else.

I just wanna be the best version of me. You should feel the same about yourself.

Be yourself and have your own unique demeanor.

That's all I'm saying.

I was raised by a family who revolve their entire lives around the media.

Like my grandma, she is deeply into soap operas.

She will curse you out in a minute if you were to interrupt her while she's watching a soap opera episode.

I used to overhear her and my mama talking about things that happened on the soap opera as if it was reality and they were actually emotionally attached to the story lines of those films.

I have been around my grandma since I was born and the only thing that I have ever seen her do with her life is go to work and watch TV.

Other than work, she never leaves the house for anything except when she's out paying bills or grocery shopping, that's it. Well, she does cook everyday, but other than that, she's sitting in front of a TV.

There were never really any books in the house to read, either.

That's fucked up. And that's how the whole household lived their lives.

I'm willing to bet that your family is the same way though because the majority of America absorbs their lives in the media (whether TV or social media).

Even as a kid, that lifestyle was just way too dull for me.

I guess that's why I adapted to street life so easily.

I found more excitement in living a life of crime.

Scenario B: Every story in this book except for this one, occurred either during or prior to 2009.

I wrote those stories along with the entire original manuscript of this book back in 2010 while serving time in state prison. The Redgranite Correctional Institution in Wisconsin to be exact. And I initially released this book from prison in 2012.

In February of 2014 I was released from prison after serving about four years on mere parole violations.

Unfortunately, I was later indicted for heroin distribution in 2017 (in the Northern District of Illinois).

Believe it or not but I was actually framed in that case by the DEA. By DEA task-force officer Tim Gray to be exact.

While sitting in the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago I decided to add this story (Scenario B) to the manuscript, which could be the most intriguing scenario of The Holy Trap Scriptures.

To sum it up, in June of 2019, while on pretrial release bond, I recorded a mixtape entitled The Last Hope.

The whole mixtape was mysteriously removed and censored from the internet.

In one of the songs (entitled Wack The Rats) I had exposed a few confidential informants.

Foolishly, out of all the hot songs that I had recorded for the mixtape, I released “Wack The Rats” as a publicity stunt to raise awareness and spark momentum for the mixtape.

Two-days later, the U.S. Marshals issued out a warrant for my arrest because of the song.

The United States Government had deemed the song a direct threat to their informants.

I didn’t think the song was such a big deal and I knew the whole indictment was both weak and bogus to begin with so I turned myself in to face whatever amount of time I had coming.

I was sent to MCC-Chicago (the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago) for pre-trial detention.

Within about a month into my stay there, the infamous Pied Piper, Kels was indicted in the exact same district, arrested, and brought into custody at the exact same facility (the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago).

From the moment he was brought into custody, the word began spreading around amongst inmates that Kels was in the building.

And you know, child molesters and snitches ain't safe in the feds; not in GP (general population) so he was placed on administrative detention (protected custody).

I happen to be a fan of Kels. And all the bosses in the building had love and respect for me.

So I contrived a scheme to pull some strings in order to bring the Pied Piper to general population with me.

My motive was to network with Kels and negotiate a deal with him.

A deal with regards to writing a book about his side of the story that the media was spreading about him.

Admittedly, I saw opportunity while everyone else was blinded by media manipulation. Opportunity to free another innocent Black man and capitalize on exposing the modern day slave system known as the judicial system.

But again, the rule in the feds is that child molesters and snitches are not allowed in GP.

However, I was able to hurdle that obstacle.

I know how racist puppet masters frame iconic Black men as criminals.

They did it to Tyson, Pac, Mike Jackson, Kobe, Mr. Cosby, they even did it to me in a sense, and Kels was just another victim.

I had elucidated that theory to the shot callers in order to persuade them to perceive Kels as a brother and just another successful Black man who was merely targeted by the government and framed by the media, which I honestly believe to be true.

They killed Prince over contracts and Kels situation stemmed over contracts, too.

Once he, Kels realized he was worth a billion dollars while only seeing a few million he wanted financial redemption which threatened the wealth of the Jewish Mafia (known as the Illuminati) who controls the music industry as the music cartel.

The gangsters gave me the greenlight. And I'm not only referring to Gangster Disciples (GD's).

The Vice lords, Blackstones, Latin kings and all had love and respect for me.

They all assured me that Kels would be safe in the general population.

At that point all I had to do was send a word to Kels through other inmates to let him know that we welcomed him to dwell among us in general population with open arms.

My nigga Keith Davis happened to be in the SHU (Segregated Housing Unit) at the time for smoking K-2, so I knew that he had to be in the same vicinity as Kels.

I sent a kite to Keith asking him to let Kels know the goodfellas in GP welcomed him to join us and that his time would go much smoother in GP.

Keith delivered the message and Kels was convinced.

And with the help of other fellow inmates we had all convinced the correctional staff to offer Kels the privilege of being in GP.

From there, all Kels had to do was ask his lawyer to request the arrangement.

The arrangement was made and eventually the day had arrived when I met the most ridiculed media scapegoat in world history, Kels, who is also arguably the world's greatest musician of all-time.

I was seated in the waiting area of the medical unit when Kels walked in.

“What’s good Kels,” I said as I acknowledged Kels. “What up Joe,” said Kels as he greeted me. You know how Chicago OG’s talk.

In Milwaukee, we say “what up bro.” But Chicago niggas call everybody Joe. The OG’s do, that is.

Coincidentally, I had just received a letter from my lady friend, Kayla, 2 or 3 days before I had met Kels.

Kayla is also a fan of Kels and she knew that he and I were both locked up at MCC-Chicago together.

In her letter she wrote “when you see Kels tell him I said I love him.”

I thought about what she said as soon as Kels greeted me.

“Mannnn, my girl told me to tell you she loves you,” I told Kels. “Tell her I love her too,” Kels replied as we both laughed together.

Although our discussion was full of humor I could sense that Kels was deep down in depression so I attempted to uplift him.

“I hate the way they’re trying to portray you in the media,” I implied, “but you gotta keep your head up through this shit.”

“Aw I’m good Joe,” Kels replied.

“Well, hit that ‘Heaven I Need A Hug’ for me then, cause I’m stressed the fuck out in this bitch” I insisted, as we both laughed together, again.

Surprisingly, he actually had the spirit to sing it:

“Heaven I need a hug/is it anybody out there willing to embrace a thug/

*feelin' like a change of heart/but all I really need is a sign or a word from God/
so shower down on me, wet me with your love/
I need you to take me, and lift me up" ...*

...Kels harmonized as I sang with him.

Kels and I continued to converse concisely until staff arrived to escort us back to our housing units.

Kels was on unit-19 and I was on unit-15 at the time so we had to part ways.

I was sort of excited about my encounter with Kels so as soon as I had made it back to my housing unit I emailed my family and friends through Corrlinks and disclosed my discussion with Kels to them.

One of my other lady friends, Adriana, had contacted several bloggers and news reporters including TMZ and told them all about my encounter with Kels at MCC-Chicago.

Shortly thereafter there was a press release published online about me and my encounter with Kels but for some strange reason, as soon as the press release began to go viral it had suddenly disappeared.

Maybe because it contained no negative information about Kels.

Contrarily, the press release insinuated why I believe Kels is innocent.

TMZ reporters, Jacob and Jamie later contacted Adriana for details about my dealings with Kels at MCC-Chicago.

Adriana had spilled the beans and told the TMZ reporters that I had solicited a book proposal to Kels.

The reporter, Jacob, gave Adriana his cellphone number and email address and asked her to have me contact him either by email or phone call so that he could develop a story to report on TMZ.

The reporter was eager to present another story about Kels to the millions of TMZ viewers until he found out that my objective was to write a book about Kels entitled “Kels-Surviving The Illuminati,” to narrate the Pied Piper’s side of the story and expose the satanic puppet masters behind the scenes of the media who contrived the Surviving Kels documentaries to destroy another iconic Black man.

Months later, during the beginning stages of the coronavirus pandemic, I contacted both Jacob and Jamie of TMZ again and asked them to report the lawsuit (Case No. 20-CV-3070: Northern District of Illinois) which I filed on behalf of Kels, myself and the entire inmate population of MCC-Chicago due to the inhumane treatment that we all suffered during the early stages of the coronavirus pandemic.

The concentration camps of Nazi Germany couldn’t have been any worse than MCC-Chicago during the coronavirus pandemic.

The TMZ reporter wasn't interested in reporting any positive news about Kels, nor the lawsuit, despite how terrible the inhumane conditions that Kels, myself and 550 others were suffering at MCC-Chicago during the time, as graphically reported to them.

I had even explained to TMZ that “the concentration camps in Nazi Germany during Hitlers reign could not have been any worse than MCC-Chicago and other correctional institutions in America during the coronavirus pandemic, but actually tantamount.”

Read between the lines. Just think, how much more positive news about Kels and other media scapegoats are mainstream media reluctant to report to the public?

What else is going on in the world that they don't want the public to know about?

And why? For those of you who are in suspense, jokes which became rumors were spreading around MCC-Chicago that I hired gang members to run up in the Pied Pipers cell and allegedly forced him to sign a book deal.

The rumor was false and that rumor could have caused me to be charged with extortion.

Therefore, I fell back from my endeavor to present Kels-Surviving The Illuminati to the world (SMH).

Kels didn't seem too interested in allowing me to write the book for him anyway.

He considered it but he told me that he wanted to write his own book.

There's no need to go too deep into details about my discussions with Kels because that would only deter my point and likely put him back in the frying pan.

Nevertheless, I did ask Kels about the speculation and conspiracy theories about his former associate Hov.

I'll let his former associate Liah's beautiful soul rest in peace by refraining from speaking on the interesting topics told to me about her in particular.

And Hov happens to be my favorite rapper of all-time but allegedly, as an adult Hov was having sex with the brown fox while she was only 14 years old.

There's a reason why the media never slandered Hov's name like they're slandering Kel's name (for his dealings with Liah).

Review the disclaimer at the beginning of this book if anyone insists on suing me for declamation of character. Of course I'm not referring to the real Hov because then Hov could sue me for exercising my freedom of speech, right?

I have to be meticulous about what I write when exposing certain things about certain people for certain reasons so I hope that those of you who I'm trying to enlighten have their third eye open enough to read between the lines.

Believe it or not but Kels is actually a real nigga in the sense that he's loyal to God, while Hov is a soul broker whose in the business of sacrificing and selling the souls of young Black men and women to Satan, for the Jewish Mafia's Synagogue of Satan.

In Kels own words, "because of the God I serve I can't get down with that," referring to when a guy named Quincy asked Kels to engage in homosexual activity with him and other music industry executives.

Pay attention to 'the skit' in Kel's "I Wish" video which insinuated that Kels didn't know what he was getting himself into when he signed those satanic contracts.

As soon as Kels realized that he had indulged in commerce with his soul he immediately "wanted out." In Kels words, "I want out ma, but it's hard."

Hov knows exactly what he's doing and he's all in. And this is who our culture subconsciously worships and praises, as God.

The shit ain't even conspiracy theory or speculation no more because you just heard it from one of your own, me, who did time with the mainstream media's biggest scapegoat in world history, next to only Hitler and Mike Jackson.

Take heed. Kels wrote songs for the Thriller himself and did 2 albums with Hov.

It gets no bigger than Kels because music is the most powerful tool of influence for global population control and Kels is the real GOAT (not Hov and not Mike because both Hov and Mike relied on Kels to breathe life into their careers).

As a matter of fact, once upon a time, a well connected guy in the music industry known as Quincy had conjured up a brilliant idea for the most iconic gangster rapper in the world to do a collaboration album with the most iconic R&B singer in the world.

Quincy was certain that such a brilliant idea would please his bosses in ways that would earn him a greater position of power in the industry.

At the time, Quincy's daughter was the best friend of the R&B princess who we know as Liah.

Liah was emerging herself as a female R&B singer through her association with the King, the most iconic R&B singer in the world at the time, Kels.

Ironically, Quincy's daughter just so happened to be dating the most iconic gangster rapper in the world at the time; a guy known by the name of Pac.

Quincy cunningly worked through his daughter to present the idea to both Pac and Kels in a manner that made the idea seem 'less' like a well thought out master plan (with potential to produce wealth for him and his Jewish mob bosses), and 'more' like a spontaneously thought of fantasy from a fan.

See, in the music industry, before they make you a megastar, which puts you in position to influence the masses, they must make you sell your soul first just so they don't have to worry about your influence over the masses having a positive impact in the world.

Pac was closer to Quincy than Kels was and easier to reach because Pac was dating Quincy's daughter, so Quincy had presented the idea to Pac, first.

When the idea was presented to Pac, the stipulations of selling his soul was also presented.

Some of you may remember Pac exposing a guy named Quincy in a rare recording that was recently wiped out of history (for some strange reason).

For those of you who don't remember what I'm referring to, Quincy had allegedly asked Pac to indulge in homosexual activities with him and Pac refused.

According to Kels, as a real one should, Pac had forewarned him about Quincy and the satanic industry executives who Quincy was empowered by.

“Be careful,” Pac told Kels, “they’re coming for you, too.”

As Pac had warned Kels, Quincy had eventually approached Kels in a sexual way and Kels had rejected him.

Again, Kels told him, “because of the God I serve I can't get down like that.”

Quincy took offense to such rejection.

And when you offend certain people in certain industries you are forever marked.

When Liah and Hov became friends, Liah told Hov about Quincy's brilliant idea to have Pac and Kels collaborate on an album together.

Hov took it as Liah had given him an idea that could make him as great as the world's greatest.

Hov has aspired to fill Pac's shoes since then, by any means necessary. He believed that he could actually replace Pac as the best rapper by collaborating on an album with Kels.

Liah and Kels were still secretly associated at the time but they really had to keep their association with each other a secret because behind the scenes there were people like Liah's manager Barry and others including Barry's friend Quincy who were out to get Kels.

Liah knew that Kels was a marked man and there were consequences of showing Kels love publicly but she still acknowledged Kels as the guy who made her a star so she showed him love secretly until her death.

And Liah told Kels that she thought it would be a good business move for Kels to collaborate with Hov.

When Hov brought the idea of collaborating with Kels to his business partner Dame, Dame aggressively disagreed with Hov about collaborating with Kels.

If you ask me, I believe Dame had sucka emotions about the publicity revolving around Liah's relations with Kels because Dame had developed intimate feelings for Liah. And such emotions are at the root of the reasons why Hov and Dame parted ways.

But that's another story. The point is that Hov knew that he could become greater by collaborating with the world's greatest.

Hov was so eager to collaborate with the world's greatest that he was willing to sacrifice his association with the man who helped put him in the position of stardom that he was already in at the time.

Hov was so excited about the potential outcome of collaborating on an album with Kels that he became infuriated when things didn't go as planned.

Hov acted on his frustration with Kels which entailed a $70-million dollar lawsuit of which Kels had filed against Hov.

With that said, let's not forget how great Kels truly is and how significant he is to our culture.

And let these revelations motivate you to do some research of your own.

I hereby reveal to you all that Hov funded the docuseries that led to Kels being crucified by the media and convicted by the government, as revenge.

So those of you who have hopes and dreams of being megastars, just know that you'll have to deal with rats in those industries who are bigger rats than the ones we deal with in the streets.

The biggest mistake the government made when they framed me in a fed case (for enlightening my people) was to lock me up with Kels because yeah, I had questions for Kels and the answers that he gave me only confirmed my "speculated theories" as "truthful facts" which of course I was sure to publish in my books.

So through the trials and tribulations that I was forced to go through by being framed in a fed case, I learned some very valuable lessons that shall enrich the spiritual wealth of my culture, as taught in these scriptures.

Malcolm X once implied that "the best weapon America has is not its guns and bombs but its media" because through the media they could make the guilty look innocent and make the innocent appear guilty.

R. Kelly is a prime example of what Malcolm X meant.

By making the innocent look guilty, they strip the innocent of public support which enables them to punish the innocent without any backlash.

The media could make a devil appear to be a god and make a god seem like a devil.

And if the government kills us, they could use their media to make our assassination appear to be; a drug overdose, a heart attack, something gang related or anything other than a secret government assassination.

Note: this is not a story telling book. In my other book, GRIND NOW SHINE LATER-The Memoir, I tell the full story of my life and go more in depth into the scenario about Kels.

ENLIGHTENMENT

1. A lot of you niggas claim to be self made. And I know the truth hurts. But the truth is, a lot of you niggas really ain't self made.

Most of you niggas is media made. Y'all call y'all selves made-men but y'all really man-made.

Yeah, it's true.

Your whole perspective was programmed by the media.

Movies, videos, radio, cd's, dvd's and magazines are the tools that the man behind the media used to create your character.

Think about what the rapper Juvenile said in his song entitled, 'Ghetto Children' on the '400 Degreez' album. He said, "look at what I did to them, niggas wearin' Reeboks instead of Nikes and Timberlands."

Yeah, he had all us niggas wearing Reeboks, White Tees and Girbauds. Jay had us wearing Cartier's. And now, Weezy got these niggas wearin' tight ass pants and dreadlocks.

Yeah, it's true.

Peep out your surroundings. Don't you see the effect that the media has on you niggas?

2. Our culture is controlled by the media and the media is controlled by a secret society of sick minded individuals who are scientifically experimenting with the minds of the masses.

They program people to think, act, behave, talk, dress and live the way that they want them to. They constantly flash ideas and images into your mind until you become a product of those ideas and images or a product of your environment.

Every individual is a reflection of their thoughts and surroundings.

They unconsciously imitate what they see around them.

The man behind the media is a puppet master and you are the puppets.

All they have to do is empower a black rapper, put him in the media wearing tight pants, and the next thing you know, the whole culture is wearing tight pants.

If they want our culture to dress like them then they will make our most influential rappers dress like them and the rest of the culture will follow.

And you niggas got the nerves to say y'all bosses. Most of you niggas is puppets!

3. People could be trained the same way that animals are trained. Pet trainers train animals and the media trains people.

Just as a dog could be trained to be a cop, a person could be trained to be a gang banger, a pimp, a drug dealer, a murderer, a sexual predator and almost anything else under the sun.

The media could train you to be uncivilized, crazy, naïve, unethical, goofy and ignorant just as most of our people are.

The media transmits a profusion of infectious thoughts into our minds, they promote those thoughts to the masses through entertainers (primarily rappers), rap music, movies and videos which stimulates those thoughts and then we act on those infectious thoughts.

For example, we hear phrases like, “bitches ain’t shit,” in rap songs, and then we treat our precious black queens like they ain’t shit.

4. The media produces movies and TV programs which embeds ideas into our minds that will persuade us to think and live the way that they need us to live in order for them to sustain superiority.

They produced the movie New Jack City to convince us that a black man invented crack to cover up the fact that crack was created by white scientists to destroy black civilization.

They produced the movie American Gangster to glorify a snitch to make snitching seem justifiable to us.

And think about how the media is saturated with sick coms; Fresh Prince of Belair, Martin, Half and Half, One on One, Desperate Housewives, That 70’s Show, and the list goes on.

Listen to the background of those shows.

What do you hear?...a bunch of people laughing at just about everything that happens on the show...everything is a joke, right?

And that is exactly why they saturate the media with sick coms; to program you to take your life as a joke.

This shit ain’t no joke though my nigga. Life is real.

5. The dope game is a trap that was designed to entrap us and re-enslave us.

Ironically, trappers delight in the trap all because rappers like me, Young Jeezy and Future glorify the game in our songs to appeal to our market of trap niggas.

And although we may actually be reciting a lifestyle that we used to live, we are really just trying to sell records and make some legitimate money by rapping about the shit that our market wants to hear.

So if you are going to be a follower, then at least be wise enough to follow what we are doing, not what we are saying.

We are making money legitimately, and that's what you need to be doing.

6. Mainstream music overseers are in cahoots with the government conspiracy to entrap blacks.

There was a meeting in 1991 between mainstream music executives, prison investors and rappers.

The arrangement was to influence mass crime through rap music in order to galvanize mass incarceration.

The scheme is implemented by obstructing music that contains positive messages and by saturating the market with a bunch of bullshit music that usually contains negative messages with criminal content/intent.

The type of music that I love to write is similar to the heartfelt music that Tupac used to write.

But I wouldn't sell too many records if I tried to put out that type of music in today's market.

So I am forced to put out negative music just to get mainstream exposure and a record deal.

Jay-Z is the best rapper alive only to those with that opinion.

He is certainly the best at convincing people that he is the best and he is the best at influencing our culture to be egotistical idiots who cherish materialistics which is why he is the most successful rapper in the game.

I must admit though, he is very influential AND INTELLIGENT!

And mainstream music overseers put more money and effort into marketing artists like Jay-Z because rappers like him have the ability to assist them in controlling the minds of the masses.

In return for their assistance, they give rappers like Jay-Z opportunities that would give them a significant advantage over rappers who they don't want to be in power.

Not that Jay-Z ain't one of the greatest hustlers of all-times who earned his position.

It's just that he is in such a high position of power that he could inspire a cultural revolution that would change the world but he has people backing him who are in much higher positions of power with restrictions set on what those who they support are allowed to do.

And people like Jay-Z won't jeopardize their fortune and fame for the revolution like Pac did.

And like YE is doing.

7. Our people are subdued by ignorance and overwhelmed with work and stress.

Our minds are still in the infancy stages of growth and development and our oppressors use the media to pacify us like the mental infants that we are.

The media keeps us unproductive and immersed in ignorance which demotes our lives to only its viable aspects.

If you and a partner were conspiring to steal from a gas station, one of you would probably distract the clerk while the other does the stealing, right?

Yeah, and that's exactly what our oppressors have conspired to do.

They distract our minds with the media while they advance in life and rob us of our chance for sovereignty.

8. The media throws sex in your face all day to accelerate your sex drive and it teaches under aged girls to dress like sluts and act like grown women.

Therefore, it may be difficult for you not to get tempted by those young girls because they look and act just like grown women.

The media will then sabotage the image of those who fall for this trap out of mental weakness, so if you happen to fall for the trap then your image will be sabotaged as well.

You saw how they tried to do Kels. And I'm not saying that the individuals who engage in sex with minors are not sick individuals.

I'm just saying that the society who influences this activity are more sick than the individuals who take the bait and fall for the trap because they initiated it and therefore they should be held accountable as well.

If a parent raises their child to be rude, then you should condemn the parent, not the child, right?...well that's all I'm trying to say.

The media programs us to be uncivilized then condemn us and enslave us when we are caught conducting an uncivilized act.

9. People are so concerned about sports that they abandon their own aspirations. During basketball season, all you hear is LeBron this, LeBron that.

You niggas act like y'all gon' get a championship ring too if your favorite team wins. You niggas act like y'all gon' get a percentage of their salaries.

With all the energy y'all put into y'all favorite team you should definitely receive some type of reward for their victory other than the emotional reward of being happy to see them win.

Niggas minds are so preoccupied with sports that ain't no room left in their mental capacity for productive thinking.

Think of some ways that you could become rich legitimately like your favorite athlete.

Think of ways to make life better for you and your family. Think of ways to change the world.

Thinking about LeBron James all day ain't gon' get you nowhere.

Y'all refer to y'all favorite team as 'we' like you get a ring too if 'they' win the championship.

We, as Blacks can't even see each other as we and cheer for each other when we winning.

If you applied the same enthusiasm and devotion that you have for your favorite sports team toward your family, your tribe, or your culture then maybe we could look forward to a real victory to celebrate and cheer for.

I admire the intensity that my favorite athletes play with in competition and I adopt those attributes to my own aspirations.

You should too. I love sports too. But I also love myself.

10. The media transmits mental infections into our minds. Of course you already know what a STD (Sexually Transmitted Disease) is.

But do you know what a MTD (Media Transmitted Disease) is?

Did you know that what you hear and see in the media is infectious and contagious and that you could catch a mental disease by watching certain things on TV and listening to certain music lyrics?

Are you aware that you might already have a Media Transmitted Disease?... probably not. Well, examine yourself for a second to see if you have any symptoms of a MTD.

Do you just happen to quote rap lyrics out loud spontaneously, in the spur of the moment, from out of nowhere?

When you go out to party, do you do any of the dances or gestures that you've seen in a music video? Do you get upset when you are interrupted while watching TV?

Do you ever argue about who the best rapper is or about which rapper has the most money? Did you start wearing dreadlocks after Lil' Wayne made it popular?

Do you wear the same kind of clothes or accessories that your favorite rapper or athlete wears?

When the media accentuates beef between rappers, does it make you dislike one of the rappers just because you like the other?... does it?... well, if you have any of the above symptoms, then you have just been diagnosed with a MTD and you need to seek treatment before it ruins you. Hopefully it's not already too late.

11. Rappers are more powerful than people recognize.

Rappers possess the power to either inspire our culture to do good or influence you to do bad. The government knows this.

Yeah, the government knows exactly how powerful rappers are so they conspire to eliminate the real niggas who rap and to empower the fake niggas because they are afraid that us real niggas will enlighten you and they know that the fake niggas are only capable of leaving you in the dark.

They know real niggas will inspire you to do real shit and fake niggas will influence you to do bogus shit.

Now I don't know the whole truth about the death of Pimp C, but what I do know is that just before he died he was trying to enlighten our culture and he was exposing things that go on in the media that the government tries to keep in the dark.

I'm a close associate to Pimpin' Ken who was the closest associate to Pimp C during the time of his death so I asked Ken if he thought Pimp C's death may have been an Illuminati hit.

I'll have to keep the answer to myself.

However, the same scenario occurred with Tupac.

Furthermore, most of the rappers who street niggas are influenced by don't even have no real street credibility themselves.

So our culture is being led by a bunch of fake ass niggas who are lost.

And if you continue to follow those fake ass niggas, then you will remain lost as well.

12. The most significant contribution that we could ever make for the future is to pave the way for our children and the generations to come.

To do that we must illuminate our children's minds with essential knowledge, wisdom and understanding.

The government is conspiring to entrap our kids in ignorance and iniquity which is why the media is full of programs that are designed to program our children's minds in a way that will lead them into destruction.

For example, the Power Rangers is a television program that caters to kids.

If your child is a fan of the Power Rangers, notice how enticed they are by violence.

You might buy your child toy guns and swords to keep them entertained but what you are actually doing is indulging in keeping your child occupied in negativity.

You may not be aware of how detrimental such television programs are to your child, but as a brother, I am trying to enlighten you for the sake of your kids and my kids future.

The media is poisoning our kids minds at an early age. Please protect their minds from that poison. PLEASE!

13. Social media sites like Facebook, Twitter and Instagram are now tools for the CIA and FBI which they use to keep tabs on our thoughts, feelings, whereabouts, motives and actions. Stop posting all your business on social media and advise your inner circle to refrain from it too.

Furthermore, stop spending so much of your time and attention on social media.

Social media is a huge spider web and you are just a small bug caught up in that web (another trap).

The CIA is the spider of the web. Social media, however, can be used for good though.

If you choose to use social media, use it to spread the teachings of this book and other thoughts and ideas that would elevate the minds of others.

We could use social media to enlighten each other and help each other in many ways.

It is also a great marketing tool. But most of us only use social media to find subjects to gossip or lust about.

Your mind and your time are your 2 most valuable assets and more than likely they are both trapped in the web of social media.

14. The internet has become a bigger media source than television is now.

But while TV is strictly controlled by the government who own all the stations, anyone could access the internet.

And people like me are now awakening the masses all around the world through the internet which has become a threat to the government.

The government needs the people to remain in the dark so that they can continue to control you.

They are afraid that God's messengers could deliver God's messages to the world through the internet so now the government is trying to censor internet access from the people.

They may convince the public that the internet is a national security hazard because terrorists are using the internet as a tool.

But of course, that's bullshit!

15. The secret government is currently using the media to engineer a race war between blacks and whites.

I encourage all blacks and whites to not feed into it. For the enlightened blacks and whites, it is our duty to enlighten those who are in the dark with the awareness that could prevent this race war from escalating.

The ethnic groups who consider themselves 'White' must understand that they are hated by the secret government just as much as Blacks are now because many of them have developed the godly perception of equality rather than allowing themselves to be programmed under a 'white supremacist' belief system.

And some of them would like to be self-empowered while the secret government wants to be the only ones with real power.

The secret government hates to see unity among the people (especially unity among blacks and whites).

They want us all to hate each other so that they could conquer us by keeping us divided.

They are also engineering conflict between 'the urban black community' and 'the police' through the media which could cause another civil war.

Blacks must understand that not all police officers are bad people and police officers must understand that even those of us who sell drugs and tote guns are not all bad people.

Blacks and whites, police and trap niggas, are all simply doing what we feel obligated to do to survive.

It is the media that programs us to see each other as a threat when those who control the media are our only real threat.

I don't hate the police because I'm not ignorant enough to hate the material of a hand puppet, knowing that it's the person whose hand is within the material controlling it.

We can't afford to allow the media to distract us from the real issues in the world any longer.

Don't wait until the secret government starts killing us all off by poisoning our water and food supply before you realize that "it's not this race against that race".

It's "the secret government against the entire world population."

16. We all have 7 energy centers in our bodies that could be activated by thought vibrations and sound vibrations.

Voodoo is the science of manipulating these energies and the forces of nature, as well. Music is a form of voodoo.

One song could cast a spell on the whole world if that song is effective enough to influence the whole world.

But just like anything else, voodoo could either be used for good or bad.

White supremacists gave voodoo a bad name, 'Black Magic', which is supposedly the evil form of magic.

There are rap songs out casting spells on our whole culture right now.

Everything about the music we listen to from the baseline, the tempo and the words has an altering effect on our thoughts, feelings and actions.

Each instrument in a beat affects a certain energy center in your body.

You don't even know whether the effects of those instruments are good for you or bad for you but you listen to it with an unconscious mind under a hypnotic spell.

And most of the music we listen to is owned by satanists who tell the artists we love what they can and can't put out so you already know they know what type of effect their music will have on us before they even allow it to hit the market.

17. MK Ultra Mind Control was used in Germany by Hitler's scientists to control the minds of the masses.

When the US toppled Hitler they kidnapped his engineers and scientists and made them teach their knowledge, just as they did our scientist when they invaded Africa.

MK Ultra is used to make celebrities' puppets and they use their puppets to program us to be human robots who dress, talk and act just like the celebrities who we look up to.

EXTRICATION

Just like sex, drugs, and alcohol, entertainment is yet another source of thrill that people turn to, to alleviate themselves from boredom and depression.

TV and music are substitutes for adventure, pleasure and productivity. But instead of settling for substitutes, you need to set goals for yourself and find pleasure and adventure in productively working towards them.

Most of us have already allowed our minds to be infected with a MTD. And our minds will function in an ill manner until we cure this disease.

To cure this disease, you must deviate your focus, time and energy from the media and redirect your focus, time and energy into more meaningful endeavors.

When you direct your focus, time and energy to your endeavors, there is no limit to what you could achieve.

Nevertheless, once you get cured from a MTD, you must keep your mind out of the media, just like you probably wouldn't fuck the same girl again who gave you a STD.

Ultimately, we have to protect our children from being infected by a MTD.

We have to keep them entertained and occupied with educational activities that's fun for them to do.

We have to keep them from being immersed in smartphones or in front of the TV screen until we could establish our own media programs that will educate them and inspire them to do good.

And stop living by what you hear in raps songs because most of these fake ass rappers are ignorant and them niggas ain't even really about what they rap about.

Even when you hear me rap about street life, pistol play and drug dealing, I'm just trying to cater to my market and sell records.

But to keep it real, I despise that lifestyle now and I left that way of living in my past. It's time for you to do the same, my nigga.

18. I originally published this book in 2012. Since then, in December of 2014 there was another book published just as essential as this one entitled Hebrews to Negros by Ronald Dalton.

THE HOLY TRAP SCRIPTURES is more essential to trap niggas than Hebrews to Negros is but Hebrews to Negros is more essential to our race, overall.

And look at how the media reacted to the book once Kyrie Irvin and (YE) Kanye West endorsed some of its teachings.

I had already confirmed in this book that Blacks are the true Jews.

And being that trap niggas are primarily the targeted ones of our race, just imagine how the mainstream media (and the world) will react when prominent artists and athletes endorse this book.

But as you could see, only a few of our prominent artists and athletes would take such a stand because the secret government who owns the media and all the colossal corporations control our entertainers through their money.

And only a few of our entertainers would sacrifice money and fame for God's Will.

If a person or organization controls the 'music' and 'movies' of a nation then they control the narrative of a nation, including its history, which prophetically directs its future.

This book is referred to as 'holy'-'scriptures' because it flips the 'script', completely (as in wholly/'holy').

The Black Panther movie was produced for 2 essential reasons; 1) to generate an excessive amount of revenue from the Black community as a 'whole' and, 2) to deceive the Black culture.

Black Panther 2 generated $768,000,000 (almost a billion dollars) in revenue. And it overshadowed the African history of what the Black Panther represented as well as the African American history of the Black Panther movement.

We should organize and launch a fundraiser with the objective to raise a billion dollars as a national community and an international culture, and produce movies about our true history to display to the world.

We could possibly raise a billion dollars in 90-days if the Black Panther movie generated nearly a billion dollars out of our pockets in less time.

Movies and music are far more essential than mere entertainment.

FBI founder and former director, J. Edgar Hoover deemed every Black man with the power to unify and electrify our community/culture a threat that should be neutralized by incarceration or death.

Music and movies have the power to unify and electrify us.

We gather at movie theaters and music events and usually leave inspired.

Comedians also have the power to unify and electrify us.

Look at Charleston White. Many people of our culture may hate him but whether you like him or not, he has most of our ears because if nothing else, to say the least, he's funny.

So never underestimate the power of comedy.

For those of you who hate Charleston White for clowning the rappers who you admire, dead or alive, you should probably check yourselves because most of these rappers need to be clowned.

I don't condone snitching at all but I also don't condone niggas calling themselves demons or niggas disrespecting the dead.

So we need people like Charleston White because these fool ass rappers who are influencing our youth to be so evil need to be clowned by somebody.

And Charleston White points out how all you wannabe tough ass niggas really scared of the police.

You so called killers would kill a nigga for clowning you but you transform into rats yourselves in front of so called law enforcement.

Me, I really had niggas in the streets to where they couldn't come outside for real when I was a kid.

So me beefing with niggas in the streets is like a heavyweight challenging lightweights.

I'm bigger than that so I'm challenging the government now.

Yeah, "you ain't my op bro." I'm challenging the government and trying to give niggas a pass.

I know these fool ass niggas consider that soft but I'm a god and I look at men as kids, just as so called men belittle kids.

Become a god by thinking like one.

You know, like Brother Malcolm implied, the media is a more dangerous weapon than all the military ammunition the United States has but I'm gon' challenge that.

I know what Jay-Z did to my nigga R. Kelly and others. Jay-Z has been anointed by the Synagogue of Satan as the music industry's lord and master.

But I inherit the power and the throne of Jesus and I can and will destroy him lyrically just to display the power of the Beyond Omnipotent God who fathered Jesus and I both.

I hereby declare war against the Synagogue of Satan as "The Lord of Words" and I will defeat their government, their media and their music industry with my lawsuits, my books and my albums because I have the support of God, the support of the ghetto and the support of the entire inmate population nationwide, and that's all I need.

VALUE OF THE VAGINA

PART 9

BIRTH OF A NATION

The ninth part of Value of The Vagina represents the ninth month period of pregnancy. Symbolic for new life.

I have impregnated your subconscious mind with a belief system which encompasses the DNA of the grand architect of the universe known as God.

And my dear sister, my queen, you are almost due to deliver the new faith into this world.

This new faith (concept/belief system) will evolve all girls into goddesses, and all boys into gods. All the ones who partake in it, that is.

The new belief system that you are now pregnant with is still premature until you undergo the following procedure of labor.

Part 9 also unlocks the Vault of the Vast Treasury of the Universe.

When this book was originally published there were only eight parts included.

Part 9 was initially intended to be withheld, exclusively for BO Girls.

As you may have noticed in part eight I implied, “if you are destined to be the Female Messiah your intuition will attract you to me”...and that “you must first be initiated as a BO Girl for proper preparation.

But now you no longer have to come directly to me or be initiated as a BO Girl because it is God's Will that matters, not mine.

And God wants you to have these divine instructions, now!

Soon, I may be ascending back to my abode in the heavenly realms.

Therefore I must leave you with this guide at this time.

And this concept must be passed down to all generations to come so that human beings could evolve into godman beings.

I personally believe that the world is not ready for the outformation taught in Part 9 because it is so advanced and ahead of its time that it would seem dumbfounded.

Infantile minded people simply don't have the mental capacity to digest such food for thought.

The guidance and direction provided by Part 9 is so far-fetched that it may lose you.

I'm sure that at some point while reading this you may question, where is he going with this?

I expect for you to be mind blown by the end of Part 9 so don't be surprised.

LABOR

Behold, you shall birth a new nation.

You may experience birth pains and contractions in the form of ridicule, criticism and rejection as you deliver this new belief system into the world.

But you will forget about all of the anguish and you will rejoice once we manifest this newborn concept into society for our people.

You are the mother of my spiritual seed and I will sit here with you to console your soul as we re-present the spirit of the Beyond Omnipotent to the world.

By now, you should 'Overstand': the nature of men; the generational wealth of your valuable vagina; the reasoning of relationships; the process of planting seeds; and the architecture of building trust.

By now, you should have made a "Mental Metamorphosis" by reprogramming your subconscious mind with such a divine belief system to develop this divine paradigm.

By now, you should be "Increasing Your Value" by altering your appearance, branding your uniqueness, changing your environment, setting trends, and being elusive and exclusive.

By now, You should be establishing "Financial Freedom" and declaring your independence by liberating your mind; molding your money making mentality; managing your money wisely; applying my hustling skills; utilizing your resources; and mastering the energy of money.

By now, you should be war ready as a "Warrior Woman" fully aware of the artifice of deviation; with your defense mechanism protecting you against psychological oppression; and your sensory stimulating weaponry prepared for mental combat; your tactics and strategy organized; and your sisterhood support team behind you.

By now, you should be in complete control of "The Conquest" being that I have fed you the wholesome food for thought of calculating the effects caused by celibacy.

And, you should be trained for world championship competition.

Bynow, you should be a sex scholar with supreme sophistication regarding the "Secret Doctrine of Sex" because I have unveiled to you the great discovery of the essence in sexual energy which your mind could exploit to command all matter and be the master of all men. You should be stress free.

By now, you should be carrying yourself like a “Female Messiah”.

You are the other half of God. You should know yourself very well by now.

You should know that your mind is so mighty and so magical that it could truly manifest anything that you believe, into existence.

And with all of the above knowledge that you now have you are ready to receive the Royal Secret.

You must meditate on the divine notion of Part 9 until you experience nirvana.

This notion may seem so simple or even so silly that most may not see the significance in it but anyhow, “spirit is mere breath and thought emulsified.”

As silly as that may sound, as simple as it may seem, Overstanding, appreciation and realization of this divine notion in addition to the surplus knowledge and wisdom delineated within the other 8 parts of this literature is the combination code which opens the doors of opportunity to any and everything you want, need, desire and wish to achieve.

However, you must ‘Overstand’ the knowledge; be willing to make sacrifices and meditate on this divine notion until you experience nirvana.

A thorough overstanding of this truth may entail a diversification of views that only differentiates in explanation.

As Charles Hannel taught, “traditional tendencies in ideas have been accepted as reality by the majority of the masses without question, examination or reconsideration.”

The conscious mind receives the notion, the subconscious mind accepts it and develops it into belief, in which becomes reality.”

Words mysteriously become flesh through the magical power of our beliefs. Pagans create images which they worship as God.

The only purpose of the images is to enable them to visualize what they wish to externalize.

Religious people worship God in supposition but in application they worship fame, fortune and fashion.

They allow totalitarian preconceptions to denounce declined truth because they don't want the populace to realize our potential.

When people encounter individuals with extrasensory perception and elite enlightenment like myself, they consider us crazy just to justify their own ignorance to inconceivable intelligence and choose to conform to commonality.

When they become accustomed to the creative enigma of their majestic mind power they will no longer consider us crazy.

Everyone who had ever culminated a new concept from sages like Jesus, to scientists like Einstein, were once considered crazy; even ridiculed and rejected before their ideology was accepted.

So, I will not allow that to denounce my divinity and neither should you allow it to denounce yours.

I idolize Prophet Muhammad because he persevered through persecution and went “from ridicule to rulership.”

His first believer was his woman. If you believe in your man like Khadijah believed in Prophet Muhammad there's no limit to the heights of success that the two of you could achieve together.

We allow our kids to accept allegory so absurd that they grow up believing everything that they were taught to accept as truth.

Allegory like Santa Clause and raindeers. The tooth fairy. The Easter bunny. Such absurd allegory dumbs our children down from the beginning stages of their growth and development.

Allegory is good for the mind if it awakens your abilities and amplifies your ambition but absurd allegory is adverse.

Allegory is any story with hidden meaning. Most of the stories in the Bible are allegorical but meaningful to mature minds.

The story I told about the Freemasons within The Myth of Satan subject in Part 8 is allegorical but very meaningful.

However, premature minded people wouldn't be able to perceive the preeminent power hidden in its meaning.

Just know, meditation is the mental labor that matures thought for those of you who are yet to overstand.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Now humble yourself for a moment and hear me out. You might learn a lesson that you could later lecture and provide light to lost souls.

Wisdom is rooted in humility. So, assuming that you are not a virgin, when you lost your virginity did you give it up willingly?

If so, was it worth it? Probably not!

Are you married to the man who took your virginity? Probably not!

Did you receive enough wealth in return to be set for life? Probably not!

Did you make sure that the man who you gave your virginity to is at least reliable and responsible enough to help raise your child appropriately, in case you ended up pregnant? Probably not!

How old were you when you lost your virginity? How old was the boy or man who took your virginity?

Now, hypothetically speaking: a 14 year old white girl who's a virgin has sex with a 40 year old Black man who ejaculates sperm inside of her.

The 14-year-old white girl's whole family is racist. They hate Black people passionately.

Her parents believe that she's just an innocent little girl who doesn't even think about sex. But she ends up pregnant by a 40 year old Black man at the tender age of 14.

Ironically, this underage white girl and the middle-age Black man are deeply in love with each other and both have hopes of getting married.

I know, sounds sickening, right?

How would the family of the white girl feel about this? What type of circumstances do you think would transpire from this?

Imagine the drastic measures that the 14 year old white girl and the 40 year old Black man would take to avoid those atrocities.

A very similar scenario occurred over 2,000 years ago, before the idea of abortion was invented.

A middle-age man from Galilee known as Joseph had sex with a young teenage girl from Bethlehem known as Mary.

Both were of different tribes; tribes that were against each other just as much as racists white are against conscious Blacks nowadays.

Their real names and identities have been changed by the secret establishment for political reasons.

But they knew that there would eventually be a day of reckoning.

A time when the true spirit of Christ would resurrect, research and reveal revolutionary revelations.

It's been a long time coming but the time has come for me to get you all out of the dark and bring you into the light.

In the Bible, it is taught that every man whose first to come out of the womb should be called holy, so Jesus was always perceived as holy because he was the first to come from Mary's womb, not the only and not the last.

See, in the Bible Jesus is acknowledged as the son of Joseph, the son of David, the son of Abraham and the son of God.

This could be confusing to those who are not conscious.

But Joseph is a descendent of King David and David is a descendent of Abraham; as explained in the Book of the Genealogy of Jesus which is now referred to as the Book of Matthew.

Genealogy is the sequence of descent traced back from our ancestors.

So if Jesus has the genetics (genealogy) of Joseph which the Bible itself clearly confirms then, "Joseph is the biological father of Jesus," right? Exactly!

Joseph planned the birth of his son, Jesus.

The plan was to carry on the "greatness of his genetics."

Genesis (gene-of-Isis) is the first book of the Bible.

In the book of Genesis God told Abraham, "behold, my covenant is with you and you shall be the father of many nations."

Think about that. The Bible begins with this covenant to Abraham and it ends with revelations from Jesus who is referred to in the Bible as a descendent of Abraham; the son of Abraham to be exact.

Even King Solomon who is recorded in world history as the richest and wisest man who ever lived, was a descendent of Abraham.

This is no coincidence. It is a holy conspiracy. And a prophecy well planned by the true royal family consisting of over “42 generations of genetic greatness.”

A woman(s) ‘womb-man’ virginity is very very valuable.

It is sanctified. Muslim men believe that if they sacrifice their life for the sake of Allah they will be rewarded with 72 virgins in the afterlife.

The incentive of having 72 virgins is so intriguing to them that it induces them to commit suicide missions.

Joseph was a mastermind. He chose Mary, not only because she was a virgin but also because of her virtue.

In most cases there's a correlation; “‘innocence’ and ‘purification.’”

With that he could see that her ‘soul’ was the perfect ‘soil’ to plant his seed in to cultivate the spirit of salvation embedded in his DNA (Christ-seeds) which would fulfill the generational prophecies of his family.

And it's safe to say that he certainly had the allegory of Isis, Osiris and Horus in mind at the time, just as his forefathers did.

Why is all this important? Well, I’m taking you on a spiritual journey and you’ll see when we get there.

For now just enjoy the voyage.

The first known male deity/god in history is Osiris. Osiris went to Egypt and ruled as king.

He presented new laws and a new way of thinking to the Egyptians.

However, he had a brother so jealous of him that his brother formulated a plot to kill him and to take over the throne.

To make a long story short, Seth, the brother of Osiris carried out the plot and killed Osiris then tore up The Body of Osiris into four pieces and spread the pieces all over Egypt so that his body could never be found.

Osiris had a sister named Isis who was also his wife.

Yes, at the time incest was a mere method engaged in to keep our bloodline pure and the so-called royal families of today still engaged in such methods.

When Isis found out what happened to her brother, Osiris, she transformed (made a mental metamorphosis), used her sharp vision (Overstanding), found the pieces to her brothers/husbands body and with the help of her sister (sisterhood salvation) who worked together night after night and magically put The Body of Osiris back together, and brought him back to life.

Osiris told Isis that he had to return to the afterlife but he impregnated her with a son before he left.

The son was named Horus. When Horus grew up he went after Seth and conquered him; restored order in peace among his nation and became king.

Jesus is King, and he is still manifesting himself through men like me just as he manifested himself multiple times in the past through men like Malcolm X, Dr. King, Napoleon Hill, etc.

The Book of The Genealogy of Jesus elucidates that there were 14 generations from Abraham to David; 14 generations from David to the deportation to Babylon; and 14 generations from there to the birth of Christ.

The 14 pieces of The Body of Osiris are symbolic for the prophetic 14 generations from the deportation to Babylon to the birth of Christ.

There are layers of meaning in such allegory.

On a lower level, pieces of The Body of Osiris also hints at a broken man torn apart by the jealousy and betrayal of his own so-called brothers.

The Goddess Isis in this sense represents the strong woman who has the willpower to pick up the pieces of a broken man and put him back together mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

It also indicates the 14 generations of information encoded within our DNA.

On the level of supreme wisdom, the essential meaning that you must grasp from this is:

“there’s a woman who will study this guide; develop an optimal ‘Overstanding’ of it; make a Mental Metamorphosis; unite with other like-minded women under a sisterhood support system; and analyze the attributes and ambitions of 14 generations of great men like Hannibal Barca, Shaka Zulu, Toussaint Louverture, Nat turner, Marcus Garvey, Noble Drew Ali, Mahatma Gandhi, Malcolm X, Dr. King, William Cooper, Tupac Shakur, Nipsey Hussle and all other brilliant and courageous men alike; past and present. She will discover what consists of their collective consciousness.

Their collective conscious and mutual morality is the genetic blueprint (DNA) which this anointed woman will spiritually extract as a virtual seed.

She shall virtually fertilize this seed and raise a revolution and a new nation that will rule in royal fashion for generations to come.

What an Immaculate Conception.”

Resurfacing back to the topic, shortly after Jesus was born Joseph married Mary.

Mary's family wasn't happy about this at all.

Not only because Mary was so young but because she got pregnant by a man outside of their tribe which was against their principles and traditions.

Furthermore, King Herod who dictated the government at the time had put a hit out on Baby Jesus because of his fears and frustrations of which he had about a descendent of king David being prophesied to retrieve rulership in the world.

Therefore Joseph moved Mary and Jesus to Egypt.

Why Egypt of all places? Maybe because they would easily fit in with the Egyptian people.

Well, that too. But mainly because Egypt is where the Ancient Mystery Schools were which taught miracle working; methods of magic; spiritual science; natural healing; sex sublimation; universal laws; mind power; etymology; astrology; numerology and more, all of which Jesus was taught at the earliest stages of his childhood.

The story of Joseph, Mary and Jesus that I have just unraveled is the actual story.

The one you may have read in the Bible is the allegorical story.

Whether actual or allegorical they are both meaningful and methodological.

One method of the methodology is that our children should not be brought into this world spontaneously.

There should be a blueprint for birth. Most men only think about the pleasure of sex when they desire to have sex with you.

Genetic prudence, having a baby, or raising a child doesn't even come to their mind.

They just wanna hump on that booty, suck on those titties, and feel the sensations of your valuable vagina.

Sex is much more special than the sensational aspect of it. The spiritual aspects of sex are sacred.

This is a lesson that must be learned in order for this world, or our nation to take life to the next level.

A genius once said, “our problems can't be solved with the same way of thinking that created them.”

It's time that we master and model this new mindset and set new examples for the youth, for our children, nieces, nephews, younger siblings, the next generation and everyone else who looks up to us now, and the many generations who will be looking up to us long after we're gone.

As role models we must establish new schools for them with totally different curriculum than traditional schools.

We must teach them and treat them like they are divine beings from birth.

We must teach them the lessons that Jesus learned as a child.

And as the Female Messiah, you must put the broken men of our culture back together.

The real ones, that is.

They have been torn apart by; the jealousy and betrayal of their own so-called brothers; the traps set up by this corrupt government; and conniving ass bitches.

Heal them. Love them.

Recondition them to be godly. You have the power to do it.

You are the Female Messiah, not a female dog so don't act like a conniving ass bitch.

You are the other half of the Most High God. Your soul magnifies God. Your body is a conduit of the universe.

Your nerves are electricity. Your brain cells are batteries. Your spine is a sensory conveyor which sends signals to and from your brain (your divine mind).

Your blood is what gas is to a car. It runs through your veins to invigorate you. Your pretty skin is the fabric which covers this amazing machinery of yours.

You are Beyond Omnipotent.

Mother Nature endeavors to express love, abundance, nourishment and greatness to the world, through you!

To prove your almighty potential to yourself, mentally have a virtual threesome within your imagination with any object of your 'desire', 'faith' and 'love' and undergo the procedure of the 9-C's (1. contemplation, 2. concentration, 3. creation, 4. creed, 5. consciousness, 6. character, 7. conduct, 8. conception, and 9. circumstances).

With this methodology you shall manifest an Immaculate Conception of whatever you wish for.

THE SALVATION OF SISTERHOOD

My dear sister, I bullshit you not. There's a very powerful organization of men who refer to themselves as The Holy Empire of True Masonic Brotherhood who would kill me for the divine knowledge that I've made available to you in this book, especially for what I am now about to reveal to you, which is the Royal Secret:

“In each triangle of perfection, one is three and three is one, so man is one, through double nature; and he attains the purposes of his being only when the two natures that are in him are just equilibrium.”

-Anonymous

The anonymous source quoted above is referring to “The Holy Trinity” and the secret of universal equilibrium.

Christians believe that the holy trinity consists of “the father, the son and the Holy Spirit.”

But someone is obviously missing from that equation.

Someone was intentionally subtracted from the equation which is “the ‘mother.’”

Therefore, the Christian concept of the holy trinity is obviously oblivious. It is a massive misconception.

That is the royal secret. The secret of universal equilibrium is a secret that is strictly guarded by the Masonic Brotherhood.

The secret is based on equality. The correct concept of the holy trinity consists of “the mother, the father, and the offspring.”

There could never be equality in the world as long as God is only perceived as male, without the significant other half of God added to the equation, which is The Mother Goddess.

Time to shift the balance. Suppression of the Royal Secret causes the oppression of women known as sexism.

Sexism might be a greater issue than racism in this world.

Sexism is practically the prime problem of equality in the world, not racism.

Look at how Arab women in the Middle East are controlled by their men.

Even white women in America had no rights at a point in time.

Sexism is instilled by the Masonic Brotherhood who now rules the world through the suppression of their Royal Secret.

America would elect a Black male President before it elects a white female President.

Proven fact!

America was created by and is controlled by the Masonic Brotherhood like many other nations.

The solution to the prime problem is to shift the balance of power by establishing a strong system of sisterhood in this world.

In certain cases you should fight fire with fire but in other cases it is wiser to fight fire with water.

The Masonic Brotherhood is built upon their own history, literature, philosophy, allegory and traditions.

Therefore our secret sisterhood society must begin building upon your own history, literature, philosophy, allegory, and traditions.

Masonry is all about brotherhood. So you and your selected sisters must be all about sisterhood, until equality (universal equilibrium) is established.

You all must sympathize with each other instead of competing with each other.

Masons acknowledge that knowledge is the most genuine and most valuable commodity of all human treasures.

Ignorance is detrimental darkness. Knowledge is liberating light.

Masonry is actually supposed to be about protecting the people; improving their physical conditions; relieving their misery; supplying their wants; and ministering their necessities (all good deeds) but it seems as if they only provide such service to each other in secrecy.

So you and your sisterhood support team must stick together and secretly help provide each other with such service.

BOism is breaking the spiritual chains that have kept the souls of women in servitude for thousands of years.

These teachings will cause religious leaders and world rulers to relinquish their rulership.

Masons know that the “Earth; the great producer, was always represented as female; as the mother goddess of humanity” who lives through you and is expressed through you.

The mother was excluded from the holy trinity and replaced by the Holy Spirit intentionally to make you believe that you are beneath men.

Masons know that “it is the great fertile, beautiful mother that produces with limitless perfusion of beneficence, everything that ministers to the needs, the comfort, and the luxury of men.”

These quotes come straight from the most worshipful master of the Masons.

Women are the dominant force in the physical realm of reality.

Men are only great when they develop into gods through sex sublimation and learn how to use their mind.

And their desire for a woman is the flame that ignites their inspiration and lights the torch of their imagination.

Masonry teaches that the noblest purpose of life and the highest duty of men is to strive incessantly and vigorously to win mastery over the mind: the spiritual realm over flesh (the sensational realm).

This signifies the war between the spirit (mind) and the senses (flesh).

“Mind over matter.”

The mind of man is not disciplined enough to resist the sex appeal of women.

That is a fact of the matter.

The gay agenda that is being pushed by the secret Government through the media is more of an attack on womanhood than manhood.

Music is the most influential mind manipulation tool of all.

Hip Hop artists are the most influential people in the world but the most influential artists are being used as puppets by the Synagogue of Satan who controls the industry.

Megan Thee Stallion is being used by the industry to portray an image of a dominant female figure in their war of gender which is designed to demasculinize the men of our culture.

Such a depiction of character will be mimicked by the women of our culture and cause a cultural confusion of character for both men and women.

You must combat the gay agenda as a Warrior Woman and stop accepting men as men who walk around in skin tight jeans with their ass out, and purses that they call man bags.

They’re competing with you for affection and attention.

The Masonic Brotherhood is the puppet masters behind this scheme.

The hidden agenda in the gay agenda is to make women out of men and to make men out of women.

Steve Harvey taught you to think like a man which is misleading because Jesus taught that you are what you think; so if you think like a man you will eventually start acting like a man and you'll eventually develop the characteristics of a man.

With that being overstood, I would advise you to think like a goddess, not like a man.

“Attention regulates intention.”

So if the government could take away most of the attention that women get and redirect it to men then you no longer matter in the minds of men.

And men will cherish each other more than they would ever cherish any woman.

Those who are not ‘paid’ any attention usually have a ‘poor’ self-worth.

They don't value themselves and as long as women don't value themselves you will continue to be used and abused by men. Even dominated and demoralized.

Sadly, most women have become accustomed to being mistreated.

It's sad because you could do so much better but they make it hard for women who actually strive to do better.

Those of you who know you deserve better can't afford to fall victim to the temptation of competing with foolish women for the favor of a man.

And stop competing with men for affection and attention.

Instead you must set new examples for women like yourself who know that you are worthy of worship.

And you must advance to new standards of availability for men to even be able to access your time and attention.

What are your standards now? Could I fuck you for $100; $1,000; $10,000?

If so, depending on your price tag, I might just pay to fuck you.

But the only time that you may ever even cross my mind again after we fuck is when I have money to blow and no immediate access to other women.

Is that what you prefer? Maybe that's okay if you don't wanna be wifed.

Are your standards based on social status, fame, fashion, wealth, physical fitness, sex appeal, or do you even have any standards set for yourself at all?

Be honest! Know yourself. Answer these questions to yourself to analyze yourself.

Does fucking popular men make you feel special?

Who would you rather fuck between Drake and Jeff Bezos?

Who would you rather fuck between Floyd Mayweather Jr. and Donald Trump Jr., and why?

Would you rather marry an obese hideous rich man or an athletic, handsome, poor man?

Answering these questions to yourself with honesty.

Knowing the roots to the reasoning beneath your answers will help you to understand your past and present relations with men and enable you to reset your standards effectively, if necessary.

Most of you set your standards on fame, fashion and social studies because of its appearance of wealth and power.

But appearances are deceptive. If it is power and wealth that you are after, study politics and economics.

Then reset your standards on politicians and economists (entrepreneurs and capitalists).

Strive to become a politician and a capitalist yourself because like attracts like.

Once you understand these fields of endeavor, men with real power and wealth will be attracted to you.

The Masonic Brotherhood rules the world through their politicians and capitalists. Government systems and financial institutions are the playing fields, and this is your playbook.

As Edward Griffin confirmed, “the Federal Reserve is not federal and it has no reserves.” It was created by six men who were politicians and capitalists.

The federal reserve now owns America. America is merely a corporation in itself, disguised as a country.

Keep in mind appearances are deceptive. Your birth certificate is a stock certificate worth millions of dollars, so no matter how broke you may think you are, you have been worth millions of dollars since birth.

But that's another story. Let's get back to the topic.

Those who own the Federal Reserve are not into fame or fashion but they are the wealthiest and most powerful people on the planet.

Take that into consideration while resetting your standards.

As you reset your standards, you should re-present the ideology of “gift offerings” initially implemented by The Goddess Isis (Asset).

Remember, people had to give gift offerings to a priest or priestess of Isis just to be excused whenever they committed a sin.

And gift offerings also had to be given before sex.

So once you establish your sisterhood support team you should charge each other with a penalty every time one of you degrades yourselves by violating such standards.

Deem worthless/meaningless sex as a sin against what you believe in.

Religiously and relentlessly require a gift offering to be submitted by anyone and everyone who even expresses the desire to have sex with you but please don't misconstrue this method with prostitution.

Furthermore, you and your sisterhood support team shall be each other's secretaries and managers.

Entertainers, lawyers, politicians and elite entrepreneurs all have secretaries and or managers that people must go through to reach them. You should too.

Make yourself just as important. Never give out your direct contact info to a man unless you're applying the phone number tactic described in Part 5.

Instead, keep business cards handy with business contact info listed only.

If any dude would like to date you, have him call the number on the card which your selected sister will answer as your secretary.

Her job is to screen him; question and qualify him for you.

There are consultants who charge thousands of dollars per hour just to talk/consult with them so your secretary should be confident enough in you to demand a gift offering/fee from a man just to be able to talk to you.

And you do the same for her as her secretary.

Act like a queen, be treated like a queen. Royalty respects royalty.

You may think I'm asking you to set your standards too high but the secretary scheme is just a noble idea for you to consider conducting while setting your standards.

I just want you to think highly of yourself when you set your standards. That's all.

Even if you are married or in an intimate relationship with a man, you shall subliminally reprogram his mind to either give a gift offering to you or do something special for you every time he wants sex.

If not, he will take your valuable vagina for granted.

When your vagina is taken for granted it eliminates men's excitement and once you are no longer so exciting to him, having sex with you becomes boring to him no matter how sexy you are which tempts him to find side bitches to trick on.

Make gift offerings a tradition in your relationship so that your valuable vagina is never taken for granted. This would maintain the excitement on both sides.

Gift offerings involve sex sublimation. Sex sublimation methods as such will force all men to re-prioritize their priorities and step their game up.

And this will turn the whole world up.

The concepts of this book can certainly conceive wealth and power into your life, but only if practiced.

This guide is exploratory and requires self discipline. It insists that you repudiate all old beliefs, habits and traditions and start your life over with a new divine mindset.

New beliefs, habits and traditions are instilled through environmental influence and social engineering which doesn't occur overnight.

Rome wasn't built in one day, neither was America.

And it took warfare and bloodshed to get people to believe in both Christianity and Islam.

So we've got some difficulties ahead, my sister.

You are about to birth a whole new nation. There may be birth pain but your sisters and I are right here by your side.

Genuine sisterhood is impracticable without reciprocal regard, mutual input, group psychology and tolerance for imperfections and mistakes.

You cannot be a hypocrite. You cannot look down on each other.

You must think highly of each other and look for the good in each other.

Overlook each other's flaws and feel responsible for each other's failures.

That's real sisterhood. Otherwise you shouldn't even see each other as friends, let alone sisters.

Your sisterhood support team must reward each other for loyalty, commitment, compliance, courage, compassion, and grace because we live in a world where slander, revenge, scandal, oppression, and fake shit is approved and applauded.

Please don't let me be misunderstood. Yes I am black and I love my black queens, dearly.

But these teachings are based on sexism, not racism.

So when I refer to you as sisters I'm referring to each and every woman of each and every race; all colors, shapes and sizes, young and old, who are willing to unify under my divine teachings because the Goddess and the God who made me, is your heavenly mother and father, as much as mine.

To my older sisters, I ask that you help protect the prey from the predator.

There are many underage girls out here who are misguided.

They need role models who they could look up to as big sisters.

Some of them may still be virgins. Teach them how valuable their vagina and their virginity is.

Allow them to study these teachings or teach these concepts to them yourself.

You may think that these teachings are too revealing for underaged girls but the fact of the matter is that most of them are already having sex and probably popping Plan B pills on the low to prevent pregnancy.

And it is men my age and your age who are taking advantage of them not knowing their worth.

Prophet Muhammad is one of the most honored men who ever lived.

However in his 40's he married a 15 year old young lady named Aishah.

The point is not to justify pedophilia but to ratify the reality of human nature.

Older men are naturally attracted to young ladies so the only thing that we could realistically do about it is provide these young ladies with guidance that they could use in real life which would at least assure that they are not taken advantage of.

In many other countries it is still legal and acceptable for overage men to marry underage girls.

Study sociology. There are many man made laws set against the laws of human nature.

As I previously implied in Part 5, many adult men would shamelessly have sex with underage girls in America if it was legal here like it is in other countries.

Most of them already do, low-key! So let's not escape reality.

Let's not act like y'all wasn't having sex with grown men when y'all were under aged.

And let's not discriminate against R. Kelly and sabotage his character as if he deserves to spend the rest of his life in prison for mere mental weakness, not sickness, while there's millions of underage girls who are actually getting kidnapped, beaten, pimped, molested and raped by older men every day right here in America as well as every other country and nobody is doing anything about it.

R. Kelly didn't rape, kidnap, pimp or torture any lady, as he was falsely accused of.

It is our responsibility to recondition and strengthen the weak minds of our brothers and to raise our youth appropriately because R. Kelly and the young ladies who had sexual desires for him are no different from the men and young ladies who we communicate with in our community every day.

All of our people need divine guidance and mental healing.

Not just R. Kelly, not just the young ladies who carry themselves like thots, not just me, not just you, but we all need help.

If we didn't I wouldn't be writing about it and you wouldn't be reading this 'manu-scripture'.

I know R. Kelly personally and although he may have not been mentally disciplined enough to resist the temptations of misguided young ladies throwing themselves at him, I know that he wasn't so ignoble that he would hold them hostage and starve them.

He was conspired against by the same secret government who sabotaged Michael Jackson and assassinated Dr. King.

For those of you who are compassionately concerned about the well-being of our people, who actually care about the youth, instead of ignoring the reality of human nature such as puberty and hormones, you should teach the youth these concepts at an early age, in addition to the life lessons you had to learn the hard way through trial and error.

These young girls have a menstrual cycle that begins when they're around the age of 12 and from there they start having sexual urges.

So maybe that is the best time to start teaching them these lessons.

Most of them have mothers who are either prostitutes or just plain promiscuous because they were never taught these lessons themselves.

Controlling hormones it's like taming a raging bull, like conquering a dragon, for anyone!

Especially for the undisciplined men you call perverts and the underage girls you call fast.

Those girls need someone they could talk to, who Overstand these things.

Someone like you who may have already been through everything that they could ever go through.

Guide them from the wrong path and direct them to the righteous path.

And humble yourself to older women. They have already been through what you may be going through.

Listen to them in order to learn life lessons that you could avoid learning the hard way, and pass the wisdom down to the youth.

Show all women the love of a supportive sister.

DELIVERY

While alone and undisturbed, close your eyes and imagine yourself in labor.

It is time to deliver our baby into the world.

You are about to birth a whole new nation and a brand new faith into the world.

Take my hand sweetheart. Everything will be okay. “Fore I am with you. My staff will comfort you.”

Now, relax! Take control of your mind and body.

Don’t move for 15 to 60 minutes.

Take deep breaths in and out throughout this procedure. Relieve all tension. Completely let go of worry, anxiety, sorrow and hostility.

Eliminate all thoughts of doubt and fear from your mind.

Now, ‘contemplate’ on everything you learned from this book. ‘Concentrate’ on the ideas that inspired you the most. ‘Create’ an image in your mind of all that you believe you could achieve with this knowledge.

Emotionalize the image. Feel the achievement; see it, touch it, smell it, hear it.

Make that image your ‘creed’ with affirmations that you set out to repeat twice daily; once immediately upon awakening in the morning and once right before resting at night.

‘Commit’ yourself to your creed to the point that you are conscious of nothing contrary to it.

Picture the new you; the new ‘character’/person that these lessons developed you into.

Now, push! Push baby, push! Keep on pushing until you are holding this world in your hands.

Daily continuation of the above meditation will alter your ‘conduct’.

Your conduct will ensue contractions which will compel you to push this new faith into ‘conception’.

New ‘circumstances’ in your life and in the world will be conceived in accordance with your creed.

This is the way, the truth, and the light: the ‘way’ to change your life; the ‘truth’ that could set your soul free; and the ‘light’ that will guide you and the entire globe to prosperity.

And this is the only ‘way’, ‘truth’ and ‘light’ that could really evolve humanity, establish real equality in the world, and expand economic freedom to the entire population.

VALUE OF THE VAGINA shall reign as the most relevant guide for women empowerment over the next 2,500.

No other book could guide women to power and wealth like this one will.

This book contains both conscious and subconscious messages; direct and indirect lessons.

The subconscious messages and indirect lessons could only be Overstood through practice and experiment.

The day you put these teachings into practice you will experience incomprehensible potentiality.

The world won't realize these concepts as reality for the next decade.

Those of you who already Overstand these concepts are Beyond Omnipotent. You are a supreme goddess.

With this knowledge uploaded to your divine mind you have the power to rule the world, all of you do.

But which one of you is ready and willing to be the first to step up and lead the world by example as the Female Messiah?

Acknowledge your potential. A new faith has been born which will grow and develop into a new nation governed by The Sacred Sisterhood Sorority of Mother Earth.

Be bold enough to take on the challenge. "The world is yours."

I set myself out to be assassinated by providing you all with this divine guide.

So I may be going back home soon to our heavenly Mother and Father.

Even if not so soon, one day someone will be reading these words and I'll be long gone.

And I just want you all to know that I love y'all.

I love you, my dear. And as I cut this umbilical cord, I just ask that you let all of our descendants of our future generations know that I love them too.

PHASE 1

BORN DEAD

“She was pregnant and screamed in pain of her labor, awaiting her delivery. Suddenly a red dragon appeared with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his head. His tail drew along behind him a third of the stars which he plunged to the earth. He stood before the woman as she was about to give birth to her child, ready to devour the baby as soon as it was born. She gave birth to a boy who was to rule all nations”.

-REVELATION 12:2-5

My mother once told me the story of how painful it was birthing me into this harsh world; regarding the miracle of me even being alive.

At the commencement of my entrance into this sinful life, I was cursed by the Devil, touched by God, and what Christians believe "born again."

I often found myself wondering, could I be the Chosen One, way before I heard about that King James character? Or could I just, maybe, be Jehovah in the flesh? A black man ... nah, they'll think I lost my mind.

Well, let them tell it, I was always crazy. But this is my story, so let me tell it:

It was Monday, May 26, 1986, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, when heavy rain cried from the sky, while loud lightning flashes thundered the heaven. Some say it was the work of God sending a message to the disobedient sins of the Devil.

Down below was hell on Earth, depending on who you asked, the ghetto sure believed so. Resurfacing back to the purpose of the story, there was a young woman who sat in labor for six hours with painful contractions.

To the doctor's instructions, she pushed and squeezed to unload the gift of a black baby; born to be cursed; hated by the white man's world.

For the young woman, this was her second time in the delivery room, and not once before had giving birth pain like now.

It felt as though her external physical body was being run over by a mack-truck, while her soul cried out for the Heavenly Father.

Salty tears mixed with sweat rivered down her cream colored cheeks, as she pushed, weakly, while in and out of consciousness.

"If we don't deliver the infant immediately from the mother, we may lose him," exclaimed one of the doctors. A C-section was up in consideration, but with the young woman being so far into labor, the procedure would be too risky going under the knife.

With very few options, doctors were left with the proceedings to go through with the C-section and take the infant out themselves.

Applying surgical gloves and medical lubricants they dug in between the mother's legs and they shouted, "push ... push ... push!

Then suddenly a small sized bloody baby popped out of the wound, along with chunks of discharge and tiny feces.

No crying ... No screaming ... Nothing of a single sound came from the newborn.

Something was dreadfully wrong, and doctors soon realized as they rinsed the baby.

The infant was not breathing and around his neck there were purple marks. There was something caught inside his throat which may have choked him from life.

Doctors immediately began operating on the hopeless child; placing tubes inside his mouth to squeeze out what was caught inside.

Pieces of feces and unrecognizable discharge that the child had somehow swallowed came spilling up! But there was more inside! The infant had died before he lived.

"God, please!.. My baby... not my baby!..." the mother sobbed, broken heartedly for her children.

Then in some drastic turn, the infant started spasm, shaking and going into a seizure as his little eyes disappeared to the back of his head.

The mother screamed "Bloody Jesus!", right before she lost consciousness.

After receiving a tragic phone call; a plus sized woman by the name of Mary now had tears in her eyes as she ran to deliver the heart-breaking news to her brother who was staying in the basement of her house.

"Ronnie!", she yelled from the top of the stairs. "What!, Ronnie responded with a disgruntled ashy voice.

The disturbance caused him to burn the tip of his fingers with the lighter flames.

"Don't you know that Martha is at the hospital, do you?" she questioned. "Yeah I know. She's giving birth to that baby," he replied with no affection whatsoever, and then went back to talking with his mind's delusion; a friend named Jason.

"Ron!, The hospital had just called, and it's some bad news ... I think that you should go over there." "Nah, they'll be alright, I ain't missing nothing. I'll still be here when they make it back," Ron said with a pigeon heart.

Crack cocaine had really fried out his brain cells. At the moment he couldn't tell good from evil, especially if Satan had a crack rock; hell, he'd walk himself into burning fire for a hit of the crack pipe.

It owned his soul. "I think she will be somewhat alright, but ... they ... they pronounced the baby dead!"

For a second, Ron opened his hands to drop the poison he held, but nothing fell ... He wouldn't or maybe he couldn't let go no matter how bad he needed to.

Then in a low pitch he said sadly, "God must've took him away because I'm not yet the man he needs me to be."

For the first time in a long time Ron cried, real tears. Picking up his lighter, he scratched the flick and heated up the crack rock, as he sucked on the pipe like an infant on a breastfeeding nipple.

He heard the basement door slam shut when his sister departed to leave him be. And as always, Ron was once again left alone in this cold world with the only friend that never walked out of his life, Jason.

Continuing to suck on the glass dick, the crack took him like a rising spirit; high up to a place that only God can take His angels; out of this world.

To Ron, crack cocaine was his baby; first love; and only concern. "The boy wasn't gonna be shit anyways," he concludes while burying the guilt of a deadbeat.

The doctors, nurses, and other hospital assistants either wept softly or were just now drying their teary eyes. Never had any of them experienced the tragedy of an unsuccessful delivery.

Someone was now placing white blankets over the infant. Nurses felt the loss personally.

The head doctor would have to tell the mother of the painful loss once she awoke from her temporary coma, that her baby didn't make it.

"Naaann ... ", the undeniable whines of baby verbiage, ascended from under the white blankets.

Immediately, doctors rushed over to the presumed deceased infant and checked.

The doctors lifted the blanket, and to their amazement, he was looking up at them, smiling with elated oatmeal brown eyes. He was alive! But how?

They had watched his eyes roll backwards and his small heart stop beating. They even tried to resuscitate the child, but to no avail; he had perished, based on their expertise and high degree of knowledge.

As they stood around praising the miracle child, each wondered, "could he be?" But they weren't going to question the power of God.

Hours later and after the mother had again cried her eyes out when doctors told her about the loss of her baby, she cursed the Lord and begged for an answer.

Then finally she asked the doctor, "Where's my son?" Seconds later a nurse finally walked into the delivery room carrying the 8lbs male infant and placed him into the mother's arms. She stood by to assist.

"What are you going to name him?" asked the caring nurse. The mother stared at the child undecided.

"I think Miracle would be a nice name, don't you think?" the nurse suggested. Then another one butted in, "Sounds too girly, how about Lazarus?"

"Why don't we just let the mother decide? Any name would be perfect for this little fellow." The head doctor was making it clear whose choice it was.

There was no need for anymore pressure. Not on his watch.

With the child cradled inside her arms, the young mother thought of the father and their plans of being a family together. Maybe Ron would change and be there for us since he now has a son, she believed. And with him on her mind, she then stated, "RONNIE MARTIN!"

"Are you sure ma'am?" asked the doctor. The young woman nodded while looking the child in the eyes and replied, "Yes, his name is Ronnie Martin."

The child's first and last name were taken after his absent father. A name that the child would grow to be ashamed to be associated with through the early years of his life.

"Mama loves you ... and, Dada too ... " she sang to the baby as if he really understood what she meant. Maybe she really did love him, but daddy, it was by a long shot.

After being born dead, and overcoming death as early as birth, every other possible obstacle in life should be nothing to overcome.

But welcome to this white man's world black child.

Welcome to this wicked world.

CASE NO. 1:22-CV-05440

COMPLAINT

“During the Coronavirus Pandemic, while in custody at MCC-Chicago, staff tried to kill to me”

-Ronnie Bo

Ronnie Martin, a former inmate who was held at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago (“MCC-Chicago”) hereby complain against Defendants Federal Bureau of Prisons; Michael Carvajal, Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons; Russell Heisner, Warden of the Metropolitan Correctional Center, Captain McDonald, former captain of the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago; Zaida Ndife, Health Administrator of the Metropolitan Correctional Center; Judge John Robert Blakey; and the Doe Defendants, as follows:

INTRODUCTION & BACKGROUND

1. MCC is run by the Federal Bureau of Prisons (“BOP”) and currently houses between 500 and 550 federal detainees and prisoners in a space designed for 400.

Its inhabitants and staff could not possibly practice social distancing during the coronavirus pandemic. Residents were almost entirely dependent upon Defendants for protection against the novel coronavirus, SARS-CoV-2, and the disease it causes, COVID-19.

2. Defendants had already failed not once, but twice to protect the people in their custody.

As of May 4, 2020, MCC-Chicago had the fourth highest reported number of coronavirus infections of any BOP facility in the Months later, after testing had become routinely and widely available, and while “surveillance testing” was being practiced by other correctional systems, Defendants still relied on the observation and self-reporting of symptoms—for a disease universally known to have many asymptomatic carriers—to identify when an outbreak has begun.

Defendants failed to care properly even for those who were known to be sick. Residents, especially the Plaintiff, were terrified and depressed. The Plaintiff had suffered atrocious mental and physical anguish due to such conditions.

The BOP COVID-19 webpage had reported that MCC-Chicago, housing some 500 to 550 people, had approximately 300 resident cases of COVID-19 during the pandemic.

3. Defendants’ persistent failure to protect MCC-Chicago residents from COVID-19 caused harm in every congregate setting. It is particularly shocking because MCC residents, like all carceral populations, suffered disproportionately from medical conditions and history of disease such as asthma which the Plaintiff himself has a history of, and which placed him at high risk of serious injury or death from COVID-19 as compared to the general population.

4. MCC residents and staff may have needed earlier access to a COVID-19 vaccine.

By January 16, 2021, the Bureau of Prisons had reported that it had vaccinated a fraction of its staff and an even smaller number of residents at some of its facilities—some 20% of staff had received one dose of a two-shot vaccine, while barely 4% of residents had received their first shot.

It also reported that this had used 97% of its existing supply. Reportedly some staff and a very few MCC residents were offered the vaccine—how many actually accepted is unknown. And while vaccination mitigates the severity of COVID-19, it had not been shown to prevent asymptomatic infection and transmission of the coronavirus.

5. Defendants should've had an effective plan to educate and encourage the people in its custody at MCC, as well as its staff, to accept vaccination. But even with vaccination, it would have been at least months, and maybe longer, before a facility like MCC could have safely abandoned the critically important preventative measures against COVID-19 at which Defendants failed.

6. COVID-19 remains a cruel and sometimes fatal illness. Now even more contagious strains of the virus have emerged. Only a multi-layered approach, which includes not just vaccination, but also routine and effectively implemented testing, masking, sanitation, and use of isolation and quarantine, could have kept the residents of MCC from being exposed, over and over again, to the same risks of serious harm which they have already endured. Defendants had time and did not use it. They failed their responsibilities under federal law, the Constitution, and their own regulations.

Furthermore, Judge John Robert Blakey aided and assisted the Defendants at prohibiting the Plaintiff's redress of grievances. Judge Blakey also hindered the Plaintiff from following through with the processes of the Administrative Procedure Act.

It is now time to order the Defendants to pay back the Plaintiff for using the coronavirus pandemic as a weapon which they'd used to justify robbing him of both his Civil Rights granted by the United States Constitution and his Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because it arises under the Constitution and laws of the United States. The International Court of Justice (ICJ) also has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Article 3 because it arises under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Defendants not only violated Article 3 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights but this court along with the other Defendants also Articles 7,8,10 and 11.

This court violated Article 10 by not allowing the Plaintiff a fair and an impartial tribunal in regards to his initial filings of these claims (see the ‘Chronological Log’ filed in Case No. 20-cv-3070; Northern District of Illinois).

This court violated Article 7 by not giving the Plaintiff equal protection of the law.

This court violated Article 8 by not allowing an effective remedy by tribunal.

And this court violated Article 11 by not guaranteeing the Plaintiff what was necessary for his defense.

Nevertheless, although this case may later be addressed to the ICJ if Justice is not served in the United States, at this time, the Plaintiff’s claims are solely being filed in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois.

8. Plaintiffs’ claims for declaratory and injunctive relief are authorized by the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201–02; by Rules 57 and 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; by the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 706; and by the inherent equitable powers of this Court.

9. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e)(1)(B). Defendants are United States agencies or officers sued in their official capacities, and the events and omissions giving rise to this Complaint have and will continue to occur in this judicial district.

II. PARTIES

10. Plaintiff Ronnie Martin was in BOP custody at MCC during the pandemic, where he was at risk of death or serious injury by being exposed to COVID-19. He was being held in pre-trial custody from June, 2019-December, 2020 and was presumed innocent. Like other pre-trial detainees at MCC, Ronnie Martin shared a cell with another detainee on one of MCC's cell floors.

Approximately 90% of MCC's population are pre-trial detainees.

11. At a point in time, Plaintiff was being housed in "dormitory" housing on one of MCC's dormitory floors (Unit-23). Between June, 2020-May, 2021, the Plaintiff was moved 7-8 times to different floors which recklessly put him at risk of being exposed to COVID-19 (Unit-15, Unit-6, Unit-17, the SHU, Unit-23, and Unit-19; where the infamous R. Kelly was being housed during the exact same time Plaintiff Ronnie "Bo" Martin was housed on Unit-19).

Approximately 10% of MCC's population are post-conviction residents, like Mr. Martin was from December, 2020-May, 2021.

12. Defendant Federal Bureau of Prisons "was established in 1930 to provide more progressive and humane care for federal inmates, to professionalize the prison service, and to ensure consistent and centralized administration of federal prisons." It is responsible for the safety of, and all care and services for, the persons in its custody.

Because MCC-Chicago is designed for the capacity of only 400 residents and keeps 500-550 in custody regularly, the living conditions at MCC were inhumane even prior to the coronavirus pandemic. During the pandemic the extremities of the inhumane living conditions there could probably be compared to the concentration camps of Nazi Germany during Hitler's reign. And for that reason alone, not to mention the fact that the Plaintiff was tortured by MCC-Chicago's staff (Captain McDonald) this Complaint should be addressed to the United Nations in the International Court of Justice (ICJ) to expose such operations to the world, and for other essential reasons. One other reason in particular is the fact that the governing bodies here in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (legislative, executive and judicial branches) does not respect the Civil Rights of Black citizens like the Plaintiff Ronnie Martin and so they will likely work together to dismiss these claims by any means, even unlawful means, if necessary.

13. Defendant Michael Carvajal is the Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. As Director, Defendant Carvajal is responsible for all BOP policies implemented at MCC, including those pertaining to resource distribution and factors that BOP facility leadership should consider in determining an incarcerated individual's eligibility for early release. His responsibilities include ensuring the safety of all in the BOP system and ensuring that its institutions operate in an orderly fashion. Director Carvajal has adopted and enforced policies that leave Plaintiff and all those similarly situated exposed to infection, severe illness, and death due to COVID-19. 18 U.S.C. Section 4042(a)(2) requires BOP to "provide for the safekeeping while in BOP custody, and subsistence of all persons charged with or convicted of offenses against the United States. Defendant Carvajal is named in both individual and official capacities.

14. Defendant Russell Heisner was MCC's Warden during the pandemic. He was in charge of MCC operations and was responsible for the welfare of MCC inmates. Defendant Heisner is named in both individual and official capacities.

15. Defendant Zaida Ndife was MCC's Health Administrator during the pandemic. Ndife was responsible for formulating and implementing administrative policies and programs essential to medical and dental operations at MCC. Ndife also managed and directed the MCC laboratory, pharmacy, and the medical records departments. Defendant Nlife is named in both individual and official capacities.

16. Defendant Captain McDonald was MCC's Captain during the pandemic. He was a delegate in charge of MCC operations and was responsible for the welfare of MCC inmates. Captain McDonald is responsible for the torture of Plaintiff, which he, with the help of other MCC-Chicago's staff impelled the Plaintiff to suffer. Defendant Captain McDonald is named only in his official capacity because Plaintiff does not know his full name at this time.

17. Defendant John Robert Blakey was the judge in this court who violated the Plaintiff's human Rights by not allowing Plaintiff a fair and impartial tribunal in regards to his initial filings of these claims (see the 'Chronological Log' filed in Case No. 20-cv-3070; Northern District of Illinois); by not giving the Plaintiff equal protection of the law, by not allowing an effective remedy by tribunal, and by not guaranteeing Plaintiff Ronnie Martin (who was previously diagnosed with mental impairment) what was necessary for his defense.

Plaintiff is under the impression that Judge John Robert Blakey conspired with the Defendants to deprive him of his rights, just as judges and officers conspired together against the rights of Blacks during and prior to the Jim Crow era.

Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

For the purpose of Section 242, acts under "color of law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within their lawful authority, but also acts done beyond the bounds of that official's lawful authority, if the acts are done while the official is purporting to or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties.

Persons acting under color of law within the meaning of this statute include police officers, prisons guards and other law enforcement officials, “as well as judges,” or anyone acting as public officials. It is not necessary that the crime be motivated by animus toward the race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin of the victim.

The Klu Klux Klan Act of 1871 passed 151 years ago and we still have biased judges and racist officers conspiring together against the rights of Blacks, depriving innocent people of color of our rights to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness. See exhibits C1-3 for insight into the way Judge Blakey responding to the Plaintiffs disturbing claims in Case No. 20-cv-3070; a case written about in the Plaintiff’s books and therefore is a case that shall be recorded in American history because it displays how inconsiderate a United States judge was to the inhumane conditions suffered by American citizens, which is common amongst judges in this country when it comes to the rights of so-called ‘Black’ citizens, as if we are all Blacklisted within the judicial system.

It is a crime for one or more persons acting under color of law willfully to deprive or conspire to deprive another person of any right protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States. (18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242).

III. FACTS

18. The global COVID-19 pandemic remains a grave threat. As of September 18, 2022, worldwide, there are over 612-million reported COVID-19 cases, 6.5-million confirmed deaths, and a 484,393 average of new cases per week.

Chicago alone has seen over 3.7 million cases and over 39,000 deaths.

19. COVID-19 is now the leading cause of death in the United States. The BOP itself had acknowledged that “[a]pproximately 20 percent of cases will have severe or life-threatening illness and up to two to three percent of patients will die. Some experts estimated that the mortality rate may be 10 times higher than that of seasonal influenza.”

20. As now fully evident, the arrival of COVID-19 vaccines does not mean that the pandemic is over or will be over within a few weeks, months or years.

21. As of September 19, 2022 - The BOP has 142,502 federal inmates in BOP-managed institutions and 14,038 in community-based facilities. The BOP staff complement is approximately 36,000. There are 314 federal inmates and 668 BOP staff who have confirmed positive test results for COVID-19 nationwide. Currently, 49,055 inmates and 13,808 staff have recovered. There have been 306 federal inmate deaths and 7 BOP staff member deaths attributed to COVID-19 disease. Of the inmate deaths, only 11 occurred while on home-confinement.

22. Moreover, the coronavirus continues to mutate. New development in the evolution of the COVID-19 pandemic and the SARS-CoV-2 virus has been the emergence of the B.1.1.7 mutant in the United Kingdom that has been identified in Colorado, New York, and California, and it has widely circulated across the United States. As of January 16, 2021, the B.1.1.7 mutant had been identified in Chicago by laboratories at Northwestern University. Both laboratory testing and epidemiologic data strongly indicate greater transmissibility of this agent compared to the original form of the SARS-CoV-2 virus. Recent estimates project that 80% vaccination or greater is required for herd immunity against this mutant.

23. The CDC estimated that 50% of SARS-CoV-2 infections come from asymptomatic patients. Consequently, the familiar measures to limit the spread of the virus.

24. Although older people and people with certain pre-existing conditions are the most vulnerable to serious illness or death from the virus, even younger people may suffer serious cases of COVID-19 or die. One case study reported 12,000 excess deaths among the young (defined as adults ages 25 to 44) in the U.S. in the period from March through the end of July 2020—a trend that was continuing into the fall and winter.

25. As the pandemic has continued, there have been more and more reports of long-term, sometimes disabling effects of the disease. The CDC reports fatigue, chest and joint pain, and shortness of breath among “common” long-term symptoms; others are intermittent fever, heart palpitations, depression, and difficulty with thinking and concentration. There are graver long-term effects as well, including inflammation of the heart muscle (myocarditis), lung function abnormalities, and acute kidney injury. The BOP itself notes that “[c]ellular damage from SARS-CoV-2 may cause long-term health consequences, including multiple organ injury.”

26. These long-term effects are not unusual or confined to the elderly or ill. As of September 2020, a series of medical studies had already reported that substantial numbers of COVID-19 sufferers had long-term symptoms, including, according to one study of patients with mild symptoms who had not been hospitalized, one-quarter of the patients aged 18 to 34 years old.

27. From the outset of the global pandemic, experts warned that people in confined spaces such as correctional facilities—where people live, eat, sleep, and work in close proximity—faced increased danger of contracting COVID-19. The close quarters and limited freedom of movement inherent in correctional facilities made social distancing and other preventive measures difficult or impossible for their residents. Moreover, the ability of incarcerated people to adopt preventative measures is almost completely subject to the dictates of correctional officials who control the housing, schedules, sanitary and personal protective equipment supplies, and nearly every other aspect of their lives. The BOP has acknowledged that the disease “presents unique challenges for management in the confined correctional environment.”

28. In addition, as is well known, jail and prison populations suffer from higher levels of chronic conditions, history of disease, and other health impairments that make individuals more vulnerable to serious illness and death from COVID-19.

29. Defendants failed to take the necessary steps to address the severe risks faced by the Plaintiff. Defendants opposed and continued to oppose motions for early release or home confinement; the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General found that BOP had been “slow to use . . . authority” given to it by the U.S. Attorney General to expeditiously consider medically vulnerable people for home confinement or other release “to mitigate the effects of COVID-19.” Defendants were thus themselves responsible for the crowded conditions that enabled the rapid spread of the virus within MCC, whose population remains well above “design capacity” and which has large numbers of residents packed into dormitory housing. Defendants’ failures not only endangered people incarcerated at MCC, they put MCC’s staff, their family members, local health care workers, and the broader community at risk.

30. COVID-19 has predictably overwhelmed MCC, a 27-floor prison skyscraper, not once but twice.

31. The building, a unique triangular design, was structured to have inmate housing occupying floors 13 to 26. Four floors (21 to 24) were originally designated for immigration.

32. Detainees who were regarded as not “need[ing] the security of a private room” and “were typically held for only brief periods of time,” and thus were housed in “dormitory units” planned to have 62 beds. The remaining residential floors were built with cells, distributed around the perimeter of the triangle in two tiers, 44 cells total, with “mini-lounges” for four groups of 11 cells located in the common area in the middle. The standard cell size on cell floors is 7 feet by 10 feet. The design capacity of the building was approximately 400. The “tightly organized space” of the design “was intended as a safeguard against future overcrowding.” Over the years, this has been thwarted by the addition of double bunks to many of the rooms and increased numbers of beds on the “dormitory” floors. Over 100 residents are currently crammed onto at least one of the dormitory floors.

33. On March 9, 2020, the Governor of Illinois declared all counties in Illinois a “disaster area” because of COVID-19. Defendants barred visitors (lawyers in addition to family and others) on March 13, 2020, but took few other steps to protect MCC’s population.

34. Internally, reports that staff were ill with COVID-19 began circulating early in March. On March 27, 2020, the BOP website acknowledged that two MCC staff had tested positive for COVID-19. Around the same time, staff placed a large number of cots outside the gym, which was subsequently used for quarantine. But MCC still carried on “business as usual” in many respects.

Inmates with jobs circulated throughout the facility to and from their jobs, including in the kitchen. Staff did not wear masks or use gloves, and residents were not provided with masks.

35. By the first part of April 2020, the number of staff acknowledged to have tested positive was growing—three as of April 7, 2020 to six as of April 10, 2020. The BOP website reported no resident cases, but within MCC, word of mouth said otherwise. Nonetheless, it was not until mid-to-late April that MCC screened residents on its crowded and vulnerable dormitory floors, where bunk beds sit barely three feet apart.

36. On April 14, 2020, BOP acknowledged the first resident COVID-19 case at MCC. Finally, more than one month after Illinois was declared a “disaster area,” MCC stopped sending residents to their jobs within the facility.

37. Testing quickly revealed widespread infection among those tested, and the numbers escalated rapidly. By May 6, 2020, almost one quarter of MCC’s population—133 residents—were acknowledged to have contracted the virus. Eight were hospitalized.

38. Once resident cases were finally acknowledged within MCC, Defendants compounded their errors through gross mismanagement of isolation and quarantine. On March 23, 2020, the CDC had issued the first version of its guidance on the management of COVID-19 for prisons and jails. Within a secure facility, proper management of isolation and quarantine is an essential tool in managing an outbreak of infectious respiratory disease. The CDC Guidance was clear from the beginning of the pandemic that known COVID-19 cases must be medically isolated, while “close contacts” and others under investigation must be quarantined.

The CDC specified “cases should be isolated individually, and close contacts should be quarantined individually”. If facility space did not permit this, then “cohorting” could be used—the “practice of isolating multiple laboratory-confirmed COVID-19 cases together as a group, or quarantining close contacts of a particular case together as a group.”

39. Defendants have never implemented effective isolation, quarantining or cohorting procedures at MCC—not in the spring of 2020 and not thereafter.

40. Initially, Defendant Heisner used the “secure housing unit” (“SHU”) for isolation and/or quarantine—a unit typically used for disciplinary purposes. The conditions in the SHU are, by design, austere and inhumane. Detainees and prisoners in the SHU are housed in small dark cells with a solid door with a “chuck hole” through which the food is passed. The unit is dirty and noisy. Defendant Heisner did not change the conditions in the SHU when converting it to the isolation/quarantine unit for people with known or suspected SARS-CoV-2 infection.

41. Predictably, by using the SHU for isolation/quarantine, Defendant Heisner incentivized MCC residents to hide their symptoms—a problem obvious to correctional managers and one that BOP, when it issued its own COVID-19 guidance, frankly acknowledged. MCC took this approach despite the recognition that security isolation should not be used to abate coronavirus transmission. Since MCC, in accordance with BOP policy and practice, relied on symptom self-reporting by residents to determine when an outbreak was occurring.

Defendants’ misuse of security isolation disabled COVID-19 detection and mitigation in the facility from the start.

42. As the number of COVID-19 cases among residents increased, Defendant Heisner moved numerous residents among the floors of MCC, enabling further spread of the virus. Individuals who were feeling sick or had tested positive were moved to floors with residents not yet under suspicion of infection: stickers were placed on their doors indicating that they were “quarantined.” Nevertheless, these individuals used the same showers and phones as others on the floor who were not “quarantined,” and shared the common air space.

43. The spring outbreak was, unsurprisingly, worst on the dormitory floors. In or around mid-to-late April 2020, Defendant Heisner had everyone on the 21st and 23rd floors tested. A very large number of those housed on these floors tested positive, but not all. COVID-19 management processes outlined by the CDC (and common sense) dictated that individuals who tested positive for the coronavirus should be separated (isolated) from individuals who tested negative, and that those who tested negative should be cohorted and kept under 14-day observation (quarantined). Defendants did not take these steps during the spring of 2020 outbreak. Residents who tested positive and negative alike remained housed together on floors 21 and 23 and were only later separated.

44. As aforementioned, Plaintiff was placed on multiple different floors during the pandemic within a short period of time which constantly put him at risk of contracting the virus.

On or about June 6, 2020 Plaintiff was moved to unit-6 which was not even habitable at the time. The cells were unsanitary. There was mold within the ceilings which triggered the Plaintiff's asthma by the smell. Such conditions later cause the Plaintiff to suffer an asthma attack.

Disturbingly, the day the Plaintiff was moved to unit-6 he was placed inside of a cell that had human feces and sperm smeared on the walls. The Plaintiff in addition to his three (3) cell mates had all complained to staff about the smeared feces on the wall but we're not immediately provided with sanitation items.

The docket of Case No. 20-cv-3070 exhibits that the Plaintiff asked for grievance forms on many occasions to no avail.

45. Moreover, Defendants continued to rely on symptom self-reporting to detect cases of COVID-19 among residents. Defendants elected to rely on symptom self-reporting in spite of the well-known and widely reported fact that a large percentage of SARS-CoV-2 transmission takes place through asymptomatic carriers, and despite the fact that Defendants' use of punitive isolation settings for people with coronavirus infection or exposure created strong disincentives for residents to self-report. Even MCC's symptom self-reporting was implemented in a haphazard way not likely to work. A nurse would walk through the cell floors, performing a "drive-by" tap on the cell doors and calling out "are you okay?"

46. But admitting symptoms was also not enough to receive testing and medical attention. Residents who clearly should have been tested and isolated during the spring 2020 coronavirus outbreak at MCC were not, even though they begged for attention.

47. The haphazard and insufficient measures that led to the spring 2020 COVID-19 outbreak at MCC continued even after the outbreak. In the late summer, BOP issued its apparently first version of pandemic guidance (dated August 31, 2020 to September 28, 2020.) This directed facility management to “[p]eriodically throughout the outbreak and at the conclusion of it [] review the implementation of your [] institution’s COVID-19 Pandemic Response Plan to identify what has worked well . . . [or] what has not . . . [I]dentify areas for improvement”

48. At MCC, nothing changed. Basic isolation and quarantine rules were still violated; persons who had tested positive were housed with those who had not. MCC continued to rely on symptom self-reporting to identify sick residents, but as in the spring, some individuals did not report symptoms because they did not want to be relocated within MCC to the SHU or security isolation elsewhere. Others, however, begged for attention and testing but were ignored.

49. Unsurprisingly, and as warned by public health experts, a second COVID-19 outbreak overtook MCC in mid-November 2020. At its height, at the start of December, BOP reported that 127 MCC-Chicago detainees and prisoners were once again sick—again over 20% of the population. These numbers understate the extent of the outbreak since universal testing was still not in place. Only once infection had spread within a floor were MCC residents widely tested, and by then it was too late.

50. Defendants’ reliance on symptom self-reporting—and its decision to eschew routine surveillance testing of staff and residents—was ill-advised in the early stages of the pandemic and is unforgivable now. In the spring, the availability of COVID-19 testing was widely reported to be limited, although, on information and belief, MCC only had two Abbott lab testing machines by the spring of 2020. Regardless, there is no longer a dearth of testing and testing supplies for COVID-19 in Illinois. During the week of April 11-17, 2020, the number of tests reported daily by the Illinois Department of Public Health (“IDPH”) ranged from a low of 4,848 to a high of 7,956; during the week of November 11-17, 2020.

Moreover, at all times, MCC had available to it federal resources for COVID-19 testing not available to state or municipal governments. The BOP Pandemic Plan issued in late summer of 2020 observed that “[w]ith the increased availability of testing supplies and the increased understanding of the epidemiology of transmission, expanded TESTING STRATEGIES had become an important tool in the prevention and management of COVID-19 infections. . . .”

51. Routine surveillance testing of staff and residents, like that mandated for long-term care facilities, is now an established method to help keep SARS-CoV-2 out of crowded correctional settings and to create an “early warning” system to identify resident infections. Other correctional systems have implemented surveillance testing, including the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation and the New Jersey Department of Corrections, which instituted its program in July 2020 after a major spring outbreak in its prisons.

52. Despite this, and ongoing surges in COVID-19 cases in its facilities throughout the country, BOP had not instituted surveillance testing, and Defendants had not done so at MCC in spite of two major outbreaks at the site and the evidence that symptom self-reporting was insufficient.

53. MCC has also failed at other, simpler measures. One of the most familiar means to combat the spread of infectious disease is routine cleaning and sanitation. Since the very beginning of the pandemic, handwashing and regular cleaning and disinfection of shared surfaces had been among the staples of public health advice to prevent the spread of COVID- 19.

54. Providing residents with the means to keep themselves and their spaces clean— one of the few ways in which they could, however minimally, help control their fates—would seem straightforward, but Defendants failed this challenge as well. Bar soap—the recommended method of hygiene by the CDC—had been, and continues to be, limited at MCC. Residents are supposed to receive one small bar of soap each week; especially with frequent handwashing, this bar would not last a week, and the bars sometimes run out before they are distributed to everyone. More soap can be purchased from commissary (two additional small bars every two weeks), but all residents do not have funds.

55. Residents on the cell floors are responsible for cleaning their own cells, but cleaning supplies have also been in short supply. Laundry services had been sporadic as well, with bedding going unwashed for weeks—and even months—at a time, forcing residents to wash their own sheets in trash buckets and hang them out to dry.

56. Liquid hand sanitizer was only permitted in dispensers in certain common locations, accessible primarily to staff and not to residents. These dispensers are often empty.

57. The cleaning of common areas was also haphazard. Most of these areas—showers, phones, computers used to email family or iPads used for FaceTime calls—were in heavy use, frequently touched by dozens of residents in the course of a single day. On the 23rd floor, for instance, there are four showers and four toilets shared by over 100 men. Showers were cleaned after a large group had used them, not after each use. Phones and computers were likewise not cleaned regularly in spite of BOP directives.

58. On the dormitory floors (21st and 23rd), residents were assigned to four sections within the floor. Around the beginning of May, Defendant Heisner installed make-shift plexiglass dividers between the sections. Residents nonetheless moved freely between the sections and have described the plexiglass dividers as additional surfaces that accumulate pathogens. These surfaces were also not regularly cleaned.

59. Disinfection was so poor that, in the middle of a viral pandemic, the 23rd floor, a dormitory floor, also experienced an outbreak of MRSA (Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus) starting in the summer of 2020. On information and belief, more than a dozen individuals on the floor had infections. One infection was so serious and so resistant to treatment that the patient had multiple hospitalizations before he was transferred out of MCC. This outbreak was still ongoing in January 2021.

60. Finally, Defendants' policies, practices, and deployment of straightforward preventative measures—masks—had also been systematically inadequate. Masks were universally recognized as one of the most important coronavirus transmission prevention measures and had been so for months, but Defendants failed to use this tool to protect the residents of MCC.

61. Early in the pandemic, MCC residents were provided with some disposable masks. Later, they were provided cloth masks. But regular distribution of cloth masks ceased sometime in fall 2020.

62. Even more unconscionable, Defendants had failed to ensure staff compliance with masking rules, although staff were the ones who go in and out of MCC on a daily basis into a community whose positivity rate had been as high as 10% or more recently. Staff pull down their masks to talk to residents or other staff, or wear them under their noses or pulled down beneath their chin. At MCC-Chicago, where visits had been suspended and the facility had been on restricted movement since March 2020, Defendants' failure to ensure staff compliance with PPE usage rules had enabled the transmission of COVID-19 amongst residents put the Plaintiff at risk of serious harm.

63. Defendants' last failed measure to contain COVID-19 had damaged residents including the Plaintiff psychologically and had failed to prevent coronavirus transmission. MCC had been on lockdown since mid-March of 2020. Although the intensity of lockdown had varied over time, at its worst—and recently—already fearful residents were locked in their cells for 23 or 24 hours a day, coming out 20-30 minutes three times each week for showers or phone calls to attorneys and family, and often forced to choose between them due to the shortness of time. When the 23rd floor was put on lockdown again, one individual immediately attempted suicide. Nevertheless, the lockdowns did not stop the rapid spread of COVID-19 throughout MCC.

64. Staff were also hard to find, increasing the anxiety and isolation of residents. During the spring 2020 outbreak, they would creep onto floors via staircase entrances that were shielded from view of residents, so as to avoid interactions or answering questions. Case managers and other personnel who should've been on every residential floor regularly were scarce. Plaintiff had never seen the Warden, and other senior staff were rarely in evidence.

65. MCC's deplorable handling of COVID-19 is compounded by its generally inadequate healthcare, which had become worse during the pandemic and further compounded residents' anxiety. Routine healthcare requests were not attended to. A resident of the 23rd floor—a dormitory housing floor, with beds a few feet apart—who tested positive for tuberculosis had no follow-up tests and slept among all the other residents on this crowded floor.

66. Mr. Martin had gone without his asthma medicine, sometimes for weeks, during the pandemic despite the fact that medical experts recognize that asthma places individuals at increased risk for severe COVID-19 and that poorly controlled chronic health problems further elevate that risk.

67. Finally, when residents do fall ill, the care received is shameful. Locked in isolation, a nurse may come by once a day. The only medication offered was Tylenol. The failure to monitor and properly treat ongoing cases of COVID-19 increases the likelihood of serious illness and death.

68. The protective measures set forth above, at which Defendants had failed, may continue to be essential for the foreseeable future—at least months and perhaps longer.

ALLEGATIONS

69. Ever since Plaintiff contracted COVID-19 at MCC-Chicago (tested positive at MCC-Chicago 11/14/2020: see exhibit A) Plaintiff has experienced fatigue, chest and joint pain, shortness of breath, among common long-term symptoms such as intermittent fever, heart palpitations, major depression, and difficulty with thinking and concentration.

“Defendant Heisner used the secure housing unit (“SHU”) for isolation and/or quarantine—a unit typically used for disciplinary purposes. The conditions in the SHU are, by design, austere and inhumane.”

“Detainees and prisoners in the SHU are housed in small dark cells with a solid door with a chuck hole through which the food is passed.”

“The unit is dirty and noisy. Defendant Heisner did not change the conditions in the SHU when converting it to the isolation/quarantine unit for people with known or suspected SARS-CoV-2 infection.”

In fact, on November 23, 2020, Plaintiff had experienced what he deems the most traumatic day of his life while in custody at MCC-Chicago, for simply defending his Civil and Human Rights.

MCC-Chicago staff knew that he was suffering from deadly COVID-19 systems at the time because he had already suffered a near fatal asthma attack on or about November 13, 2020 and was diagnosed the following day; November 14, 2020, with COVID-19.

In spite of such dire health conditions, on November 23, 2020, Plaintiff was forced into the SHU because he had refused to share a cell with Inmates Sangster, who was an 84-year old/ill inmate. Plaintiff's intentions were good; to protect the elderly/ill inmate from contracting COVID-19 with hopes to save his life. Plaintiff was afraid that the 84-year old inmate would die in the cell with him and that Plaintiff could be held accountable for murder.

However, because of his refusal to enter into Inmate Sangsters cell, Captain McDonald with the help of Lieutenant Robinson and others put Plaintiff in shackles and cuff, cut his clothes off, stripped him naked, and impelled him into a dark, cold cell in the segregated housing unit ("SHU").

Plaintiff was left with shackles on his ankles and handcuffs on his wrists inside the SHU cell without blankets for over 24-hours, as he suffered from preexisting COVID-19 systems.

Plaintiff was forced to lay and rest on the floor because the special cell which he was impelled into had no bed, no bunk and no mat.

The following day, on November 24, 2020 another inmate who was housed in the SHU across from the Plaintiffs cell for disciplinary reasons had flooded his cell with toilet water which contained urine and feces. Not only did the inmate affirm that he had urinated and moved his bowels in the toilet before flooding his cell but every inmate within the vicinity including the Plaintiff smelled the urine and feces because the flood water had flooded the entire vicinity including their cells.

Plaintiff was not provided with hygiene items when placed in the SHU on November 23, 2020 and was not provided with any material to sanitize his cell after his cell was flooded with urine and feces; another human's bodily fluids and discharge. □□

Plaintiff remained in the SHU without any disciplinary reports from the November 23, 2020 incident till about December 14, 2020. And the Plaintiff's cell in the SHU was flooded 3-times with urine and feces contaminated water while in the SHU (11/24/2020, 11/28/2020, and 12/11/2020).

70. Plaintiff filed requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) on multiple occasions to receive the video and audio surveillance of these inhumane incidents of injustice (see exhibit B).

So, Plaintiff hereby asks this court to 'ORDER' the Defendants to produce such exculpatory evidence for public gaze in the interest of Justice.

Please ponder over the following poem which was written by the Plaintiff during the gloomy days of being in BOP custody at MCC-Chicago during the coronavirus pandemic:

*71. As we drown in poverty
They strangle us with injustice
"I CAN'T BREATHE!"
You're choking me with corruption
Polluting our air with poison
The breath of life is a blessing, but*

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

I’m suffocating from oppression

Without the oxygen of liberty

How could we strive forward?

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

I plead as the tears in my eyes pore

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

The freedom that Dr. King died for

Is being squeezed out of our lungs

Will we survive lord?

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

I begged for my inhaler

Locked up with Covid and Asthma

As my health went ignored by the jail nurse

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

Get your knee off of my neck, please!

George Floyd screamed

As law enforcement forced his decease

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

Peep out the rate of Black deaths

Our lives are on the line

Fight until your last breath

72. Rule 23(b)(2): The proposed Plaintiff satisfy the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2) in that Defendants' policies and procedures (or lack thereof) as to the prevention, mitigation, and management of COVID-19 in MCC constitute action and refusal to act on grounds generally applicable to the Plaintiff and final injunctive relief and corresponding declaratory relief are appropriate in respecting the Plaintiff's claims.

Defendants were supposed to create and implement a mitigation plan for prevention and treatment of COVID-19 at MCC that includes:

- 1) Education to promote COVID-19 vaccination for all MCC residents and staff, in collaboration with local, state, and federal health officials, to maximize vaccine uptake. Vaccination of all MCC residents and staff as soon as possible;
- 2) Aggressive testing using an Abbott antigen test (Ag) with rapid test results within 12-24 hours for screening of symptomatic detainees (and employees); and,
- 3) The use of a highly sensitive PCR test (PCR) for asymptomatic screening with a 48 hour turnaround for results of:
 - a. All 550 residents, once (PCR);
 - b. All new residents, at intake, in a separate and safe space (PCR);
 - c. All staff, weekly, with frequency of testing determined by the % positive (PCR);
 - d. All symptomatic residents and staff (Ag);
 - e. Implementation of a simple Information Technology system to maintain testing data safely and reliably for ongoing monitoring and reporting; Isolation of all COVID-positive MCC residents in a separate ward or block of rooms;

Quarantine of all symptomatic MCC residents who are SUIs (Suspects under investigation), in a separate ward or block of rooms, apart from the COVID- positive MCC residents and the general MCC population; Rapid identification, diagnosis, isolation, delivery of, or transfer for, the appropriate level of medical care for MCC residents with moderate-severe COVID-19 illness; Hiring an infectious disease/public health expert to advise and monitor COVID control efforts; Transparency of all COVID-19 data, plans, and guidance for and staff to offer timely information, e.g. with daily or weekly updates on a website; Universal masking, and procedures to enforce mask wearing and to launder or sterilize masks in order to maintain a supply of clean masks; Reliable symptom screening of MCC residents to identify selected residents for rapid COVID testing and movement into SUI cohort housing; Mental health measures to address isolation, depression, self-harm and suicidal ideation in MCC residents in conjunction with greater access to phones, e-visits, and yard or exercise time; Hand washing and/or sanitation with widely available soap and water, or hand sanitizer stations, throughout the facility, and signage to reinforce frequent hand washing, together with regular laundry services; Systematic cleaning and surface sanitation of all common points of contact, i.e. door knobs, public phones, multi-use tablets, bannisters, faucets, toilet handles, etc.; Consultation with infection control expert engineers regarding possible improvements in HVAC ventilation and filtration systems, and in cohort analysis of stool for COVID-19 positive housing areas.

Because of the Defendants miserable failure to create and implement a mitigation plan for prevention and treatment of COVID-19 the Plaintiff has suffered irreparable harm.

Plaintiff hereby informs this court as well as the Defendants that he intends to file an “Amended Complaint” before trial to name the Doe Defendants, describe and delineate all other allegations that may not have been described in detail or mentioned herein.

This particular Complaint was filed to recommence his “journey to Justice” and to beat the statute of limitations for his claims.

COUNT 1

*ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT, 5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 706(2)—
Violation of 18 U.S.C. § 4042(a)(2) and Implementing Regulations*

(Plaintiff against Defendant Federal Bureau of Prisons for Injunctive and Declaratory Relief)

73. Plaintiff incorporate all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

74. Plaintiff was entitled to care and safekeeping while in BOP custody. 18 U.S.C. § 4042(a)(2) requires BOP to “provide for the safekeeping, care, and subsistence of all persons charged with or convicted of offenses against the United States. . . .”

75. BOP regulation requires the agency to “manage infectious diseases” in its facilities “through a comprehensive approach which includes testing, appropriate treatment, prevention, education, and infection control measures.” 28 C.F.R. § 549.10.

76. BOP regulation also prohibits detainees and prisoners “with infectious diseases transmitted through casual contact . . . from work assignments in any area until fully evaluated by a healthcare provider. 28 C.F.R. § 549.13(a). The same regulation prohibits the disciplinary actions against an individual in BOP custody solely on the basis of a positive result for an infectious disease . Id. § 549.13(c). BOP regulation also requires each facility’s clinical director to assess residents with infectious diseases for appropriate programming, duty, and housing. Id. § 549.13(a).

77. Despite these directives, Defendant has failed to provide an adequate level of care and safekeeping to Plaintiff as evidenced, inter alia, by the fact that MCC had not one but two major outbreaks of COVID-19 causing physical suffering and psychological distress to Plaintiff.

78. Moreover, Defendant's failure to follow BOP regulations contributes to the failure to provide for the safekeeping and care of Plaintiff. Defendant allowed individuals who had confirmed cases of COVID-19 or who were suspected of having COVID-19 to continue their work assignments. Defendant also disciplined residents by placing them in the secure housing unit solely because they had COVID-19 or were suspected of having COVID-19. Defendant continued to engage in these practices contrary to BOP regulations.

79. Defendant also failed to follow BOP regulations requiring a comprehensive approach to the management of infectious disease, which includes testing, appropriate treatment, prevention, education, and infection control measures by: suppressing testing and failing to ensure routine, surveillance testing of staff and residents; failing to provide appropriate treatment; failing to ensure consistent use of masks and other PPE by staff and residents; failing to educate staff, inmates, and visitors about precautions they could take to avoid transmission; failing to implement proper isolation and quarantine procedures; failing to sanitize and maintain the physical plant in order to prevent spread of infection; failing to institute early and comprehensive vaccination of residents and staff; and failing to deploy robust vaccination and PPE use campaigns, and other measures.

80. To the extent Defendant had acted at all, the ineffective measures BOP deployed to manage the virus at MCC did not only fail to contain it, but inflicted grave psychological injury on all residents as well as needless pain and suffering on those who have contracted COVID-19.

81. As a consequence of Defendant's failure to follow its statutory obligations and its own regulations, Mr. Martin faced ongoing risk of severe harm from COVID-19 and now has problems thinking clearly and concentrating.

82. BOP's failure to follow its own regulations is arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, and otherwise unauthorized by law in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act. 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).

COUNT 2

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENT-EIGHTH AMENDMENT VIOLATION.

83. Plaintiff hereby alleges and asserts the above paragraphs as fully set forth herein.

104. Pursuant to the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution, Plaintiff is entitled to be free from cruel and unusual punishment.

84. The actions of the Defendants constituted unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain and suffering which is extreme and excessive.

85. As a direct and proximate result of the violations of his constitutional rights by the Defendants, the Plaintiff suffered damages as alleged in this Complaint and Plaintiff is entitled to relief under 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331, 1346(a), 1343, 2201 and under Title 28 U.S.C. 1367.

106. Plaintiff seeks reward for cost of litigation for pursuing this claim.

COUNT 3

EIGHTH AMENDMENT-DELIBERATE INDIFFERENCE
MEDICAL CLAIM~Armstrong v. Exceptional Child Ctr., Inc., 575
U.S. 320 (2015) (Plaintiff Ronnie Martin)

86. Plaintiff incorporates all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

90. The Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution protects Plaintiff from cruel and unusual punishment.

87. Prison conditions (1) which pose “an unreasonable risk of serious damage” to a prisoner’s health and (2) to which prison officials have acted with deliberate indifference constitute the infliction of cruel and unusual punishment. Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33– 35 (1993).

88. The SARS-CoV-2 virus and the disease it causes posed substantial risks of serious harm to Plaintiff Ronnie Martin.

To the extent Defendants have acted at all, the ineffective measures Defendants have deployed to manage the virus have not only failed to contain the coronavirus, exposing Plaintiff Martin to substantial risks of serious harm, but also have inflicted and continue to inflict grave psychological injury.

In addition, Defendants have inflicted needless pain and suffering on those who have contracted COVID-19 by their failure to provide minimally adequate medical care, and exposed them to further risks of harm as a result.

On November 23, 2020 Defendants technically tortured the Plaintiff in direct retaliation to his Civil Rights case (Case No. 20-cv-3070) against Defendants. Mr. Martin was stripped naked, placed in shackles and cuff, and forced inside of a cold and dilapidated prison cell while in shackles and cuffs for approximately 24-hour as if he was being punished for trying to protect himself and an elder from potential death posed by the coronavirus exacerbated by the reckless handling of such disease by BOP staff.

89. Defendants were aware of these risks but have acted with deliberate indifference to them by failing to implement effective policies and procedures, and failing to implement and enforce those policies and procedures which they do have, to protect Plaintiff from known risks of serious harm, both physical and psychological. Further, thirteen months into the pandemic, and despite two outbreaks of COVID-19, Defendants had persisted in courses of action which they know to be ineffective to prevent the entry of the virus into MCC or to stop the spread of the virus once inside the facility.

Pursuant to the Eighth Amendment, prison officials have a duty to provide humane conditions of confinement, meaning, they must take responsible measures to guarantee and ensure adequate shelter and medical care. Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825, 834, 114 S. Ct. 1970, 128 L. Ed. 2d 811 (1994).

To prevail on an Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference medical claim, a Plaintiff must demonstrate two elements: (1) he suffered from an objectively serious medical condition; and (2) the Defendant knew about the Plaintiffs condition and the substantial risk of harm it posed, but disregarded that risk. I'd. at 837; Pittman ex rel. Hamilton v. County of Madison, Ill., 746 F.3d 766, 775 (7th Cir. 2014).

90. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered irreparable injury.

COUNT 4

EIGHTH AMENDMENT~BIVENS

(Plaintiff Martin Against Defendants Carvajal, Heisner, and Ndife)

91. Plaintiff incorporates all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

96. The Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution protects Plaintiff from cruel and unusual punishment.

92. The Supreme Court has recognized Bivens theories in the context of Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference to serious medical needs. Carlson v. Green, 446 U.S. 14 (1980).

93. The Seventh Circuit has recognized that plaintiffs may seek injunctive relief through a Bivens claim. Bunn v. Conley, 309 F.3d 1002, 1009 (7th Cir. 2002); see also Robinson v. Sherrod, 631 F.3d 839, 842 (7th Cir. 2011) (prospective relief is available in a Bivens action); Glaus v. Anderson, 408 F.3d 382, 389 (7th Cir. 2005).

94. Prison conditions (1) which pose “an unreasonable risk of serious damage” to a prisoner’s health and (2) to which prison officials have acted with deliberate indifference constitute the infliction of cruel and unusual punishment. Helling v. McKinney, 509 U.S. 25, 33– 35 (1993).

95. The SARS-CoV-2 virus and the disease it causes posed substantial risks of serious harm to Plaintiff who was housed on MCC’s dormitory housing floors from December 2020 to April 2021. To the extent Defendants have acted at all, the ineffective measures Defendants have deployed to manage the virus not only failed to contain the coronavirus, exposing Mr. Martin to substantial risks of serious harm, but also have inflicted grave psychological injury. In addition, Defendants have inflicted needless pain and suffering on those who have contracted COVID-19 by their failure to provide minimally adequate medical care, and exposed them to further risks of harm as a result.

97. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff Ronnie Martin suffered irreparable injury.

COUNT 5

FIFTH AMENDMENT~Armstrong v. Exceptional Child Ctr., Inc., 575 U.S. 320 (2015)

(Plaintiff Ronnie Martin)

98. Plaintiff incorporates all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

99. The Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees pretrial detainees a due process right to conditions of reasonable health and safety, which requires protection from risks of serious harm and adequate medical care for serious health needs.

100. The Fifth Amendment grants detainees adequate access to law library resources. Must provide pre-trial detainees either with "adequate law libraries or adequate assistance from persons trained in law," Bounds, 430 U.S. at 828.

101. The Fifth Amendment also prohibits the punishment of pre-trial detainees.

102. The conditions at MCC posed substantial risks of serious harm to Plaintiff, and Defendants' conduct as to this risk of harm is objectively unreasonable and purposeful, knowing, or reckless disregard of the consequences. Miranda v. County of Lake, 900 F.3d 335 (7th Cir. 2018); Hardeman v. Curran, 933 F.3d 816 (7th Cir. 2019). Defendants failed to develop and implement effective policies and procedures for preventing and mitigating coronavirus transmission in MCC, and failed to implement and enforce those policies and procedures which they did have, to protect the Plaintiff from known risks of serious harm, both physical and psychological. Thirteen months into the pandemic, Defendants failed meaningfully to modify and improve their infection prevention and mitigation procedures, which had led to not one but two major outbreaks of COVID-19 at MCC.

In addition, Defendants' months-long reliance on lockdowns, which have proved unable to stop the spread of COVID-19 through MCC, caused depression, anxiety, and other damaging physical and psychological effects for Mr. Martin.

103. Defendants also failed to provide necessary law library access, court appointed trust fund materials and adequate medical care to Plaintiff in direct violation of his due process rights. In this as well, their conduct was objectively unreasonable, purposeful, knowingly, and demonstrated reckless disregard of the consequences.

104. As a result of Defendants' unconstitutional actions and inactions, Plaintiff suffered irreparable injury.

COUNT 6

FEDERAL TORT CLAIM

105. Plaintiff hereby alleges and reasserts the above paragraphs as fully set forth herein.

106. The Defendants acted willfully and wantonly when they knew or should have known in light of the surrounding circumstances that their conduct would naturally and probably result in emotional distress, mental and physical harm to Plaintiff, and continuing such conduct with reckless disregard to the consequences.

107. The Defendant's conduct was so outrageous in character and so extreme in degree as to go beyond all bounds of decency and should be regarded as atrocious and utterly intolerable in a civilized society. Defendants technically tortured the Plaintiff on November 23, 2020 and left him to die a dreadful death when they placed him inside of a cold cell with shackle and cuff on his ankles and wrists, no blankets to cover his sick, aching body as he suffered with asthma and severe COVID-19 systems.

108. As a direct and proximate result of the outrageous conduct by the Defendants, Plaintiff has been harmed in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT 7

DECEIT

109. Plaintiff hereby alleges and asserts as fully set forth herein.

110. This claim is brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 2671, et. seq.

111. The Bureau of Prisons, MCC-Chicago and Judge John Robert Blakey are responsible for their acts and their delegates who allowed such atrocities to happen to me under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

112. Plaintiff was, by trick or deceit, deprived of his liberty against his will by mistaken facts and beliefs, which its causation is by the Defendants.

113. As a direct and proximate result of the wrongful conduct by the Defendants, the Plaintiff suffered damages including pain and suffering, mental anguish, and loss of capacity for the enjoyment of life which is continuing in nature.

COUNT 8

PROHIBITING REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES-FIRST AMENDMENT VIOLATION.

114. Plaintiff hereby reassert that MCC-Chicago staff and Judge John Robert Blakey prohibited redress of his grievances by withholding BP-8 and other grievance forms from him and other inmates which hindered his chances to comply with the processes of the Administrative Procedure Act.

115. The judge is equally responsible because the Plaintiff informed the judge multiple times within his filings (see exhibit C1-C3) that MCC staff were withholding trust fund requests and grievance requests from him which left Plaintiff with no other alternative than to file his grievances/complaints in federal court.

The docket of Case No. 20-cv-3070 can and will be used to substantiate, delineate and elucidate the alarming allegations of the Complaint.

COUNT 9

CONSPIRACY TO DEPRIVE THE PLAINTIFF OF HIS CIVIL, CONSTITUTIONAL & HUMAN RIGHTS

Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

For the purpose of Section 242, acts under "color of law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within their lawful authority, but also acts done beyond the bounds of that official's lawful authority, if the acts are done while the official is purporting to or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties. The Plaintiff believes to the best of his knowledge that Judge John Robert Blakey either directly or indirectly conspired with the Federal Bureau of Prisons to deprive him of his Civil Rights and Human Rights.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Plaintiff respectfully request that the Court order the following relief:

- A. Enter a declaratory judgment that Defendants failed to provide an adequate level of care and safekeeping to Plaintiff in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 4042(a)(2) and 5 U.S.C. § 702;

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: pursuant to Articles 3, 7,8,10,11 and Article 27 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, I, Ronnie Bo (born RONNIE MARTIN) hereby files international claims against; the United States of America and President Joseph Biden in his official capacity; the United States Drug Enforcement Administration and Anne Milgram in her official capacity; the United States District Court and Chief Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer in her official capacity; the United States Probation & Parole Office and Lakeasha Mallett in her official capacity; the Federal Bureau of Prisons and Michael Carvajal in his official capacity; the State of Wisconsin; and the City of Milwaukee; in both the International Court of Justice and the International Criminal Court for blatant Human Rights violations against myself and against the entire so-called African American population of approximately 41,000,000 human beings.

All of such claims arise under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

I also hereby put the world on notice that the Defendants (the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and many of its agencies) not only violated Article 3 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights but also Articles 7,8,10,11 and Article 27.

In accordance with Article 3 everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

However, the life, liberty and security of myself and every other so-called Black person in the United States of America is in dire danger.

The United States violated (and continues to violate) Article 7 by not giving myself and 41,000,000 other so-called Blacks equal protection of the law.

The United States violated (and continues to violate) Article 8 by not allowing an effective remedy by tribunal to myself and many other Blacks in most of all civil and criminal cases.

The United States violated (and continues to violate) Article 10 by not allowing myself and many other Black citizens a fair and impartial tribunal in most of our civil and criminal cases.

The United violated (and continues to violate) Article 11 by not guaranteeing myself and my culture what is necessary for our defense.

Article 27 says, “everyone has the right to freely participate in the cultural life of the community, to share scientific advances and its benefits, and to get credit for their own work.”

This article firmly incorporates cultural rights as human rights for all humanity.

But the United States of America does not honor the Human Rights of myself and my culture in America.

While the attention of our politicians and public relations people in the USA are preoccupied by what Russian President Vladimir Putin is doing in Ukraine, the Civil Rights and Human Rights of our so-called Black citizens are not being honored domestically by the agencies that were supposedly established to protect our rights.

Based upon empirical research, neither the United States or Ukraine are State Parties to the Rome Statute, but Ukraine has exercised its prerogatives to accept the Court's jurisdiction over alleged crimes under the Rome Statute pursuant to article 12(3) of the Statute.

So I hereby request the ICC Prosecutor to seek authorisation to open an investigation into this notice of claim pursuant to 12(3) of the Rome Statute on the basis of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights with regards to how the Human Rights of its Black citizens are knowingly, intentionally and maliciously being violated.

This international issue is; “beyond America’s ability to solve. It’s a human problem. Not an American problem or a Black problem. And as a human problem or a world problem we feel that it should be taken out of the jurisdiction of the United States Government and the United States Courts, and taken into the United Nations in the same manner as problems of the Black man in South Africa, Angola and other parts of the world... The way they’re trying to bring the problems of the Jews in Russia into the United Nations because of the violation of Human Rights. We believe that our problem is one; not a violation of Civil Rights but a violation of Human Rights. Not only are we denied the right to be a citizen in the United States... we are denied the right to be a human Being” (quotations reiterated by myself as Malcolm X had initially and immaculately articulated himself).

The International claims hereby submitted to the World Court (and to the United Nations) were once upon a time presented to the United Nations by The Honorable Malcolm X but had been delayed on February 21, 1965 by the assassination of The Honorable Malcolm X.

Nevertheless, the international claims that were once ‘presented’ to the United Nation by my role model, Malcolm X, are finally being re-presented to the United Nations for the first time in 58 years by myself, Ronnie Bo.

The reason seeded in this implication is as relevant as biblical revelations and such reasoning has risen and shall hereby be revealed.

The moment that Malcolm X had awoken from psychological slumber and realized that the inhumane methods of slavery in America had only been modernized, whether than terminated, he had initiated intentions to awaken the population of Black Americans as a whole but the realization of such revelations accentuated the anticipation of his assassination.

One of the revelations is that the slaves were incorporated by the United States Corporation so that slaves could be monetized by modernized methods that would appear to be less inhumane than the malicious methods that were previously implemented to monetize slaves in America.

Yet and still, Blacks are still being dehumanized, traumatized and monetized by modernized methods of slavery in America.

Another revelation of Malcolm X was that the Nation of Islam and Elijah Muhammad (who was depicted to be the Black Messiah) was in cahoots with the Klu Klux Klan in accordance with a misleading agenda to deter Black Americans from true liberty, justice and Black independence.

Within the relevance of such revelations an alarm clock was set for 2023 during the time of mass incarceration which shall awaken the Black population of America to the discouraging realization that The Emancipation Proclamation was not the initiation of our liberation.

And this realization comes with the awareness that any so-called Black Messiah or Black leader who has not taken this approach (of confronting the United Nation with regards to the inhumane circumstances which revolves around the population of Blacks in America) should not be acknowledged as a Black leader, let alone, a Black Messiah, because such so-called leaders are either in cahoots with White Supremacists for clandestine compensation or they're simply too ignorant and too incompetent to lead Black Americans to liberty, justice and independent.

The International Court of Justice (World Court) must constitute the primary formations of civilization and sustain the profound principalities of the world.

I learned that World Court Judge Dalveer Bhandari is pushing for compassion, love and compliance with the rule of law, worldwide.

World Court Judge Dalveer Bhandari himself had stated "In a world riddled with unimaginable terror, violence and blatant attacks on the rule of law, as well as the human values that underline this, it is imperative, that we focus on the core values of compassion and human resilience that this rule of law aims at protecting."

With that being said, the Honorable Judge Dalveer Bhandari is hereby challenged to display his honor (compassion, love and compliance with the rule of [international] law) to the world on a global stage by addressing the inhumane conditions inflicted on the modern day slaves of America, as fully set forth herein.

The world is well aware of what was done to the Jewish race during Adolf Hitlers reign in Nazi Germany.

And although the world may be aware of what was done to so-called Black people in America from 1526 to 1863, I'm not so sure if the world is 'well' aware, in the sense that the world's awareness is apparently more of an ill-awareness, to what was done (and continues to be done) to the Black race in America by White Americans.

Therefore, I hereby diagnose the world's awareness as an ill-awareness because the world; the United Nations, Russia, China, Saudi Arabia; the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the IMF, and other globally established nations and international organizations have not shown enough compassion or recognition to the Black race regarding the inhumane oppression that has been imposed upon us for approximately 500 years.

And this international illness of awareness requires the spiritual and moral medications hereby prescribed in this notice of claim.

Hopefully this notice of claim would heal the awareness of the world. And once the awareness of the world is cured; the United Nations, Russia, China, Saudi Arabia; the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the IMF, and other globally established nations and international organizations should then be able to feel the empathy and compassion that it necessitates to care about what has been done (and continues to be done) to the Black race since about 1526 on up to this day.

The Emancipation Proclamation of January 1, 1863 was mere American deception at its finest.

And I hereby put the world on notice that Blacks in America were not liberated by The Emancipation Proclamation.

In fact, Blacks in America are still suffering under cruel conditions of slavery to this day.

The inhumane and malicious methods of slavery imposed upon my ancestors, myself and my culture have always been extreme in nature as well as in spirit.

The traumatic conditions of which such circumstances of slavery had prehistorically caused my ancestors have genetically conveyed throughout the genetics of each and every generation of Blacks since the days when our boys and men were forced to engage in incest with their own mothers and sisters; since the days when our Black Kings (husbands) were castrated in front of their Black Queens (wives) and forced to watch their wives and underaged daughters be raped by White Americans and other White Europeans.

Even after The Emancipation Proclamation our slave masters became political leaders and the slave catchers became police officers who established modern day systems of slavery which still function in the United States of America today under deceptive corporate entities deviously entitled as noble government agencies such as the “Department of Justice,” the CIA, the FBI, the DEA and so on.

More corruption and crime has been committed by the so-called “Department-of-Justice” and its subsidiary agencies than all of the so-called street gangs and depicted criminal enterprises combined.

I am a victim of such government corruption myself as I was kidnapped and tortured by government officials here in America after being framed in multiple criminal cases by racist police officers.

And worse crimes have been committed by the Department of Justice than the alleged crimes committed by myself and any so-called street gang or depicted criminal enterprise.

Justice has never been served to Blacks in America.

However, there are Blacks in America who suffer less (from injustice in America) because they settle for less.

For example, during the terms of primitive slavery prehistorically suffered by my ancestors; the slaves who were allowed to work inside of their slave master’s mansion under air conditioning, of course, suffered so much less than the slaves who worked on the cotton fields under the scorching hot sun in 90-degree weather until they passed out.

The slaves who worked inside of their slave master’s mansion were so comfortable with slavery that they did not even concern themselves with freedom.

But the slaves who were forced to work the cotton fields and tortured for refusing to, were ready to die and willing to kill in order to alleviate themselves and their people from such psychological and physical anguish.

Similarly, the favored modern day slaves don't even concern themselves with freedom because in comparison to the "terrible stipulation" of "Retaliation by Assassination, Incarceration or Defamation" that are imposed upon those of us who aspire to exercise the birthrights and Human Rights that are entailed by the real freedom that we are entitled to as children of The Most High God; the favored modern day slaves settle for the comfort of their "favorable stipulation."

The prison population is the modern day slaves of America who suffer the most from the injustices of this corrupt nation.

And approximately 40% of the prison population are Black Americans which clearly indicates that the descendants of the primitive slaves of America are targeted and not coincidentally.

Mass incarceration in America is conspicuously a conspiracy to entrap and enslave the Black race.

Therefore, I, Ronnie Bo, (a living and breathing soul of The Most High God first, and secondly a citizen of the United States of America, residing at 3219 North 10th Street, Milwaukee Wisconsin, 53206) am hereby filing an indictment against the United States of America and many of its corrupt government agencies in the International Criminal Court to for conspiracy to entrap and enslave the Black race.

And I am hereby filing a Human Rights complaint in the International Court of Justice to demand monetary compensation and reparations for myself, the entire African American inmate population of America and the full capacity of Blacks in America as a whole, with fierce faith and devout determination that “Justice” will finally be served to Blacks in America.

NOTICE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF CLAIM

FOR THE RECORD, the Civil Rights, Constitutional Rights and Human Rights of Blacks in America are not being honored by the government or court systems in America.

In contrast, our rights; Civil, Constitutional and Human Rights are being violated in very vicious ways.

Such claims are hereby addressed to the United Nations in the International Court of Justice because the overall issue of such claims constitutes crime against humanity, committed by the United States government and the United States court system.

Based upon international rule of law, “recognition of the inherent dignity and rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world”.

Based upon international rule of law, “disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people”.

Based upon international rule of law,

“It is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by the rule of law”.

Based upon international rule of law, “the people of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom”.

Based upon international rule of law, “Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in cooperation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms”.

Obviously, the United States of America does not honor international rule of law, when it comes to the Human Rights of Blacks in America.

Blacks in America do not enjoy freedom of speech, freedom from fear or many other fundamental freedoms in America.

And our right to rebel against tyranny and oppression is met with retaliation by means of either assassination, incarceration or defamation of character.

So Blacks in America are expecting the United Nations to eventually intervene and redeem us.

World Court Judge Dalveer Bhandari, Pope Francis, High Commissioner Volker Türk, and Secretary General António Guterres cannot afford to ignore such inhumane international issues now that they have all been put on notice with this INTERNATIONAL NOTICE OF CLAIM.

Therefore, this notice of claim shall impel the United Nations to implement an immediate internal investigation into the illegal injunctions imposed on Black Americans by the United States of America.

This notice of claim includes allegations of torture which must be properly investigated.

Contrarily, this notice of claim would result in a missed opportunity for justice in such a colossal case and a missed opportunity for the oppressed population of Black Americans to finally have a fair chance to confront the conduct of corrupt government agencies of the United States such as the United States Drug Enforcement Administration, the Federal Bureau of Investigations and other agencies that operate in commerce as modern day slave catchers to the modern slaves of America who have been disenfranchised as felons.

Not only has the modern day slaves of America been disenfranchised as felons after being cunningly entrapped into crime by such agencies in order for the government to legally re-enslave us but we have also been disenfranchised as domestic terrorist (and street gang members) for establishing our own community based organizations for our own protection against government tyranny and oppression.

If We-The People (Black people) do not see that there are internal investigations conducted by the United Nation with high regards to how our Human Rights are being violated here in the United States then we are left with no other choice than to reach out to other governments such as Africa, China, Russia and Saudi Arabia for security and support.

As for my personal instances of injustice as a Black man in America, I have been targeted, harassed, framed in criminal cases, wrongfully convicted and unlawfully incarcerated ever since I was a young teen.

I believe that it is very necessary for me to hereby explain my personal instances of injustice as a Black man in America because God has blessed me with the gift of gab and there are millions of Black Americans who have experienced similar instances of injustice in this country but simply cannot articulate their experiences as lawfully and coherently as I am able to so I must speak for us all because the mass majority of us have all suffered tantamount injustices under the United States government and its subsidiary states and agencies.

The United States government seeks out to incriminate and disenfranchise young Black males during the earliest stages of our youth so that we could already be trapped in the system before our minds have time to develop into mature cognitive thinking men.

I happen to be a conscious Black man with the ability to interpret signs and symbols.

The United States emblem (symbol) is an eagle and eagles are predators that prey over inferior species in specific environments from afar just as the United States government preys over young Black men in certain environments from high places before we have time to transform (grow & develop) into superior species; the way that a caterpillar could transform into a butterfly.

By government design, the mass majority of Black youth in America are born and raised in environments where there is no positive parental guidance because in such environments most parents are either users or distributors of what the government has deemed controlled substances.

As descendants of slaves who suffered the most inhumane circumstances in human history, as we know, we have all inherited mental impairments such as post traumatic slave disorder. We are all emotionally disturbed.

And again, any government or individual who is not aware of what I'm insinuating herein has an ill-awareness. But I'm sure that the United States government is "well aware" of exactly what I am insinuating.

The United States government is well aware of how effective the "Reid Technique" could be on Black men, especially Black youth who all suffer from the inherent mental impairment caused by the inhumane circumstances of which our ancestors suffered from slavery.

The Reid Technique (invented by John Reid) has been the main interrogation method used by law enforcement in the United States. Hundreds of thousands of police officers and government agents have been trained to use the Reid Technique since the 1960s.

The Reid Technique is an interrogation method designed to create anxiety, stress and eventually desperation.

The majority of social scientists who research and write about the Reid Technique have noted that it is psychologically coercive and impels false confessions.

According to the Innocence Project, one out of every three prisoners confessed or incriminated themselves falsely under the pressure and persuasion of the Reid Technique.

My Civil Rights case (Case No. 17-cv-1192: in the United States District Court; Eastern District of Wisconsin) against task-force officer Timothy Gray of the United States Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) is one of the most egregious examples of racist police officers trying to coerce Black people into giving false confessions. DEA officer Timothy Gray had even threatened to kill me for my reluctant refusal to cooperate with him as a government informant.

Nonetheless, my personal instances of injustice dates back much further than that.

At the young age of 14, I was a suspect for shooting a shotgun into a residence home.

Days after the alleged shooting I was arrested and interrogated by Milwaukee police officers who used the Reid Technique to pressure and persuade me into giving a false confession.

I was left inside of a cold cell while handcuffed to a bench for approximately 16 hours, without food or water, which is like torture to a 14 year old child.

The officers who interrogated me entered the cell about every 2-3 hours to ask me if I was ready to go home.

And although I still refused to confess to the shooting, by trick and deceit, the last time the officers came into the cell, they gave me what they referred to as release papers to sign which were not even legible for me to read.

Anyhow, I felt so deprived of food, hydration and rest that I signed the paper under the impression that I would immediately be released and alleviated from such confinement, while totally unconscious to the fact that the papers I signed were not release papers.

In contrast, I was taken to a juvenile jail where I had later discovered that the papers of which I had signed were a false confession that led to a false conviction.

And I believe that my actual refusal to confess had made me a public enemy to law enforcement because I have been harassed and violated by law enforcement ever since.

In 2004, after serving a year in juvenile prison for a drug conviction of which I was unlawfully charged with, I somehow became a target of officer Jeffery Novack from District 5 of the Milwaukee Police Department. By 2005, I was unlawfully arrested yet again, twice by the same officer (officer Jeffery Novack from District 5 of the Milwaukee Police Department).

Officer Jeffery Novack had planted drugs on me in both arrests. I was illegally searched and seized by officer Jeffery Novack in both arrests, in direct violation of my Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights under the United States Constitution.

By June of 2013, officer Michael Vagnini, a Milwaukee police officer (and co-worker of officer Jeffery Novack) from District 5 was sentenced to 26 months in prison for conducting illegal strip searches and cavity searches of Black men.

Such police misconduct was known by Black citizens in Milwaukee Wisconsin as normal operations of District 5 of the Milwaukee Police Department.

Unfortunately, at the time, as a layperson to law, I was still too ignorant to pursue redemption, liberation and compensation from the illegal searches and false imprisonment of which Milwaukee police officer Jeffery Novack had caused me to undergo.

Due to these particular instances of injustice I served 6 years in prison and 4 years on parole under the strict stipulation of the Wisconsin Department of Corrections.

By trick and deceit, I was initially sentenced to 2.5 years in state prison and 6 years of what the State of Wisconsin calls “Extended Supervision.”

The conditions of “Extended Supervision” are not only tricky and deceitful but unlawfully as well in the sense that those of us who are placed under such stipulations usually serve time in the community under confining circumstances that we are forced to repeat for simple violations which are actually false allegations in most cases.

The stipulations of Extended Supervision violates provisions of the United States Constitutional Due Process Clause which affirms that “no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.”

The probation and parole stipulations of community supervision in all jurisdictions in America, both state and federal, are cunningly contrived traps of inducing recidivism (the tendency of impelling a convicted criminal to return to prison).

In my personal case, I am a songwriter, a recording artist, an entertainer, an entrepreneur and a book author.

However, stipulations of state and federal community supervision have hindered my career.

In 2012, after the stipulations of community supervision imposed on me by the State of Wisconsin were revoked due to false allegations I was serving hard time in prison while being reviewed by the mainstream music industry's Top40-Charts as the biblical King David of Hip Hop in comparison to Hip Hop icon Lil' Wayne who was referred to in the same review as the Goliath of Hip Hop.

<https://top40-charts.com/news.php?nid=74880&cat=>

Had I not been serving time for false imprisonment based upon such false allegations I could have capitalized on the opportunity and became a mainstream music industry megastar which would have put me in position to legitimately feed, clothe and shelter myself and my many dependents.

Such instances of injustice are ongoing and outrageous in nature.

One of the most disturbing instances of injustice occurred in 2016, one month after I was finally alleviated from the State of Wisconsin's stipulations of community supervision.

In April of 2016, Milwaukee police officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown had illegally searched and seized me.

Ironically officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown was being supervised by officer Jeffery Novack at the time. Officer Jeffery Novack is the aforementioned officer who had previously arrested me and planted drugs on me on two separate occasions which indicates that the incident with officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown was more of a conspiracy than a mere coincidence.

Officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown's arrest of myself appeared to be targeted and personal as he used unjustified, and unreasonable excessive force on me by tasing me. He even falsely accused me of having drugs on me that were never found because I was never in possession of any drugs when he arrested me.

The most disturbing thing about this particular instance of injustice is that I was strip searched by both officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown and officer Jeffery Novack immediately after the arrest and officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown was later convicted for sexually assaulting multiple men.

So I feel like I was violated in a very obscene manner by officers Jeffery Novack and Dominique Heaggan-Brown. It's safe to say that they sexually assaulted me and used false allegations of me being in possession of illicit drugs to justify it.

Furthermore, two days after I had filed Civil Rights claims (Case No. 16-cv-1702: in the United States District Court; Eastern District of Wisconsin) against officer Dominique Heaggan-Brown for these reasons, he shot and killed a young man by the name of Sylville Smith who was the nephew of my ex-girlfriend Claudia Smith, which appeared to be a warning to me.

Most recently, Timothy P. Gray, a law enforcement officer of the United States of America who has a documented history of framing innocent people of color in criminal cases deprived me and others of our lives, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness with false allegations and fabricated evidence.

The most alarming instance of such injustice is that our lawmakers and judges allow officers like Timothy Gray to commit such cruel crimes against Blacks in America without being punished to the extent that people like me are punished for committing crimes.

As indisputably indicated herein, the United States government does not honor the Civil Rights or Constitutional Rights of Black citizens which constitutes that my claims must be brought under the jurisdiction of the World Court.

There is heavily documented proof which verifies that Officer Timothy Gray had indeed falsified and attempted to falsify criminal charges against not only myself but other citizens, also.

Officer Timothy Gray caused me to serve 11-eleven months of false imprisonment in retaliation to my Civil Rights case against him (Case No. 17-cv-1192: in the United States District Court; Eastern District of Wisconsin).

Such conditions should be viewed as legalized kidnap and torture. Being arrested and put in prison as an innocent person is technically a form of kidnap and torture which are direct violations of my Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The questions that should surface from this in the International Court of Justice is “how many other U.S. citizens have been unlawfully imprisoned?,” “how many Blacks in America have experienced similar instances of injustice but simply don’t know what to do about it” and “how many public officials go unpunished for such ignoble misconduct?”

I hate to pull the race card, however, Officer Timothy Gray displayed racism blatantly during his racist rant and racist remarks against a Lyft driver on May 26, 2019 which was captured by body cam surveillance and documented by the Wisconsin Department of Justice.

So, I don’t allege that Officer Timothy Gray is racist but I assert that he is racist.

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Wisconsin Open Records Law, Wis. Stat. Section 19.31 to 19.39 I had requested the documents and surveillance to prove my claims to no avail and U.S. District Court Judge Brett Ludwig stated on record that the defendant does not have to comply with my request.

The rights provided by Brady is one that the Constitution provides as part of its basic fair trial guarantee.

It’s a shame that Dr. King died fighting against such injustice 55 years ago and racist police officers and biased judges are still depriving innocent people of color of our rights to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness.

The Klu Klux Klan Act of 1871 passed 153 years ago and we still have biased judges and racist police officers conspiring together against the rights of Blacks.

I am the ‘victim’ of police misconduct in these particular instances of injustice but had been treated as a ‘villain’ by the United States government and United States judges such as Brett Ludwig and Rebecca Pallmeyer who was supposed to ensure fair proceedings which also makes me a victim of “judicial misconduct”.

Tampering with the administration of justice in the manner indisputably shown herein involves far more than an injury to a single litigant. It is a violation against the institutions set up to protect and safeguard the public. The public welfare demands that the agencies of public justice are not so impotent that we must always be helpless victims of police misconduct and judicial misconduct.

Under 18 U.S.C. Section 1512 (b)(2) “it is a crime to knowingly corruptly persuade another person with intent to cause that person to withhold documents from use in an official proceeding.” Judge Brett Ludwig is guilty of such a crime as he persuaded the defendant that he doesn’t have to comply with my notice of deposition and requests for production of documentation. Judge Ludwig and Officer Gray both should be criminally prosecuted for their misconduct in the International Criminal Court.

Section 242 of Title 18 makes it a crime for a person acting under color of any law to willfully deprive a person of a right or privilege protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

For the purpose of Section 242, acts under "color of law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within their lawful authority, but also acts done beyond the bounds of that official's lawful authority, if the acts are done while the official is purporting to or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties.

Persons acting under color of law within the meaning of this statute include police officers, prisons guards and other law enforcement officials, "as well as judges," or anyone acting as public officials. It is not necessary that the crime be motivated by animus toward the race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin of the victim.

It is a crime for one or more persons acting under color of law willfully to deprive or conspire to deprive another person of any right protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States. (18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242).

These are Constitutional laws of the United States government which they have not honored in cases concerning Blacks citizens.

Officer Timothy Gray has committed crimes against me that are far more a threat to society and a threat to humanity than any crime I'd ever committed and Judge Brett Ludwig aided and abetted such criminal activities through deliberate indifference and judicial misconduct.

"Under color of law" means that the person doing the act is using power given to him or her by a governmental agency (local, State, or Federal). A law enforcement officer acts "under color of law" even if he or she is exceeding his or her rightful power. The types of law enforcement misconduct covered by these laws include excessive force, sexual assault, intentional false arrests, theft, or the "intentional fabrication of evidence resulting in a loss of liberty to another". Enforcement of these provisions does not require that any racial, religious, or other discriminatory motive exists.

There is proof which unveils my claims that Officer Timothy Gray intentionally fabricated evidence against me, resulting in the loss of my liberty.

Therefore the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA); a government agency (through the acts of a government agent) violated my Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as granted by the United Nations which entitles me to both liberation and compensation.

Anyhow, I still somehow have a conviction from the criminal case that DEA Agent Timothy Gray obviously fabricated against me.

Not to mention, my co-defendant Ronald Brooks is still somehow incarcerated for the case of which we were both knowingly framed into.

Furthermore, DEA agent Timothy Gray used an informant by the name of Alexander Fenn to assist him in fabricating falsified evidence against my co-defendant Ronald Brooks, and I.

Shockingly, Alexander Fenn is known in the community as more of a criminal than I was ever alleged to be.

When I discovered that a known criminal such as Alexander Fenn was used by the government as a puppet to frame me as a member of a drug trafficking organization, I was so infuriated that it provoke me to express my anger and frustration in a song which I produced and released on YouTube under the title “Wack The Rats” (<https://youtu.be/ni7p2sKF-I0>).

The government retaliated against me for the song by filing a motion to revoke my pretrial release bond and United States District Court Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer not only granted the motion but she imposed a lengthier sentence on me than usual because of the song, in violation of my Freedom of Speech.

While serving time of false imprisonment in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago on charges that were falsified against me, I was tortured by correctional officers who attempted to induce my demise. In other words “they tried to kill me.”

At the time the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) and the Department of Corrections (DOC) correctional staff used the circumstances of the Coronavirus Pandemic to impose cruel and usual punishment on the entire inmate population in America including myself.

I initially attempted to file a class action lawsuit (Case No. 20-cv-3070: in the United States District Courts Northern District of Illinois) against the BOP on behalf of myself and every inmate in custody at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago (MCC) at the time including R. Kelly but the case was dismissed and no longer pursued because the court would not allow me to represent no other inmate than myself.

The ‘Chronological Log’ filed in Case No. 20-cv-3070 details the horrible sequence of events that inmates at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago (including myself and R. Kelly) had to endure during the beginning stages of the Coronavirus Pandemic.

On November 23, 2020, I had experienced the most traumatic day of his life while in custody at MCC-Chicago, for simply defending mt Civil and Human Rights.

In October of 2022, I filed yet another lawsuit (Case No. 22-cv-05440: in the United States District Court; Northern District of Illinois) against the BOP based upon this incident.

MCC-Chicago staff knew that I was suffering from deadly COVID-19 systems at the time because I had already suffered a near fatal asthma attack on or about November 13, 2020 and was diagnosed the following day; November 14, 2020, with COVID-19.

In spite of such dire health conditions, on November 23, 2020, I was forced into the SHU (Segregated Housing Unit) because I had refused to share a cell with Inmates Sangster, who was an 84-year old/ill inmate. My intentions were good; to protect the elderly/ill inmate from contracting COVID-19 with hopes to save his life.

More so, I was afraid that the 84-year old inmate would die in the cell with me and that correctional staff would hold me accountable for murder.

However, because of my refusal to enter into Inmate Sangsters cell, Captain McDonald with the help of Lieutenant Robinson and others put me in shackles and cuff, cut my clothes off, stripped me naked, and impelled me into a dark, cold cell in the segregated housing unit which is a place inside of prison designed only to punish disciplinary inmates.

I was left with shackles on my ankles and handcuffs on my wrists inside the SHU cell without blankets for over 24-hours, as I suffered from preexisting COVID-19 systems.

I was forced to lay and rest on the floor because the special cell which I was impelled into had no bed, no bunk and no mat.

The following day, on November 24, 2020 another inmate who was housed in the SHU across from my cell for disciplinary reasons had flooded his cell with toilet water which contained urine and feces.

Not only did the inmate affirm that he had urinated and moved his bowels in the toilet before flooding his cell but every inmate within the vicinity including myself smelled the urine and feces because the flood water had flooded the entire vicinity including their cells.

I was not provided with hygiene items when placed in the SHU on November 23, 2020 and was not provided with any material to sanitize my cell after my cell was flooded with urine and feces; another human's bodily fluids and discharge.

I remained in the SHU without any disciplinary reports from the November 23, 2020 incident till about December 14, 2020. And my cell was flooded 3-times with urine and feces contaminated water while in the SHU (11/24/2020, 11/28/2020, and 12/11/2020).

I filed requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) on multiple occasions to receive the video and audio surveillance of these inhumane instances of injustice to no avail because the United States government does not honor the Rights of Black citizens.

So, I hereby ask the International Court of Justice to indict the United States of America for such violations of my Human Rights pursuant to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

And I hereby request the United Nations to monitor the proceedings in Case No. 22-cv-05440 for assertion that the United States Court system is honoring my Rights.

To this day, I still suffer from conditions which resulted from the aforementioned instances of injustice. And what happened to me is a recurring issue among approximately one-third of the entire African-American population.

My career as a book author and entertainer is still being hindered by stipulations of community supervision unlawfully imposed on me by U.S. District Court Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer and strictly enforced on me by U.S. probation officer Lakeasha Mallett.

U.S. probation officer Lakeasha Mallett and U.S. District Court Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer are both a party to a crime in violation of my Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights for the intentional infliction of emotional distress and mental anguish that they are both causing me to suffer by unlawfully hindering my career.

I have birthrights and Human Rights to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness under international law that are not being honored by the United States government and are still being directly violated by U.S. probation officer Lakeasha Mallett and U.S. District Court Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer by hindering my career which has made it difficult for me to provide a better life for myself and my children.

Probation and parole is a tool used to suppress the success of Black entrepreneurs like myself, after they have already disenfranchised us to the point that we could barely be employed by no other means than being self-employed, which impels us to resort to the thought that “crime pays.” And that thought leads to criminal activity which increases recidivism.

I consider myself the Hip Hop version of Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf; a former NBA star who had potential to become the greatest basketball player ever, had his livelihood not been taken by injustice.

I have the potential to become a world star at my craft but my livelihood is being stripped from me by the injustices of the United States government.

U.S. probation officer Lakeasha Mallett and U.S. District Court Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer is using my mental health issues as justification to deprive me of liberty when it should be a reason to exonerate me, and rightfully so.

Although these are my personal experiences, there are millions of Black Americans who have experienced similar instances of injustice who simply don't know how to seek redemption.

So I hereby speak for each and every Black American who has either been through or still goes through tantamount or worse instances of injustice in the United States.

Black History reveals that all true Black redeemers and messiahs, from Nat Turner to Tupac Shakur, who attempted to liberate our ancestors and descendants from such inhumane circumstances, have all either been assassinated or incarcerated (or both).

Once upon a time, there was a Black leader in America rising in political power with ambition to establish his own nation because like other conscious Black men in America he was raised into the harsh realization that the best interest of Blacks have never been taken into consideration by this corrupt nation.

His name was Jeff Fort. Jeff Fort was aware that all nations including the United States were developed through war and criminal enterprise.

The United States was most definitely developed through not only war and criminal enterprise but corruption and slave labor.

So if Jeff Fort indulged in criminal enterprise and attempted to prepare his ideal nation for war, then such acts could only be deemed as drastic measures taken as his only viable means to liberate himself and his infantile nation from the tyranny and oppression imposed on us by the United States government.

Former Libyan President Muammar Gaddafi was well aware of how the United States had imposed the most cruel conditions of slavery in the history of humanity upon so-called African-Americans.

Muammar Gaddafi was also well aware of how illegal injunctions such as Jim Crow laws were imposed on Blacks in America which were in direct violations to the Human Rights of Blacks in America.

And Muammar Gaddafi was well aware of how Black revolutionaries such as Malcolm X, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and others were brutally assassinated for defending the Rights of Blacks in America, without preparing themselves for war.

So just as President Joe Biden and the United States are now providing security and support to Ukrainians in order to defend them against the attacks of Russia, President Muammar Gaddafi and Libya attempted to provide security and support to Jeff Fort and the Black P. Stone Nation in order to defend them against the attacks of the United States.

The hypocrisy of America, hereby indicated, cannot be contested and therefore, Jeff Fort and the multitude of other wrongfully incriminated and unlawfully incarcerated Black inmates should be able to use this notice of claim as a guide to freedom.

Marcus Garvey is the pioneer of Black economic development in America. And the United States government cunningly conspired a way to ‘incarcerate’ him.

Malcolm X is the pioneer of Black political development in America. And the United States government cunningly conspired a way to ‘assassinate’ him.

The aspects of economic development and political development of Blacks in America are perceived as the most challenging threats to White Supremacy.

And White Supremacy is not only the same evil ideology that has caused humanity more hell on earth than any other concept of mind, but White Supremacy is also the concept of mind which produced the wicked “Western Power Structure” who governs all global operations and conspires to control the entire global population.

Maybe such implications could be considered mere conspiracy theory. So I’ll resurface back to proven facts.

The fact of the matter remains that if Black Americans conform to the opportunities for freedom, and accept the privileges offered to us by the government as liberty then Black Americans would never be truly free so Black Americans must detach from such conformity and acceptance and strive for true freedom by any means necessary, as Malcolm X had concluded nearly 6 decades ago.

After the 1965 assassination of the Honorable Malcolm X, the Black Panther Party was founded in 1966.

The ideology of the founders and revolutionaries of the Black Panther Party was deeply rooted in the by any means necessary approach of Malcolm X.

Jeff Fort also believed in the by any means necessary approach of Malcolm X and acted on the by any means necessary approach with hopes to establish his own nation because he understood that no race, culture or ethnic group were truly free without their own nation.

Unfortunately, the United States government used the by any means necessary approach implemented by Jeff Fort as justification to impose a life sentence of incarceration on him.

Larry Hoover is another example of courageous Black men who took the by any means necessary approach of Malcolm X on his quest to develop his own nation.

Larry Hoover was initially incarcerated in 1973 and sentenced to 200 years for a murder that he had allegedly ordered in an environment where young black men were programmed by government design to either kill or be killed. He was sentenced to 200 years in state prison although he was only about 21 years old at the time.

In 1997, Larry Hoover was unlawfully sentenced to life in federal prison. His Due Process Rights were significantly violated. The United States government violated the law in order to convict Mr. Hoover and the United States court system failed to uphold the law in Hoover's indictment and violated his rights to a fair trial.

Larry Hoover is now 72-years old. And to this day he has Hip Hop icons such as Kanye West (YE), Drake and J. Prince campaigning to free him because of his righteous endeavors.

Nonetheless, the United States government fears Larry Hoover because of his ability to unify and electrify Black Americans.

The organization unified and electrified by The Honorable Larry Hoover taught its members the essential elements of educational development, economical development, political development and social development.

And as soon as the organization showed signs of "Growth & Development," economically, just as the organization had begun to sprout in political development, the United States government disrupted the movement by discrediting and incarcerating the leaders, including Larry Hoover himself.

The foregoing direction was previously set by former FBI director J. Edgar Hoover through his Counterintelligence Program

(COINTELPRO) which aims at investigating and disrupting Black political groups:

“Prevent the RISE OF A “MESSIAH” who could unify and electrify the militant Black nationalist movement.”

Malcolm X was perceived by the United States government as such a “messiah.

He was considered the martyr of the Black nationalist movement.

And as of February 23, 2023, the family of Malcolm X (through Attorney Ben Crump) is suing the FBI and other government agencies for their role in the assassination of Malcolm X.

Martin Luther King could’ve been another contender as the messiah of Black Americans if he had relinquished his obedience to white liberal doctrines such as “nonviolence” and converted to Black nationalism.

Black Nationalism is about establishing a Black Nation which could never be achieved by conforming to and accepting the means offered and approved by the United States government because this government has systematized the impossibility of Black Nationalism through their judicial system.

If politics was a card game between Blacks and Whites, with Whites having the aspirations to reign supreme over Black, and political development was the reward for winning, Blacks would never win as long as we allow Whites to set the card deck because White Supremacy will never deal us a winning hand.

Therefore, with Black Nationalism being the only viable means to true freedom for Blacks in America, we must strive to establish an independent Black Nation by any means necessary, which both Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover attempted to do by following the footsteps of Malcolm X.

Let's not forget that both Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover were born and raised in America during the drastic days when the Klu Klux Klan (a White Supremacist organization) were bombing our Black churches and terrorizing Blacks in many other malicious manners.

So the United Nations and over governments of this world cannot fault Black leaders such as Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover for not conforming to the White Liberal/nonviolent approach of Dr. King.

At the time, and even to this very day, Blacks were being, and still are being attacked by police officers and other government agencies of America who are supposed to protect us from such crimes against humanity.

I, Ronnie Bo, myself have been technically kidnapped and tortured by the United States government through corrupt agencies such as the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

And therefore, I'm also taking the by any means approach of Malcolm X and if this notice of claim is not honored by the International Court of Justice then I'll follow the steps of Malcolm X, Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover and act on any other necessary means to reach my ends; even if that mean I have to reach out to other governments such as Russia and China for them to provide Black Americans with security and support.

Even governments including the United States government implements the by any means necessary approach in order to sustain its nation.

The United States was developed by means of the slave trade in which they enslaved my ancestors for over 400 years. And many of the descendants of those slaves are still being exploited in America by modern day slavery.

The United States built government wealth and simultaneously re-enslaved my race by means of the drug trade. The drug trade and the so-called War on Drugs aimed at the entrapment, enslavement and exploitation of Blacks. And many of us are still being entrapped, enslaved and exploited by such stipulations.

The United States empowered and enriched itself by robbing other nations for oil and other natural resources.

The United States maintains its reign by means of assassinating and incarcerating people like Marcus Garvey, Noble Drew Ali, Malcolm X, Dr. King, Fred Hampton, Huey Newton, Jeff Fort, Larry Hoover, Malachi Z. York, and myself.

The by any means necessary ideology of Malcolm X means just that, “by any means necessary,” not by certain means, liberal means, or reasonable means.

So the United Nations and the entire world population should cast much shame on America for assassinating and incarcerating us Black revolutionaries and Black nationalists for striving for true freedom by any means necessary because we all have the Human Rights under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights to do so.

With that, all living Black revolutionaries and Black nationalists likened to and including Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover, should be exonerated and liberated from captivity.

And therefore, I hereby put the United Nations and the United States of America on notice that if I’m not assassinated before I am able to obtain signatures from Jeff Fort, Larry Hoover, Malachi Z. York and all other Black inmates regarding the petition of which this notice of claim entails; all of our cases as one, will be filed under the jurisdiction of the World Court (in the International Court of Justice), for justice.

At least 38 percent of the inmate population in America will sign and support the petition because approximately 38 percent of the inmate population are Black American men who have read about the opportunities for liberation and compensation presented by the petition.

The findings of this notice of claim should raise international questions about the judicial system in America.

Black inmates and Black citizens on probation are perceived as and treated as modern day slaves in America. And our families, spouses and children are adversely affected by such stipulations.

I hereby suggest that the United Nations read "The New Jim Crow" by Michelle Alexander because I could write a whole book within this notice of claim about such inhumane circumstances but luckily Michelle Alexander already wrote it.

Last time I checked, the United States had the highest incarcerated population of inmates and the highest incarceration rate in the world with approximately 40% of the population being Black inmates (according to the World Prison Population List).

The current population of China is 1,453,977,516 and the current United States population is only 334,233,854 while the United States holds 21.0% of the world's prisoners even though the United States represents only about 4.4 percent of the world's population.

Such statistics should paint a clear picture to the United Nations which clearly shows that stipulations of slavery still exist in America by modernized methods.

Article one, section two of the United States Constitution declared that any person who was not free ('Black' slaves and 'Black' modern day slaves) would be counted as three-fifths of a free ('white') individual for the purposes of determining congressional representation.

These particular illegal injunctions are referred to as the "Three-Fifths Clause" which increased the political power of slaveholding and slave trading.

It did not ensure that the interests of Black Americans (slaves) would be represented in the government.

Even though the Constitution did not refer specifically to slaves, it did not ignore them either. The United States Constitution's inhumane "Three-Fifths Clause" declared that for purposes of representation in the House of Representatives Black Americans are to be counted as less than human beings.

I, Ronnie Bo, hereby declare that I am a living soul of The Most High God; not a slave to the UNITED STATES CORPORATION.

Yet and still, I and all other Black Americans are identified and commercialized in the United States as slaves and corporate entities rather than human entities.

Penhallow v. Doane's Administrators (3 U.S. 54; 1 L.Ed 57; Dall. 54), defines governments succinctly: "Governments are corporations." Inasmuch as every government is an artificial person, an abstraction, and a creature of the mind only, a government can interface only with other artificial persons. The imaginary – having neither actuality nor substance – is foreclosed from creating and attaining parity with the tangible. The legal manifestation of this is that no government, as well as any law, agency, aspect, court, etc. thereof, can concern itself with anything other than corporate, artificial persons and the contracts between them."

I hereby put the International Court of Justice and the International Criminal Court on notice that I am not an artificial person.

I am a living soul with flesh and blood who may have entered into a contract with the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Corporation to be enslaved but if so I hereby assert that I must have entered into such contracts by either trick and deceit, or by duress and coercion, whether than knowingly and willingly.

Nonetheless, being that I am a divine human being with a living and breathing soul who is not an “artificial person” the United States government does not have legal authority over me and is not in a moral position to dictate my life as if I was their slave.

I am aware that the United States government perceives me as mere cattle just as my ancestors were perceived as cattle by this corporate government known as the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

I hereby request prosecutors of the International Criminal Court to investigate claims that the United States are using stipulations of the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) to commercialize its Black (black listed) citizens as cattle, property and physical assets which financial transactions and contracts have been cunningly ascribed to.

Apparently, the United States government is violating my birthright to sovereignty. Like all other human beings with Human Rights, I would love to exercise my right to sovereignty as a sovereign citizen.

I hereby pledge to the World Court that in lieu of any corporate or individual surety for any bond (“bid bond”) that the United States government may have on my person, I did not knowingly or willingly sign any judgment order to authorize such illegal and inhumane transactions with my soul.

I hereby request the World Court to subpoena the United States government to produce all documentation which indicates the penal sum or "penal amount" of the maximum payment specified in the alleged bond for which surety is obligated or the amount of security required to be paid so that I could pay it in cash whether than with my soul or with my time.

And I hereby request the World Court to submit all documentation pertaining to Status Correction to me so that I could correct my current status from a slave or African-American, to my correct status as a Hebrew Israelite by ethnicity and a Moor by nationality.

Based upon the enlightening research of Ronald Dalton Jr. detailed in his book “Hebrews To Negros” I believe that the Jewish (Jew-ish) race are guilty of mass identity theft and that the so-called Black race are the true Jews that are referred to in The Bible as the chosen people of The Most High God.

And apparently our status in the world has been changed from Hebrews to Negros. Now, in the United States, according to Article 1, section 2 of its Constitution, we are not even considered human beings, which seems to be the reason why our government treats us worse than wild animals.

So, allow me to reintroduce myself. “My name is Ronnie Bo!” I am a son of The Most High God; a sibling of Yeshua who is commonly known as Jesus, and a brother of humanity.

Must I remind you all, I am a living, breathing man with a soul that is not to be sold. I am not a corporate entity but a divine entity and I refuse to allow myself or my people to be dealt with like someone's cattle or property.

As “The Redemption Manual” Explains:

Long before the United States of America was formed, a conspiracy of SLAVERY has always been forced upon men by other men thinking that they can live and tell other people how to live, when they cannot even live their lives in freedom.

For with the subjection of others to SLAVERY, the SLAVE MASTER becomes the SLAVE to the very people they ENSLAVE.

The object is Power through "Money", an illusion. If everyone works and pays another, who does not work, part of what they earn through taxation, the SLAVE MASTER becomes very "Rich" in Power and "Money"-an illusion. All people come into this world with nothing and they leave with nothing.

Man was made to be FREE, subject only to his creator and the rights of all men on this earth. To restrict the rights of another restricts the rights you have. Give total FREEDOM to others in your actions toward them and you in turn enjoy FREEDOM as it was given to each of us. When we are critical of others in the way they are living we are in bondage to that person. Any act done to another person or their property restricts your rights by restricting your peace and joy on this earth.

Our story begins in the 13 Colonies with the forming of the United States. The mechanism was already in place to bring forward the deceit of Lies that have plagued man since the beginning. The illumined ones chose May 1, 1776 as their day of birth in the United States of America. This statement was made in 1782, "This Nation that is now being formed, 200 years from now will bring in the One World Government and the seat will be England."

The very men who are given credit for the founding documents, in a large part (not all), sent here by King George through loans from him, or simply with the intent to once again let men think they were FREE, when in reality the country was already being prepared for subjection by the state. All but six of the signers of the Declaration of Independence were dragged from their homes in the middle of the night and brutally murdered. Such is the price of FREEDOM.

What we know as "The Constitution" was written and presented to the colonies as a "DECLARATION". A Declaration cannot be Amended. The British Accredited Regency (the BAR) located in New York, changed it into a Constitution, much like the Books of the Bible were changed into Chapters and Verses. It makes it easy to argue and change or amend.

The people were taught to change it from "The Constitution" back into the "DECLARATION" and vice versa. There were 18 copies of the original, but as each were located in the archives of Law Libraries, the Libraries were burned to the ground. The practice of converting and reconverting continued through the "Civil War" and then stopped.

In 1871, the D.C. CORPORATION was formed outside the Constitution and put into operation. Then through the "money" manipulation in the early 1900's and especially 1913 with the passage of the Federal Reserve Bank Act; a Private Banking System, which created a CENTRAL BANK for the nation; these men worked their behind the scenes trickery (the Wizard of Oz) through the 1929 "Crash " of the stock market by draining the "Money" out of the System, and the subsequent "GREAT DEPRESSION".

With the election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, March 9, 1933, the "Trading With the Enemies Act", part of this deceit of Lies came into being. When the government took all of the Gold from the people and made it a Crime to own (or hoard) Gold, the people of the united States of America lost their "Money," their ability to pay a debt, and they lost their Law, for it is with the ability of People to pay their debts with "Money" that their power to establish laws comes from "HE WHO OWNS THE GOLD RULES and establishes the LAW".

At the same time, the Government declared all Property in the United States as belonging to the government and was to be used for the good of the government.

They were speaking in a "FEDERAL" sense. The people thought they were talking to the forty-eight states. Only the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT went "BANKRUPT" not the forty eight states. The "FEDERAL CORPORATION" was now brought from under the covers and everyone was convinced that the answer was here.

The "Deceit" presented to the American People was now in full force. The governors of the 48 states of the United States all gathered at a Meeting with the BIRTH CERTIFICATES of all the citizens of their states in hand and pledged the energy behind the stocks, bonds, and notes created by the Federal Government who then sold them to the Federal Reserve Bank and at the same time place like "Dollars" of Federal Reserve Notes to insure the payment of the stocks, bonds, and notes. The problem was, the people could not pay a "DEBT" with a "DEBT", Federal Reserve Notes, without the Permission or Consent by Assent of the People. The deceit was "HOW" do you get people to consent to put a "DEBT" instrument against their property or assets.

By creating a "DEMOCRACY" form of government in simple terms is nothing more than a COMMERCIAL, CORPORATE, CONTRACT form of government, which cannot do anything but create "DEBT". They then could not take the "REPUBLICAN" form of government away. They had to have a way to pay their "DEBTS". The HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 192 passed June 5, 1933 took care of the matter. The People were to be ruled by Public Policy which is Common Law or anything that is established that the people will accept. HJR 192-June 5, 1933 established the Public Policy for the "Money" that the People now did not have: (1) The government would pay the "DEBTS" of the people DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR. This would be done with Credit and the only people who could issue Credit was the FEDERAL RESERVE BANKING SYSTEM. (2) The people were to be given Preferred Stock in this FEDERAL CORPORATION. (3) The people were to be given a Prepaid account in this FEDERAL CORPORATION. (4) The people were the "Holders in due course" of this FEDERAL CORPORATION. (5) The people were to be "Exempt from Levy".

The people were then created into CORPORATIONS or FICTIONS through the Birth Certificates, Social Security Numbers, and Voting Registration. Through these fictions, the Stocks, Notes, Bonds were created. The Credit to pay the "DEBTS" would be established by the Signature of the People and "Money" created out of thin air. The Bank never loans "Money," only Credit. Since "Federal Reserve Notes" are "DEBT NOTES" they are a LIABILITY to the FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS. The Deceit of the FEDERAL RESERVE BANK and their AGENTS; (ALL CORPORATIONS, ONLY A CORPORATION CREATES DEBT-it is a FICTION, an ILLUSION) is to get the people to allow them to place FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES against their assets without directly saying so--- for it is a FELONY for anyone to Request or Accept FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES in payment of a "DEBT". YOU CANNOT PAY A "DEBT" WITH A "DEBT".

With the passage of the Social Security Act, the real deceit began. The FEDERAL GOVERNMENT would now take care of you from the Cradle to the Grave. The SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION was created as a "TRUST". The people apply for a SOCIAL SECURITY CARD NUMBER and the SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION then as GRANTOR establishes each person as a "TRUST" or FICTION or CORPORATION. The name is CAPITALIZED such as RONNIE R MARTIN and placed into the "TRUST" with the natural person, Ronnie Ronnell Martin as the Trustee. ALL TRUSTS or CORPORATIONS report to the Internal Revenue Service through a Form 1041. We as Trustees are told to file a Form 1040 as a Federal Employee and are charged Income Tax. We should be filling out the Form 1041 and no tax is paid or owed. Remember, we are Tax Exempt. All of the people were now held by Power of Attorney in the Bar.

In or about 1938, a ruling on "Erie" Railroad vs. Tompkins changed forever the American "Justice" system. Simply stated, "Without a Contract there is No Case". CONTRACTS became the sole basis in the "FEDERAL" CORPORATION System and the Court System. AS THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS COMMERCIAL they deal in CONTRACTS. All cases in the courts are viewed as "Contracts".

In or about 1939, the BAR ACT was established in all the states and all Attorneys, Esquires, Lawyers, Counselors had to join the BAR and get a number in order to practice before the Courts. They do not have a License, for to do so would subject them to the State giving the License. The State government is the only one who can License, not the BAR or the Supreme Court of the various states. An attorney lies when he/she tells you that they have a License to Practice Law for the document hanging on their wall says "Certificate".

In 1946 another monumental change came about with the entire American System of government, when a 4th Branch of government was established with the passage of the FEDERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT and every CORPORATION, which now includes all CITIES, TOWNS, SCHOOL DISTRICTS, ETC., now set its own Rules, Regulations, Codes, Statutes and Procedures.

As Rules, Regulations, Codes, Statutes, Procedures are not Law, they can change at the whim of the Administrator of the Agency as they do not violate the Constitution of the United States. These are simply BAR Rules, Regulations, Codes, Statutes and Procedures since the President of the BAR of New York has signed off on all of these Rules, Regulations, Codes, Statutes and Procedures in 1926.

In and around 1970-71-72-73, everything changed in the Court System. The Charge and intent came together and a person could no longer plead Innocent, because he had to prove that he did not intend to do something, which is impossible. You now could only plead Guilty, Not Guilty, or No Contest. At the same time all the courts were brought into one court and they became Administrative/Admiralty and Civil meaning Commercial/Contracts. We are brought into the courts and when we plead we have admitted that we understand the charge against us and the system comes down upon us. The people can never have a charge brought against them, only a claim, but the instant you say Guilty, Not Guilty, or No Contest, you accept the charge.

Our courts are Common Law and our Law is established in the county you live in for the County is your seat of government. You establish your case through Affidavits and enter them into the county record which becomes Public Policy concerning your Case. You wait 30 days and if the Affidavit is not REBUTTED you enter a Default into the County Records, make out an order for the County Judge and have him/her to enforce your Judgment.

The government officials are called "Constitutors", which means anyone who swears an oath to pay the "DEBT" of another. The government has been putting their Obligation to pay our "DEBTS" back on us, THEREBY, the ACCEPTANCE for VALVE.

NOTE: The entire inmate population in America will receive copies of this notice of claim. So, I suggest that all inmates and all other modern day slaves on probation and parole “File your Power of Attorney” to gain your standing in the Law. In addition to that “File your Trademark/Copyright” to make Attorneys pay who would violate your statement and File your UCC the following statement “I claim on the "STRAWMANS" Assets.”

Furthermore, study the REDEMPTION PROCESS and you will not only gain your FREEDOM but you will KNOW you are FREE!

Every true Black leader or redeemer in American history that has ever taken such a stand and led our race a step closer to liberation have faced White American retaliation by either assassination or incarceration (Noble Drew Ali, Malcolm X, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Huey Newton, Fred Hampton, Larry Hoover, Tupac Shakur, Nipsey Hussle and all others) including myself.

So I understand the grave danger that I have put myself into by defending myself, my race and my culture against the oppression and tyranny imposed upon us by the United States government.

Even those of us who may not be considered leaders or redeemers, past and present, have been and are still being brutally murdered in the United States by government officials.

To name a few, Sandra Bland, a Black queen was brutally murdered by a racist white police who arrested her for allegedly committing a municipal traffic violation.

Another young Black queen by the name of Breonna Taylor was brutally shot and killed by a racist white police officer in her own home for no justifiable reason.

And George Floyd was killed publicly by a racist white police officer for allegedly making a purchase from a store clerk with a counterfeit $20 bill.

Yet and still, I will do God's Will even if I must lay my own life on the line for the liberation, compensation and salvation of my unborn nation.

The United States government is now on the verge of collapsing as a nation. The wealth that sustains America revolves around the energy that the Black race have put into it during slavery as well as the energy that we continue to put into it to this day.

The U.S. economy is upheld by the hands of Black men and women.

If Black Americans decide to reject the U.S. Dollar as our currency exchange and make an agreement with Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa to accept the BRICS currency as our source of exchange in commerce the United States government would collapse, instantly.

Therefore, the United States government is hereby forewarned to either cease and desist with the mistreatment of the Black race or lose its preeminence as a government superpower with extensive ability to exert influence and project power on a global scale.

The Great Orator Minister Louis Farrakhan said, “The striking thing about the warning is... warning is never meant to hurt you but to keep you from hurting yourself.”

I understand that the presentation of these revelations will cause the United States government to tremble in fear of losing its illusion of independence.

And I know that this notice of claim poses a greater threat to the United States government than all of the nuclear weapons aimed at America by both China and Russia combined.

So I expect the United States government to make an attempt to assassinate me soon after this notice of claim is filed, but like my brother Jesus I’m ready and willing to die trying to do God’s Will.

As sick minded as I may seem to be, I am well aware that even the recent UFO sightings are not as much of a concern to the United States government as this notice of claim is.

While the Pentagon is trying to make sense of what seems like an alien invasion, I’m laughing at how dumbfounded such so-called intelligence officials are because I’m well aware that the UFO’s (unidentified flying objects) flying over Canada, Alaska, Michigan and Wisconsin (where I reside) are the auxiliary of my own clandestine military who are in preparation to defend me if the United States government attempts to make any assassination attempts on my life.

I am a scholar of the art of war with advanced dexterity in the artifice of deviation who has been diagnosed by European psychiatrists with psychosis because I am able to deviate from what is standard, normal, or expected like my extraterrestrial family members. But any African psychologist would understand because my melanin allows me to commune with God, directly.

The Pentagon is cautious in describing what the UFO sightings actually are while I am certain that they have been sent by my celestial guardians within the ethers to aid and assist me in all of my righteous endeavors.

With that being said, I advise the world, all world leaders and all global pioneers to take heed. President Biden, President Putin, President Xi Jinping, Prince Williams, Pope Francis, Mr. Jacob Rothschild, George Soros, Zbigniew Brzezinski, Donald Trump, Elon Musk, Mark Zuckerberg, King Salman of Saudi Arabia, Kristalina Georgieva, Judge Dalveer Bhandari, Volker Türk, and António Guterres; of course, all of you are in preeminent positions of power on planet earth.

But I'm sure that you all are aware that there are forces outside of this world that could dominate and annihilate you all.

Such forces do not respect a President any more than it respects a prisoner.

Therefore, please humble yourselves and be mindful that Presidents and prisoners are all perceived as equal from the perception of the Beyond Omnipotent force of the universe known as God. And the power of a President could be confiscated by the Beyond Omnipotent force and placed upon someone who appears to be as powerless as a prisoner.

With that being understood, you all shall be humbled by this warning. I'm sure that most world leaders may underestimate guys like me who come from poverty and prison. But don't pity me, pity the fool.

Wisemen never underestimate their opponents. And I hereby profess to oppose the plutocracy who governs all global affairs.

The spirits of my ancestors seek vengeance through me for the 243 years of slavery followed by the 92 years of Jim Crow that your ancestors imposed on them.

The White Supremacy of the Western Power Structure shall be deconstructed by the petition of which this notice of claim entails.

In order to counter the divide and conquer strategy implemented by white supremacists on people of color worldwide, I endeavor to unite Blacks in America with Latinos in America and form an economic and military alliance with not only Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa but also with other African nations, Mexico and Puerto Rico.

While incarcerated in federal custody at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago, I provided legal assistance to many high profile inmates and high ranking (so-called) gang members including members of the Latin King Nation who could be considered a Latin American dynasty.

The Latin King Nation is the warrior class of Latin Americans in the United States. And the Latin King Nation has the magnetic pull to amalgamate a large majority of Latin Americans in the United States.

And with the comradery that I have with Latin Kings, I am in the position of power to unite Latin Americans in the United States with Black Americans as one political party.

Like Black Americans, Latin Americans in the United States have been inflicted with immense instances of injustice.

With regards to the 2016 indictment of the Latin Kings in the Northern District of Illinois, an informant who worked for the United States government dictated all operations of the organization and even ordered multiple members to commit murder.

Therefore, the United States government is the real criminal in the case and it is time for such government corruption to be uncovered and corrected.

Organizations such as the Freemasons, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderberg Group and the Illuminati are no different from so-called street gangs in nature.

The only real difference is that such organizations have been able to develop political power in the world without any of their unlawful operations being disrupted by government forces.

In fact, if so-called street gangs such as Vice Lords, Gangster Disciples, Crips, Bloods, Latin Kings, MS-13s, and those alike, were to unite as one think tank, synchronize their revenue and commence their own bank and work together as one nation, they would be either as powerful or more powerful in the world than the Freemasons, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderberg Group and the Illuminati.

The liberation and compensation of which this notice of claim commands may alarm the modern day slave masters of America as the alarm awakens the modern day slaves from spiritual slumber.

Collectively, so-called street gangs, as one political coalition, are the sleeping giant previously insinuated by the Honorable Larry Hoover.

The sociology of secrecy has significantly helped to sustain the criminal operations of the Western Power Structure.

And if so-called street gangs could all collaborate and operate together in secrecy as a union and socially develop into a compatible national community with mutual goals aimed towards peace and prosperity, they could build a true nation, even greater than the United States of America. My imagination itself is a greater nation than the United States of America.

Such so-called street gangs were initially conceived in order to defend themselves and their communities from government tyranny and oppression which is a Human Right under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

In spite of our Human Rights, the United States government has gone as far as infiltrating street gangs and ordering hits on rival gang members in order to create constant conflict within our communities which perpetuates high rates of violence and incarceration.

The 2016 Latin King indictment in the Northern District of Illinois is a prime example of such government corruption.

This exhibits the United States government's implementation of the divide and conquer strategy on the urban areas of America.

And cunningly contrived cultural influence with well strategized social engineering is provoking us all to kill each other.

The divide and conquer strategy is not only implemented domestically but also internationally, being that we would be labeled domestic terrorists for reaching out to other countries like Russia and China for security and support against government tyranny and oppression.

What Nazi Germany did to the Jewish race during Adolf Hitler's reign from 1933 until his death in 1945 is worse than what the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA has done to Blacks.

We need help. Just as the United States government is providing security and support to Ukraine against Russia, if the United Nations does not make an effort to resolve the issues brought forth by this notice of claim then I will exercise my Human Rights to request military security and economic support from other countries.

China gave Hip Hop and R&B superstar ‘Akon’ one-billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) to develop the poor living conditions in certain dilapidated areas in Africa while the United States has never done such a good deed for any Black celebrity so apparently China is more willing to help Black people than the United States government is.

It is vitally important that because Blacks are compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, our Human Right to rebellion against tyranny and oppression must be protected by international rule of law.

The United Nations must intervene and redeem us just as the United State supposedly intervened and redeemed the people of Libya when Muammar Gaddafi was allegedly tyrannizing his citizens.

And if the United Nations does nothing then my quest for redemption and justice will detour towards establishing economic equality for Black Americans through BRICS (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South America).

As a conscious Black man, it’s an insult for me to be forced to accept a currency that has pictures of former slave masters on it (U.S. Dollars).

Jewish people would feel the same if I had attempted to buy something from them with a form of currency that’s designed in the imagery of Hitler and Nazi Germany.

So it is our Human Right to reject the U.S. Dollar and accept BRICS as our chosen currency.

As Malcolm X had once affirmed, "the media is the most powerful entity on earth. They have the power to make the innocent guilty and to make the guilty innocent."

Traditional mainstream media and even social media are both masterfully proficient in influencing the perspectives, personalities, and actions of the mass public.

The Jewish globalist establishment weaponized the media against Adolf Hitler to make his attacks against them appear unreasonable and unjustified.

On February 21, 2023, former President Donald Trump affirmed, "World War 3 has never been closer than it is right now"... "we could end the Ukraine conflict in 24-hours with the right leadership." But President Joe Biden is in cahoots with the corrupt globalist establishment who's currently instigating World War 3 while the media is making Russian President Vladimir Putin appear to be the aggressor.

In fact, NATO is the aggressor against Russia and the United States government is in alliance with NATO.

President Vladimir Putin actually wants peace but the United States and the Western Power Structure paints a different picture through the media in the exact same manner that they have painted a distorted picture of its modern day slaves, including Jeff Fort and Larry Hoover.

Of course the media's masterful proficiency in manipulating the minds of the mass public make such allegations hard to believe.

Even most of our Black celebrities are slaves. Some of them may very well be rich slaves but they are still slaves.

Kyrie Irvin of the National Basketball Association (NBA) was suspended from his job for exercising his Constitutional First Amendment Right by simply making reference to an educational documentary that was devised to enlighten Black Americans.

The mass public could easily be convinced that Black Americans have equal opportunity to wealth, power and freedom in the United States when they consider the perceived wealth and power of Black celebrities such as Jay-Z and Beyoncé but such Black celebrities are mere puppets who are under the control of modern day slave masters, as YE (Kanye West) had recently exposed.

Likewise, selfish Black men and women who attain an appearance of power and wealth forget about the poor living conditions of the majority.

The government does not care that only a selective, selfish few Black citizens get rich in America as long as the majority never attain Black independence. And the divide and conquer strategy is carefully intact to prevent that.

Black culture (Hip Hop culture) is the most influential culture in the world.

And Hip Hop artists are being used like slaves to endorse European brands which only builds European wealth.

There are companies who have creative control over Hip Hop music who also own private prisons. Such companies are in the business of producing music of negative influence and criminal content which stimulates the criminal intent that leads young Black men and women to prison.

They pay Black artists to push a cultural agenda of Black on Black crime, homicide and drug abuse.

The mainstream music industry is a monopoly with stock in the prison industry. And the elite executives of the music industry have ties to the executives of the judicial system.

Every Black artist who refused to contract under any record company that is affiliated with the mainstream music industry monopoly has been victimized.

Tory Lanez became more successful as an independent artist than most mainstream artists and he was framed in a criminal case because he refused to sell his soul to the mainstream music industry.

I was incarcerated with R&B Superstar R. Kelly at the Metropolitan Correctional Center of Chicago where I met and befriended him. My many discussion with R. Kelly was based upon his personal instances of injustice.

R. Kelly and I both believe that his case was a legal lynching by a mob who disguises themselves under the guises of music industry executives and law enforcement officials.

The systemized operations between the music industry and the prison industry is mass entrapment of Black Americans and this matter should immediately be investigated by ICC prosecutors for violating our Human Rights.

If this notice of claim and peace treaty is not honored, I will declare war on any and all participants of such injustice. Not a war of nuclear weapons, but a war of nuclear words (lyrical and judicial warfare).

Former FBI director J. Edgar Hoover erroneously affirmed, “there will never be another Black Messiah unless we (the federal government) create him.” But I beg to differ.

Under Title II of the The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) an individual is considered to have a "disability" if he or she has a physical or “mental impairment” that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.

Most Black Americans suffer from the “mental impairment” of “Post Traumatic Stress Disorder” and “Post Traumatic Slave Disorder.”

As I previously mentioned, Black Americans genetically inherited such mental impairment from what the tyranny and oppression the United States government imposed on our ancestors.

And every time their media displays how police officers are still lynching Black men like George Floyd we are traumatized over and over again.

It is a form of psychological slavery. All Black inmates in America are suffering from such mental impairment and they all should be served with treatment instead of punishment.

Nevertheless, while the United States should be building more mental health institutions for Blacks they’re only building more correctional institutions (prisons).

With that being understood, I hereby demand the International Court of Justice to order the United States government to release all nonviolent Black inmates and provide them all with outpatient mental health treatment.

And as for the violent offenders, I demand that they’re all provided with intensive inpatient treatment with guaranteed stipulations set for sentence reductions and early release after being properly treated.

For those of you who feel antagonized by my audacity to demand such freedom, justice and equality for myself and my people, I hereby suggest that you all humble yourselves and honor my demands because I am the Spirit of Christ who came once in the form of Jesus, once in the form of Noble Drew Ali, once in the form of Malcolm X, now in the form of myself, Ronnie Bo; as this Spirit is indestructible and will continue to resurrect and redeem in a multitude of forms in the future long after my earthly demise.

My proclamation of being the Spirit of Christ in itself displays that my imagination itself is a greater nation than the United States of America.

And just as Jesus deconstructed the power of the Roman Empire with such ideology, I will deconstruct the Western Power Structure with the same concept.

Mahatma Gandhi technically conquered the British Empire with a thought. So I would advise the United States government not to underestimate my mind power and overestimate its ability to assassinate me.

Take heed to the scriptures; chapter 4:14 of Ecclesiastes: “For he comes out of prison to be king, even though he was born, poor in his kingdom.”

Now take heed to the numerology encoded in this biblical scripture (4:14). “414” is the area code of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Why is this indication so significant? Because a prophet born and raised in that particular area was destined to come out of prison and become king.

Jesus is King, and, believe it or not, but “I inherit the power of Jesus.”

In my book, THE HOLY TRAP SCRIPTURES, I,

Ronnie Bo, born poor in the 414 area code (where I was once known as “King of The City”) prophesied the global changes brought by the coronavirus pandemic 5-years ahead of time and I also prophesied in the book that I would be framed in a criminal case by the federal government. Both prophecies took place and came true, indeed!

The book of Deuteronomy 18: 18-22 says:

I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers, and I will put my words in his mouth.

He will tell them everything I command him. I myself will call to account anyone who does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name.

You may say to yourselves, “How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the Lord?” If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the Lord does not take place or come true, that is a message the Lord has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously, so do not be alarmed.

With that, we know that I am a proven messenger of God. And I am the one prophesied about in Ecclesiastes 4:14 whose destiny was to be put in prison, and come out of prison to become king.

I came from federal prison, where I studied with some of the wisest men in America and left with the guidance and direction it takes to conquer and lead this world; in addition to the guidance and direction it takes to build a whole new nation, from nothing!

And with further regards to the book, THE HOLY TRAP SCRIPTURES has already been banned by the Department of Corrections in the State of Wisconsin which shows that the government already perceives me as a threat.

The State Seal of Wisconsin clearly indicates that Wisconsin is a slave state. My book is capable of making any prison environment a mere soul refinery for inmates which would reduce recidivism.

And with Wisconsin being a slave state that thrives predominantly-economically from modern day slavery, my book was tactically but improperly censored for both economic and political purposes. So I hereby indict the State of Wisconsin in the World Court for violating my Human Rights under Article 27 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The book ban necessitates an effort to establish THE HOLY TRAP SCRIPTURES as incorporated religious scriptures that shall be acknowledged as true holy scriptures by the United States government through the Religious Corporation Act of 1872 so that my culture has the religious right to read the book in all environments including jail and prison.

My culture shall also have the religious right to choose their beliefs. I am well aware that the human mind contains the power to make new realities out of new beliefs.

Our old beliefs in traditional religions have held us confined to traditional realities that have not been very pleasant.

Religious beliefs and ceremonies are supposed to ameliorate our mental and spiritual conditions, not aggravate them.

Traditional religious beliefs have kept my race under confining cultural conditions and have drawn us to inaccurate conclusions about who God is, who the devil is and who we are as a race of people.

When Blacks study the history of The Vatican we find that in 1452 Pope Nicolas V granted Portugal the right to enslave sub-Saharan Africans.

And the Bible was used by American slave masters to uphold slavery. So subconsciously, Blacks have been psychologically abused by traditional religious views.

While Pope Francis claims that he is against modern day slavery he has done nothing to liberate the modern slaves of America from such servitude.

Pope Francis must act on this notice of claim because his own legacy and the religious reign of the Roman Catholic Church is hereby challenged by me and this notice of claim just as the primitive German Priest Martin Luther once challenged the holy misconduct of Pope Leo X for exploiting the beliefs of the populace for monetary gain.

The teachings of my book, THE HOLY TRAP SCRIPTURES makes each and every believer in my teachings feel as holy as any Pope could ever perceive themselves to be.

The Trap Culture who defines themselves as Trap Niggas have been consecrated by my teachings as not only divine people but as the chosen people of The Most High God.

The Trap Culture has been demonized by America's media just as the religious people of Islam are demonized by mainstream media but I endeavor to purify my culture as the holiest people on earth.

Honorable men like Larry Hoover and Demetrius "Big Meech" Flenory are revered more than the Pope is by my culture. So I endeavor to convert the organization founded by Larry Hoover, formerly known as Gangster Disciples, into a religious organization known as God's Disciples.

And I endeavor to add a religious division to the BMF (Black Mafia Family) brand founded by Demetrius "Big Meech" Flenory of which I aspire to name the Black Messiah Foundation.

Such lofty ideology and innovative methodology is designed to compel world leaders to acknowledge my culture and respect our cultural influence over the world in order for our Human Rights to be honored in the world and I have the religious right to pursue such a transition to sacred status in the world for my culture and I.

Cannabis/marijuana, a natural substance created by The Grand Architect of The Universe, is primarily consumed by my culture for both recreational and spiritual purposes.

However, the United States government is violating the religious rights and Human Rights of myself and my culture for consuming such a sacred herbal substance by charging us as criminals for exercising our rights to possess, distribute and consume it.

Cannabis/marijuana is the tree of knowledge. It is the burning bush that Moses had made contact with when God began direct communication with Moses. My personal consumption of cannabis/marijuana facilitates my ability to directly communicate with my heavenly guardian as well.

Alcohol is legal to consume in the United States. And while driving under the influence of alcohol has caused the lives and properties of many pedestrians to be lost, driving (or any other activity) under the influence of cannabis/marijuana is not known to cause any loss of life or property.

So I am entitled to the belief that the United States has set illegal injunctions against myself and my culture which prohibits our consumption of cannabis (a natural substance) in order to hinder our communion with our Heavenly Guardians so that the government could continue to oppress and tyrannize us without divine intervention.

Every independent nation has their own currency. Typically, most nations use oil, gold or other natural resources to back their currency.

Therefore, I hereby request the World Court to order the United States to either grant Black Americans our own independent state in America or grant us reservations in each and every state in America with the option to have our own currency.

Black Americans should not be forced to accept dollars with former slaves masters displayed on them as our currency.

With regards to the economic development of our currency I endeavor to use cannabis as capital to back our currency with.

And since America promised us all 40 acres and a mule which we never received, I believe that each community per 1,000 residents should at least be granted their own dispensary with each individual having an equivalent share of stock in each community dispensary.

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) is the largest development bank in the world which supposedly supports the World Bank Group's mission to provide loans and advisory services to creditworthy low-income countries in order to reduce poverty and build shared prosperity.

So if the World Court doesn't have the international authority to order the United States to compensate Black Americans to such extent then I hereby ask the World Court to file a judgment order authorizing me to innovate my own independent nation among the Black American population with financial obligations due to the World Bank Group to provide us up to four-trillion dollars ($4,000,000.000,000) in funding.

The United States government conspicuously deems Black empowerment as a combative threat to national security.

But I am willing to meet with the National Security Council to resolve such issues.

Nevertheless, I am not willing to compromise the liberty of my people in any way or for any amount of wealth.

America's elite have innovated and perpetuated the implementation of cunningly contrived systems of injustice to counter a Black man's rise to political power, cultural influence and economic development.

The aphorism for any significant stride towards political power, cultural influence and economic development for Blacks in America is “Retaliation by Assassination or Incarceration.”

Nevertheless, “all we say to America is be true to what you said on paper. Had I lived in China or even Russia or any totalitarian country, maybe I could understand some of these illegal injunctions. Maybe I could understand the denial of certain basic First Amendment privileges because they haven’t committed themselves to that, over there. But somewhere I read, of the freedom of assembly. Somewhere I read, of the freedom of speech. Somewhere I read, of the freedom of press. Somewhere I read, that the greatness of America is the Right to protest, for right!

... We’ve got some difficulties ahead. But it really doesn’t matter with me now, because I’ve been to the mountaintop. And I don’t mind. Like anybody I would like to live, a long life. Longevity has its place. But I’m not concerned about that now. I just wanna do God’s Will. And he’s allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I’ve looked over and I’ve seen the promised land. I may not get there with you. But I want you to know... that we as a people will get to the promised land!

So I’m happy... I’m not worried. I’m not fearing any man. My eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the lord” (quotations reiterated by myself as Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. had initially and emphatically articulated himself).

Even though “Retaliation by Assassination or Incarceration” is my likelihood as a conscious, courageous, outspoken Black man, emulating the characteristics and endeavors of my role models (Malcolm X and other gallant Black revolutionist) on the global battlefield of international affairs, fighting for the Human Rights of myself and all other Blacks in America; I believe that this is my life’s purpose and I’m willing to die trying to fulfill this purpose.

ICC prosecutors and international politicians should demand that full investigations be conducted and that the United States and its government agencies are disciplined to the maximum available by international rule of law.

The disturbing details delineated in this notice of claim should enable the World Court to act decisively.

Holding perpetrators accountable for Human Rights violations is vitally important.

Corrective measures are in the interest of justice. Such stipulations are the only way to ensure equality and assure the public that our government is honoring our Civil Rights as well as our Human Rights.

Please ponder over the following poem of which I wrote while serving hard time in a United States prison during the Coronavirus Pandemic for a non-violent crime that I did not commit:

As we drown in poverty
They strangle us with injustice
“I CAN’T BREATHE!”
You’re choking me with corruption
Polluting our air with poison
The breath of life is a blessing, but
“I CAN’T BREATHE!”
I’m suffocating from oppression
Without the oxygen of liberty
How could we strive forward?
“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

I plead as the tears in my eyes pore

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

The freedom that Dr. King died for

Is being squeezed out of our lungs

Will we survive lord?

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

I begged for my inhaler

Locked up with Covid and Asthma

As my health went ignored by the jail nurse

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

Get your knee off of my neck, please!

George Floyd screamed

As law enforcement forced his decease

“I CAN’T BREATHE!”

Peep out the rate of Black deaths

Our lives are on the line

Fight until your last breath

NOTICE OF INJURY

WHEREFORE, Black Americans need our own global media network to broadcast to the world what the United States government is doing to us, and have been doing to us for almost 500 years.

International public relations people from all nations including China, Russia, Africa and Saudi Arabia should all start broadcasting the way the United States government is violating the Human Rights of its Black citizenry in the same manner that the American media broadcasts the imperfections of other countries.

And this notice of claim should be a leading story in the global affairs of world news.

It is slavery for Blacks to work 8-hours per day for white owned companies as Whites themselves build generational wealth from our labor while our people only earn enough to survive from paycheck to paycheck.

It is slavery to be entrapped into impoverished environments where crime appears to be the only way out.

It is slavery for Blacks to earn less from their own talent and skill than the White and Jewish capitalists who thrive by capitalizing on our energy and creativity more than we do.

“Black Owned-‘Global Media’” will be the most effective and most economical asset for the Black race nationally and internationally.

Movies and music are two of the most powerful tools of mass influence in existence and both industries are predominantly owned and controlled by White and Jewish capitalists who function as modern day slave masters by exploiting the energy and creativity of Black Americans.

Most of the music and movies produced by European executives have been designed to negatively influence the criminal activities of Blacks which has impelled one-third of us into prison.

Moreover, there are no Black owned national sports leagues. And Europeans oversee all public education systems.

Therefore, I hereby ask the World Court to constitute a four-trillion dollar ($4,000,000,000,000) loan against the United States government and order the World Bank to loan the four-trillion dollars to Black Americans for our educational and economic reconstruction and development, with the United States government being held accountable to recompense the loan.

I endeavor to use the four-trillion dollar to establish; urban community sports leagues; a new public school system to re-educate Black youths; a national Black owned law firm; a Black owned cannabis dispensary franchise; a Black owned religious empire; a Black owned banking system; a Black owned real estate conglomerate with enough land to build multiple Black owned reservation in America; a national Black owned public safety agency to police our own reservations; and a Global Media Network to control, broadcast and produce our own music and movies.

I also endeavor to invest a significant amount in repairing the thousands of Black homes that have maliciously been broken by America's judicial system.

Many Black fathers are incarcerated due to government corruption. And this leaves Black youths lost in environments that would lead them to prison also without the parental guidance of a father figure.

It is no secret that after President Abraham Lincoln had supposedly ended slavery in America in 1863, the slave master's and slave catchers became politicians, police officers and judges who cunningly crafted legislative and judicial systems to reform the form of slavery which still exists as of 2023 and most of the Black prisoners currently incarcerated now simply fell victim to such entrapment.

The ICC should investigate such claims and prosecute each and every United States government official presumed guilty of participating in such a conniving conspiracy.

Meanwhile, I aspire to provide monetary compensation to each and every Black convict who ever suffered from such injustice with remainings of the four-trillion dollars hereby requested.

Especially those who were incarcerated during the Coronavirus Pandemic. The concentration camps of Nazi Germany couldn't have been any worse than the prisons and jails in America during the Coronavirus Pandemic.

And every inmate who was forced to endure such inhumane conditions must be compensated.

Last but not least, I hereby demand the World Court to file an order with stipulation for the United States government and its subsidiary states to immediately release and exonerate me and 100,000 other inmates of my choice, including Larry Hoover, Jeff Fort, Demetrius Flenory, Robert Lamar Miller, Prarie Kelly, John Phillips and Ronald Brooks, from all convictions and confinement, state and federal, just to diplomatically display to Black America and the rest of the world that these Human Rights issues are taken seriously and being honored.

In closing, I hereby diagnose this world as a very sick place. This notice of claim is a written prescription that shall make the World Court well aware of such an illness.

But it is up to you all to fill the prescription.

Four-trillion dollars ($4,000,000,000,000) is a small monetary demand compared to all that me and my people have suffered in America for over 400 years.

PEACE TREATY

I, Ronnie Bo, Agent for RONNIE MARTIN, being of sound mind, over the age of 21 years, have first hand knowledge of the facts stated herein as a Peace Affidavit.

Using a notary on this document does not constitute any adhesion, nor does it alter my status in any manner.

The purpose for notary is verification and identification only and not for entrance into any foreign jurisdiction, a benefit for the Pagans and Heathens so they whom I pray may become knowledgeable in the truth for the Law by our Holy Father in Heaven and repent, so they will no longer be alienated from their true God, Yahweh.
